EXPLANATION OF ARRANGEMENT--HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

The numbering system of the main section of this book is a familiar one to those accustomed to working in the field of genealogy. For those new to finding their way around in what may at first seem such a maze-- PLEASE be patient with us while we explain a bit--and PLEASE keep trying until it becomes easy to find what you are looking for and to understand the general arrangement. Use the index to personal names and the index to places to find the pages of particular interest to you.

As the title indicates, we have designated Peter Lehew of Front Royal as Number One. It is this Peter Lehew who appears as Peter[1] in the lineage which appears after the name of each person written up separately in the main section of the book. The raised numbers, of course, represent generation numbers, with Peter the first generation, his children the second generation, etc.

In addition to these raised numbers denoting generations from Peter of Front Royal, each descendant has a small Roman numeral to the left of his name as it appears in the list of children of his parents. Ideally, this number should indicate the order of the births of the children in the family, and when this order is known to us, the list is so arranged. It has not always been possible to get these dates, however, and the reader should be aware that if further information should come to light on the order of birth in any of these families, a revision of the book would call for a great deal of rearranging of numbers.

Now, since any descendant about whom we have more than the barest minimum of information has been given a separate writeup, we must use a third number to keep these writeups in their proper order. So Peter[1] is also (1), and Peter's children are assigned numbers from (2) through (9). Then the numbering goes on with the children of (2), using the next number in order, which in this case is (10), and so on. Now let us suppose you wish to find one of your ancestors and to trace his descent from Peter[1], reading the writeup on each ancestor as you go. For example, you choose to look up Duncan Lahue. In the index to Lahue names, you find under Duncan Lahue references to p. 30 and pp. 67-68. The earlier page shows him in his parents' family--the later pages show him with his own family. Now, even without further help from the index, you can trace Duncan back to Peter[1] (the outline of his lineage appears next to his name in his own writeup, but we refer here to an easy way to find the writeup on each ancestor back to Peter[1]). Here is how to do it--Centered above the writeup on Duncan as head of a family appears (98) son of (24). Since these centered numbers in parentheses are in numerical order, it is a simple matter to turn back to (24) son of (6), and so on until one gets to Peter[1]. Those of Duncan's children who have been written up separately can be traced by looking forward in the book for the centered numbers which agree with those in parentheses at the left of their names as they appear in the list of Duncan's children. If there is no number in parentheses, it means that we have not been able to learn anything further about that member of the family.

Suppose you are descended from Peter[1] through one of his daughters, granddaughters, etc. The same numbering system applies to these lines, but we have done only very limited research on female lines. To try to carry these down through the generations would have meant making an intensive study of many family names as Lehew girls changed their names through marriage. It seemed better to us to confine ourselves to the one name in its many forms, so that we could consider each line and each individual from all research angles, and thus feel truly "acquainted" before writing about them. You will find many names other than Lehew in the index, however (so many that we have made a separate index of them), because we have used material sent to us on female lines. This material has in general been sent by the families themselves, which gives authority to the listings without the need for special study on our part.

If your own name is not in the index, even though you have sent us information connecting you with Peter[1], it may simply mean that yours is a later generation than space would permit us to include here. In that case, try looking up your parent or grandparent in the index.

Appendix I--We are very sorry that we ran into so many "dead ends", as it were, and were therefore unable to include a great many research results in the main section of our book. Because we hope that new information will be found or that others will be able to make connections that we have missed, we have placed in an appendix those groups of Lehews which we can trace only part way back, but which it seems to us probably are descended from Peter[1] also. These names are also included in the index, but since the connections are not clear, no attempt has been made to include them in the numbering system of the main section. To avoid confusion with the main section, a completely different arrangement was chosen for this appendix. This arrangement is explained at the beginning of Appendix I.

List of Sources--The symbols a, b, c, aa, bb, etc. which appear after the word "Sources" at the end of each personal sketch refer to the list of sources near the end of the book.

Index Section (in 3 parts)--Each family member is listed in one or the other of the name indexes (married women are listed under maiden name as well as married name), according to whether the name is some form of Lehew (etc.) or some other surname. The page numbers refer to main items--in general, incidental references to an individual have not been indexed. Many had identical names, but there is a separate listing for each individual bearing that name. If you have trouble locating a particular individual, crosschecking place index and name index may help you locate him. Or try under his nickname --sometimes that was all that was sent to us!

INTRODUCTORY CHAPTER

Most of us who have Lehew (Lahugh, LeHue, etc.) ancestry feel that there is a bond of relationship between us. It is the purpose of this book to set forth in organized form the results of a great deal of research done by ourselves and others in an attempt to define some of these relationships. Because we are of the firm belief that we (the compilers) are descendants of Peter Lehew of Front Royal, Virginia (whose will was probated in Frederick County, Virginia in 1782), and because the ancestry of so many others has also been traced back to him, we have chosen him as our Number One ancestor, and have titled the book accordingly--"Peter Lehew of Front Royal, Virginia, and Some of His Descendants." We wish we could leave out that word "some", but we are well aware that there are many, many more descendants than we have been able to trace.

The Name and Its Many Spellings--Over the years, the name has taken on so many different spellings (and pronunciations!) that many people who now spell their name "Lahue" or "La Hue", for instance, find it very difficult to believe that their ancestry could be the same as that of someone who spells his or her name "Lehew" or "LeHew". We do not claim that every Lehue and every Lehew, etc. in the United States is a descendant of Peter Lehew of Front Royal. In fact, we know this is not the case, for we have some 1850 Census records which show Lahue-LaHue families in northeastern USA whose oldest members were born in France in the late 1700's, the next younger group in Canada, and the children in the USA. Peter Lehew of Front Royal, Virginia, died between 1780 and 1782 in Frederick Co., Virginia, so could not have been their ancestor. Any possible common ancestry there would have to be established from records in France before 1688, if we are correct in assuming that Peter Lehew of Front Royal was the son of Nicholas Lehew (Lehugh), whose name appears in records of Northumberland Co., Virginia as early as 1688. There does, however, seem to be a tradition among most groups bearing any form of the name Lehew that it was originally a French name. The spelling "Lehew" is, of course, a corrupted form of whatever the original French name was. The letter "w" is rarely to be found in French except in words taken from other languages. One must even consider the possibility that the name might have been completely different in France--if Nicholas Lehugh was in fact a Huguenot fleeing the persecution of this group in France, he might have preferred to adopt a new name entirely. It is interesting to compare the various forms given to the name Lehew in this country with the names of similar sound to be found in recent Paris telephone directories. We found LeHoux, Leheux, and Lehu in the phone book; from a list of French soldiers who took part in the American Revolution we added these spellings: Lehue and La Huee. Without knowing whether any of the above might have been the one from which our Lehew, etc. is derived, we can only speculate as to what our name might have meant. Bellow's French Dictionary defines Le Houx as the holly; La Huée as the shouting or hooting. The others do not appear in this dictionary. (The Le or La, of course, means simply "The".)

When writing of the name in a general way, we have used the spelling "Lehew" for convenience. Variations from this indicate the spelling used in the record referred to, or a knowledge that this spelling was or is used by the person or family referred to. Because we were not always sure which ones used the space after the Le or La--and also to save space--we have run the two parts together. It has not been possible to be consistent all the way through, because there has been no absolute consistency in records or usage even among brothers and sisters, or for the same individual over a long period of years. Before ability to spell and write became general, the few trained to do so spelled names from sound for the others (and the spelling chosen often reflected the nationality of the person writing), which explains to a great extent the variations found.

Where did we get our information?--Over the last forty years or so, literally hundreds of letters have been written to people bearing any form of the name Lehew. Dr. John Leslie Lehew I, Mrs. Ida Critten, and Miss Eleanore LeHew preceded us in this research and very generously shared the answers they received with the rest of us, and the research was carried on from there by sending out more letters and questionnaires, checking county records, census records, war records, etc. and carefully assessing the results. Several of us have been able to make trips to the counties where ancestors have lived, and our research among the records in the various courthouses has provided a great deal of information. Our "shorthand" method of referring to these sources is explained in the "How to Use the Book" section. More detailed references would have made the book too long and expensive; however, we shall be glad to reply in detail to anyone who wishes more exact and specific source information. Please direct your inquiries to Mrs. C. F. Foster, Route 1, Elburn, Illinois, 60119.

In spite of our best efforts to check every item most carefully, we know that some errors will be found. However, before putting the blame for all the errors on us, please remember that many of the names, dates, etc. are taken from your letters, which we have kept on file! We are very sorry if we have misspelled your name or made mistakes in dates, etc. We must confess to having had a little difficulty reading handwriting at times. If you send us corrections or additions, please give the exact source of your information; we can then perhaps see where we have gone astray. In many cases, there have been differences in material sent by two different descendants, or between two different sources of public records. In these cases, we have studied very carefully all the material we could find on these people, and have tried to make the most logical choices. As an example of this, in one case descendants sent us an 1881 birthdate for an ancestor. When a search of the 1880 Census showed this individual as a seven-month-old child, those descendants were very quick to see that the 1881 birthdate could not be correct! It is not unusual for people to lose track of their exact ages as they grow older, and we must therefore expect to find these small differences in material from different sources.

Early background--records and traditions--We have called this book "Peter Lehew of Front Royal", etc., because he was one of the early settlers in the area of what is now Front Royal, Virginia, and because the land he bought on Happy Creek from Christopher Marr in 1754 is now part of Front Royal. Actually, Front Royal was not so named until after Peter's death--and there was a period both before and after its official naming as Front Royal when many referred to it as "Lehewtown".

Peter Lehew's name (sometimes also as Lahugh and Lehue) appears in Frederick County, Virginia, Order Books as early as 1748, and his first land purchase in Frederick County was made in 1754. This is undoubtedly the same Peter Lehew who was granted 972 acres of land in the Northern Neck of Virginia by Lord Fairfax in 1724. Peter Lehew was a resident of Northumberland County, Virginia, at the time of this grant, and the 972 acres were on Cedar Run in that part of Stafford County which a few years later became part of Prince William County (both Virginia counties). The deed was recorded in Prince William County in 1733. Peter's name is reported to have appeared on a list of voters in Prince William County in 1741. He probably went from Prince William County to Frederick County sometime before 1748, when his name first appears in Frederick County records. A number of Northumberland County families seem to have followed this same path of migration to Frederick County.

Peter was the son of Nicholas "Lehugh", as the name usually appears in Northumberland County records. Some researchers on the Lehew-Lahugh, etc. family have thought that there must have been another generation between Nicholas and the Peter who showed up in Frederick County in 1748 or earlier. The only evidence we have seen of such a possibility is a little "squiggle" which may be "Jr." after Peter's name in one of the records having to do with the land on Happy Creek (Frederick Co.) in 1754. It seems to us that even if this is meant to be Junior, it could easily be an error--there were two Peters at the time of this land purchase, but the one purchasing the land was the father of the other Peter. Until some more convincing evidence comes to our attention of a "lost generation" headed by Peter Lehugh, son of Nicholas, we shall accept Peter Lehew of Front Royal as the son of Nicholas. It probably means assuming that Peter lived to a grand old age, but many of his descendants have reached the 80's and 90's--why not Peter? We do not know when Peter was born. In the 15 May 1942 issue of "Genealogy and History", someone seeking information on the Lehew family stated that Peter Lehew was born in 1692 in France. We are sure he was not born in France, but have found no way of checking this possible birthdate. If it is accurate, then he lived to be 90.

Since the name Nicholas Lehugh appears in the records of Northumberland County, Virginia, as early as 1688, it seems most likely that his son Peter was born in Northumberland County, and that it was Nicholas who was the immigrant ancestor. There seems to be general agreement that our immigrant ancestor came from France, and in some branches of the family there persists to the present day a tradition that their immigrant ancestor was a Huguenot who fled the renewed persecutions which followed the 1685 revocation of the Edict of Nantes. The legend (we find similar ones in other Huguenot families) is that Nicholas had himself shipped to England in a hogshead, and later made his way to America. Whether this is true or not, it makes a good story, and the time when his name begins to appear in Northumberland County records ties in well enough for him to have been one of the Huguenots who were making their way to England and on to the American Colonies after the revocation of the Edict of Nantes.

Nicholas Lehugh's name appears in Northumberland County records at intervals from 1688 until February 1718/19, when his son Peter and his wife Mary of Wicomico Parish came into court to swear that Nicholas had died without making a will, and were appointed administrators of his estate. No other family members are mentioned in the records, and it is presumed there were none. Nicholas' estate seems to have consisted of an eighty-acre farm (possibly used for raising tobacco?) and considerable personal property. A 1722 record shows Mary, widow of Nicholas, making a declaration regarding the release of her dower rights in the land, which she and Peter, of "Wiccocomoco" Parish in Northumberland County, sold to John Jordan. The inventory of Nicholas' personal property is recorded in Northumberland County Record Book for 1718-26, and includes three slaves, plus the infant of one of them.

Peter Lehew married Frances Allen. So far as we know, no record of this marriage exists today, unless it is in the Spencer Lehew Bible, which at last account had disappeared from sight. Descendants of Spencer have given us her maiden name. Whether this was his first and only marriage, we do not know--the name Frances appears in Frederick County, Va. records as early as 1762 (as wife of Peter), and his "beloved wife Frances" is one of the heirs and one of the executors named in his will of 1780. Until evidence to the contrary is revealed, we shall assume that Frances was Peter's first and only wife and the mother of his eleven children. All of these children are named in Peter's will, except his son John, who died before his father. John's will, dated January, 1777, was proved in Frederick County in June, 1778. The will of Peter "Lehue" provided that his personal estate should go to his wife Frances, passing to the unmarried children at her death or marriage. The land which Peter owned on Happy Creek was divided among eight of his children. His son Spencer was bequeathed five shillings, and his son Peter twenty shillings "over and above what he has already received."

In the will, the sons and daughters are grouped separately. In the following list of Peter's children, we have followed the order of listing in the will, with the exception of Winifred, who seemed to us to be one of the older children, if not the oldest, and John, who is not among those named in the will. In most cases we have found very little on which to base estimates of birthdates, and have used the order in the will, in case, as sometimes happens, it might have indicated order of birth. Our best guess is that these children were born from about 1730 to the early 1750's. Census listings are of little use here, since the 1810 Census is the earliest actual census of Virginia that is available. The only ones of Peter's children we have been able to find on any 1810 Census are William and David, and of course this census gives no exact ages.

Children of Peter Lehew:

(2) i. Winifred Lehew
(3) ii. Spencer Lehew
(4) iii. Peter Lehew
(5) iv. John Lehew
(6) v. William Lehew
(7) vi. Jeremiah Lehew
(8) vii. Francis Lehew
(9) viii. David Lehew, b. abt. 1754
ix. Elizabeth Lehew) These 3 are referred to by maiden
x. Junia Lehew) name in their father's will, and xi. Hannah Lehew) are therefore presumed to have been unmarried at that time (1780). Nothing further on them.

Further notes on the above can be found by looking for the page on which the number in parentheses is centered on the page. It will be seen that there was a general scattering of the sons of Peter Lehew from 1795 on. With the exception of Peter^2, who, as far as we can see, has left no trace in the records of Frederick and Shenandoah Counties, and John, who died in 1777 or 1778, the sons of Peter^1 are pretty consistently listed on personal property tax records of Shenandoah or Frederick County in Virginia from the beginning of these lists in 1782, to 1794. Jeremiah was in Woodford Co., Ky. by 1795; Francis was in Boone Co., Ky. by 1797; William was in Wythe Co., Va. probably by 1794, and David, who shows up for the last time in Shenandoah Co., Va. in 1805, probably went to Fayette Co., Pennsylvania that same year. Spencer died in 1802, probably in Frederick Co., Va. Mrs. Grace Merritt of Indianapolis has indexed the 1810 Census for the entire state of Virginia, and finds Lehew names only in Frederick, Shenandoah, and Wythe Counties. The only son of Peter still in Virginia in 1810 was William, in Wythe Co.

SECOND GENERATION

(2) dau. of (1)

WINIFRED^2 LEHEW (Peter^1)--daughter of Peter Lehew and wife Frances (Allen). We have estimated that Winifred was probably born early in the 1730's. We know from DAR records and from an inquiry which appeared in "Genealogy and History" for the 15th of May, 1942, that she had a daughter Nancy, who was born 15 March 1754. Another "Genealogy and History" query

(Nov. 1948) states that Peter "Lehue's" daughter Winifred married Vincent Owens in Prince William County, Va., and moved to Frederick Co., Va. If Winifred was married before her father's move to Frederick Co. (by 1748), and was, say, 18 at the time of her marriage, then she must have been born around 1730 (even earlier if we accept the Vincent Owens born 1740 as her son). We have tentatively placed her as Peter's oldest child.

Winifred is referred to as "my beloved daughter Winifred Owens" in her father's will of 1780. Winifred and Vincent Owens were still residents of Frederick Co., Va. in 1802 when they sold some land to Wm. Vannort--land devised to Winifred by Peter Lehew. We have no later trace of them. There must have been at least two children--the Nancy Owens referred to in the genealogical query mentioned, and a brother of Nancy referred to in that same query (his name was not given in the query). This brother located at Bowling Green, Ky., and was the father of Colonel Owens, member of Congress, states the querist. There may also have been a son Vincent, for there are a number of descendants of one Vincent Owens who have claimed DAR and SAR membership by virtue of his service in the Revolutionary War. There is some confusion among these records, since some indicate that the Vincent Owens who served in the Revolutionary War was the one who was married to Winifred Lehew, while others claim Vincent's wife was named Lucinda. This could be a case of confusion of two generations bearing the name Vincent Owens. Certainly Vincent Owens, Revolutionary soldier born about 1740 is not likely to have been the father of Nancy Owens, b. 1754!

Let us list the children of Vincent Owens and wife Winifred (Lehew) tentatively as follows:

i. Vincent???, b. abt. 1740; d. 1834 in Washington Co., Penna.
(10) ii. Nancy Owens, b. 15 March 1754
iii. son, who accompanied Nancy & her husband to Ky.

Two people from Frederick County, Virginia by the name of William Owens served in the Revolutionary War. One has been identified as the husband (also her cousin--son of her father's brother William) of Nancy Owens, above. There is a possibility that the other William may have been a son of Vincent Owens and his wife Winifred (Lehew). Descendants of this William give his birthyear as 1762 and his wife's maiden name as Nancy Creage or Craig. He was born in Frederick Co. Virginia, resided in the same general areas of Pennsylvania as Revolutionary soldiers Vincent Owens and David Lehew, also in Jackson Co.,W.Va., and died in Jackson Co., Ohio.

Because of the confusion as to whether Vincent Owens, Revolutionary soldier, was a son of Vincent and Winifred (Lehew) Owens, we have not tried to carry his line forward, although we do have considerable material on his descendants. Vincent served in the same unit with David and Jeremiah Lehew, and states in his pension report that in 1819 he was in the same vicinity as David Lehew (in Pennsylvania).

(3) son of (1)

SPENCER[2] LEHEW (Peter[1])--son of Peter Lehew and wife Frances (Allen). Believed to have been born in the early 1730's, possibly in Prince William County, Virginia. His descendants have given us the maiden name of his wife as Ann Foley, and a possible marriage date of 1762. Records of Frederick Co., Va. refer to Spencer's wife as Nancy. Note that Spencer[3], son of Spencer[2], also had a wife Nancy, but not until about the time of his father's death.

The name Spencer Lehew appears in the records of Frederick Co., Va. from 1754, when he was a witness to the deed for his father's first land purchase in Frederick Co., to his death. His name appears on the personal property tax records of Frederick Co. from the beginning of these records in 1782, through 1801, then "Widdow Lehew" appears instead.

It is said that in 1758 Spencer Lehew belonged to the company of Jacob Bowman and was fined ten shillings for absenting himself from general muster.

Spencer Lehew had a farm near Front Royal which was called "Orchard Meadows." According to Dr. Bernard Samuels (a descendant), the house burned around 1855, but the chimney stands in what is called "Chimney Field" in Front Royal.

Spencer Lehew's death is recorded as 22 Nov. 1802 in a Bible which belonged to some of his Ohio descendants. His widow and family show up on the 1810 Census of Frederick Co., Va. as follows:

Nancy "Lewhew": White males--1(16-26)
" females--1(16-26); 2(26-45); 1(45 or over)

Spencer Lehew's will, dated 16 Sept. 1802, was probated in Frederick Co., Va., in 1803. A Frederick Co. record shows that the estate account was finally approved in 1817 and that Nancy, Spencer's widow, had received her one-third dower interest of $216. Spencer, Jr. was the administrator. The will lists the children as heirs in the following order: John Lehew, Mary PumRoye, Moses Lehew, Spencer Lehew, William Lehew, Nancy Lehew, Elizabeth Lehew, Evia Vannort, Rebecca Lehew, Rachel Wiley. From the evidence at hand, we would say these heirs are not listed in the order of their birth. Rachel's name appears after Rebecca's--and Rachel was born in 1766, while Rebecca is referred to in the will, dated 1802, as under age. Our bases for estimating the birthdates (some are actual dates taken from descendants' records) are explained in the writeups on each individual. We have tried to get closer estimates of these dates of births by studying 1810 and 1820 Census lists for Frederick and Shenandoah Counties in Virginia, but were able to find only Moses, Spencer Jr., and Eda on these lists.

Children of Spencer Lehew: (cont'd p. 10)

(11) i. John Lehew, probably b. abt. 1762-63
(12) ii. Rachel Lehew, b. 1766
(13) iii. Nancy Lehew, prob. b. between 1770-1780

iv. Elizabeth Lehew, prob. b. 1765-1784
(14) v. Mary Lehew, prob. b. abt. 1774?
(15) vi. Moses Lehew, b. 1770-1775
(16) vii. Spencer Lehew, b. 29 Oct. 1776
(17) viii. Eda Lehew, b. 1779 or 1780
(18) ix. William Lehew, b. prob. abt. 1785
(19) x. Rebecca Lehew, b. between 1784 and 1794

(4) son of (1)

PETER[2] LEHEW (Peter[1])--son of Peter Lehew and wife Frances (Allen). We have absolutely nothing on which to base an estimate of Peter's birthdate. His father's will says "I give and bequeath unto my loving son Peter Lehue the sum of twenty shillings over and above what he already has received." Perhaps he was one of the older children and had left Frederick and Shenandoah Counties before his father's death, since he does not show up on the personal property tax lists, which begin in 1782, and since there are no county records in either county in the name of Peter Lehew after the death of the older Peter. (It would be difficult to say whether there might have been two Peters in the earlier records.) Nothing further has been learned about Peter.

(5) son of (1)

JOHN[2] LEHEW (Peter[1])--son of Peter Lehew and wife Frances (Allen). Probably born in the early 1740's. He bought 35 acres of land on Great Happy Creek (in Frederick Co., Va.) from his father in 1765, and it is assumed from this that he had by then reached adulthood.

John Lehew made a will dated 26 January 1777. It was probated in Frederick Co., Va. in June of 1778, so death date was between these two dates. The will does not mention a wife or children--in fact his only heirs were nephews--his brother Spencer's son John was to have his land, "with the still and mill and all the appurtenances thereon and my Negro fellow Will and Negro Moll and eleven heads of cattle now in my possession and a feather bed and fifteen head of hogs"--and his brother William Lehew's son William was to have "one hundred pounds current money of Virginia to be paid to him at the age of twenty-one". It looks as though John had no wife or family of his own.

(6) son of (1)

WILLIAM[2] LEHEW (Peter[1])--son of Peter Lehew and wife Frances (Allen). Estimated birthdate of not later than 1745, judging from dates of his children's births (we have birthdates on his eldest son, William, ranging from 1763 to 1770, and are inclined to place his birth between 1765 and 1770). There may have been daughters older than William, if the order of listing of heirs in the senior William's will is any indication. On a 1775 Census of Dunmore Co., Va.* William was listed with 3 white males under 16, and a total of 5 white females (presumably 4 daughters and his wife), making a total of 7 children.

William's wife was named Hannah. We do not have her maiden name, nor do we know for sure that he was married only once, since the first record we have found in which William's wife is named is a 1793 real estate record. In the absence of evidence to the contrary, we shall assume that she was his one and only wife, and the mother of his twelve (or possibly thirteen?) children. If the 3 males under 16 on the 1775 Census were all his sons, then one must have died before his father, since William's will lists only five sons, and we know three of those were born in 1783 and later.

The names William Lehew and Francis Lehew appear on a list of men living in the lower district of Dunmore Co., Va., under the command of Captain Joseph Bowman. This suggests the possibility that they may have taken part in Dunmore's War against the Indians.*

William Lehew supplied 350 pounds of beef to the Revolutionary Army, for which on 29 August 1783, the County of "Shanando" authorized payment of twopence a pound, or a total of two pounds, eighteen shillings, fourpence!

When Peter[1] Lehew made his will in 1780, William was named as one of the sons--to receive 35 acres of land "on the east side of the creek" joining Peter's son Jeremiah's bequest of 35 acres. After Peter's and the witnesses' signatures appears the note "Further it is my will and desire as my son William Lehue will not accept of my legacy of 35 acres of land on the east side of the creek I give and bequeath said land to my beloved daughter Elizabeth Lehue." Just why William turned down his father's offer of 35 acres of land is anyone's guess, especially since he seems to have wanted the land. Shortly after his father's death, William bought from his sister Elizabeth Lehew the 35 acres of land which had been left to her by her father. In 1793, William Lehew and wife Hannah sold this same 35 acres.

In September of 1792, William leased 71 acres in Frederick Co., Va. from the Fairfax estates, the lease to run during the "natural lives of Isaac, Spencer, and Cornelius," his three sons. Evidently he got the urge to go to Wythe Co., Va. shortly after that, for a Wythe Co. deed, dated 12 Oct. 1792, shows the purchase of 123 acres on Reed Creek in that county by William Lehew of Frederick Co. As we have noted, in 1793 William and wife Hannah sold the 35 acres which had been part of the Peter Lehew estate. Since there were two Williams--father and son--who went from Frederick Co., Va., to Wythe Co.

*See Note 1, Appendix II.

it is difficult to judge from Frederick Co. tax records exactly when the move took place. Only one William Lehew appears on these lists from 1782 to 1799, after which these Williams disappear from Frederick Co. tax records, but since the younger William's first land purchase in Wythe Co. was in 1799, and the deed describes him as a resident of Frederick Co., we are inclined to think that about 1793, the senior William went off to Wythe Co., and that his son William, who was married in Frederick Co. in 1792, took his place on the tax lists of Frederick Co., and then followed his father to Wythe Co. about 1799 or 1800. It is interesting to note that William's name appears in Frederick and Wythe Co. records in all the following ways: Lehugh, Lehew, Lahew, Lehu, Lahue, La Hue, Lahugh. Lahue-La Hue predominates in Wythe Co., and the descendants who went on to Harrison Co., Indiana seem to have managed to get it standardized to Lahue or La Hue after the first year or so (1817-18 records show Lehew).

Both William, Sr. and William, Jr. appear on the 1810 Census of Wythe Co., Va. The senior William is listed as follows:

William Lehew: Males- 2(16-26); 1(45 or over)
Females- 1(10-16); 1(16-26); 1(45 or over)

The will of William[2] Lehew, dated 20 November 1811 and probated on 11 February 1812 in Wythe Co., Virginia, names 12 children as heirs. His wife is not mentioned, although she seems to be among those present on the 1810 Census.

Children: (in order named in will, except for Spencer, Cornelius and Isaac, whose birth dates we have from descendants)

i. Oldest dau. (name?), widow of Wm. Fetheringale
ii. Second dau., Rebecca Listing
(20) iii. Oldest son, William Lehew, prob. b. abt. 1765
iv. Dau. Winny Hurst, prob. b. before 1775
(21) v. John Lehew, prob. born before 1775
vi. Dau. Rachel, wife of John Craig, prob. b. bef.1775
vii. Dau. Lear Davis, prob. born after 1775 viii. Dau. Elizabeth Smyth, prob. b. after 1775
(22) ix. Son Spencer Lehew, b. 1783
(23) x. Son Isaac, b. 1787
(24) xi. Son Cornelius Lehew, b. 1788
(25) xii. Dau. Nancy Lehew, possibly the youngest child

The above guesses of ages before and after 1775 were made on the basis of the information on the 1775 Census referred to, plus the order of naming in the will. William's will also names a niece, Polly Lehew, parents unidentified. This may well be the Mary "Lehue" who was married in Harrison Co., Ind. in 1816 (to John Morgan), with permission of her "stepfather" John Smith.

(7) son of (1)

JEREMIAH[2] LEHEW (Peter[1])--son of Peter Lehew and wife Frances (Allen). Probably born in the 1740's. His wife's name was Amelia, referred to as Milly in some county records, Amelia in others. We do not have her maiden name. It should be noted that there was also a later Jeremiah Lehew whose wife was named Milly. The later Jeremiah and Milly were married in 1816 in Shenandoah Co., Va. The Jeremiah and wife Amelia of this sketch were in Kentucky by 1795.

The earliest record we have found for Jeremiah Lehew is one in Frederick Co., Va., Order Book No. 16--at a Court held in March, 1774, it was ordered that Jeremiah Lehew be paid 100 pounds of tobacco for 4 days attendance at court as a witness.

Referring again to the 1775 Census lists for old Dunmore Co., Va. (See under William and Francis, and also Note 1, Appendix II), we think the John Netherton list, pictured in Brumbaugh from the original handwritten list, contains the name Jeremiah Lahugh, although the printed version of this list does not contain the name. This Jeremiah was the only person in his household, and all it tells us is that he was over 16.

Jeremiah Lehew and his brother David served in the same company in the Revolutionary Army--Capt. Machen Boswell's Company of the 2nd Virginia State Regt., commanded successively by Col. Wm. Brent and Col. Gregory Smith, under General Morgan. Jeremiah enlisted in March of 1777 for three years. Because of this service, Jeremiah received a Continental Line Warrant for 100 acres of bounty land in the Military District of Ohio. The Ohio State Land Office Records indicate that Survey #1415 in Brown Co., Ohio was made in the name of Jeremiah "Lahaw", but there is no indication that it was patented to him. Ohio tax records show Jeremiah Lehew as "original owner", but not as taxpayer, and a search of Brown County records at the Courthouse did not reveal any Lehew records. There is no evidence that he ever applied for or received a pention.

Jeremiah Lehew is mentioned as a son in his father's will of 1780--to receive 35 acres of land on the east side of the Creek. His name occurs in Frederick Co., Va., land records from 1784 to 1800 (his address in 1800--Woodford Co., Ky.) in connection with sales of this property. His name also appears pretty consistently on personal property tax lists of either Frederick or Shenandoah Co. in Virginia from their beginning in 1782, until the year 1794. In the year 1790, the tax lists indicate that there were 2 males over 16 in Jeremiah's household. This would seem to indicate that he had at least one son, who must have left the area (or died?) before setting up his own household, since no new Lehew names appear on the tax list for 1791, and Jeremiah's household is back to one white male over 16 in 1791. The 1790 Census of Frederick Co. (made up from 1782 tax lists after the 1790 Census was destroyed) seems to have Jeremiah's name completely garbled--perhaps the original handwriting was illegible. We would say that David "Lepue" and "Imy Lepue" were meant to be David and Jeremiah Lehew. These names appear next to that of Argyle Taylor, and other tax lists and real estate records indicate that these three did live close together. Jeremiah (or Imy!) had 3 whites in his household then (indicating one child?). We have not been able to learn anything further on Jeremiah's family.

Jeremiah Lehew's name appears on Frederick-Shenandoah tax lists for the last time in 1794, and on the Woodford Co., Ky. tax lists for the first time in 1795. We studied these Woodford lists through 1811, but found Jeremiah Lehew on them only from 1795 through 1799, always with 1 white male over 21. He seems to have left the area or died before assessment time in 1800. His name (with wife Amelia) appears in a deed record in Boone Co., Ky., dated March 1800, and we have no later record of him. We could find no records in his name in Woodford Co., Ky. The whole of the 1810 Census of Kentucky was studied, without result as far as Jeremiah was concerned. His name does not show up on Boone Co. tax lists from 1800 to 1810, nor on the "Second Census of Kentucky", a tax list substitute for the lost 1800 Census of Kentucky, indexed on a statewide basis.

(8) son of (1)

FRANCIS[2] LEHEW (Peter[1])--son of Peter Lehew and wife Frances (Allen). We can only estimate when Francis might have been born, and have attempted this by noting the earliest dates his name appears in county records (assuming that he was no longer a child when his name appeared as witness, etc.). The earliest such date that we could find was 1762 in Frederick County, Va., from which we have estimated a birthdate of around 1741. Another check on Francis' age seems possible by studying records which seem to pertain to his children--at least one of them. His son John, who was married in Shenandoah County, Va. in 1791, appears to have been born between 1770 and 1775. We would guess John's birthdate as close to 1771, since he married in 1791. Assuming Francis to have been at least 21 when John was born, our estimate by this method gives Francis a birthdate before 1750.

We have found no record of Francis' marriage, but that his wife's name was certainly Leannah we know from real estate records in Frederick and Shenandoah Counties in Virginia. Our theory is that she was Leannah Taylor, daughter of Lazarus and Hannah (Bradford) Taylor, and sister of the Reverend John Taylor. It has long been supposed that Leannah Taylor married a Peter Lehew, and lived in Front Royal, Virginia. Mrs. Dorothy Brown Thompson, who has made quite a study of this Taylor family, and who is a descendant of the Reverend John Taylor, agrees that it is more likely that Leannah married Francis Lehew. Francis and Leannah Lehew seem to have lived in Front Royal next to Argyle Taylor, another brother of Leannah. Boone County, Ky., records show that Francis Lehew and the Rev. John Taylor were there at the same time--in fact that the Rev. John Taylor performed the marriage between Peter Lehew (almost surely a son of Francis) and Polly Horsley in 1800. Peter Lehew and wife Polly are the best bets to have been the parents of one Meredith Lehew born in this area in 1800 or 1801, and Meredith is a name which occurs in the Taylor family. There is no Peter Lehew in any of the Shenandoah or Frederick Co., Va. records--including personal property tax records--from 1782 on, and if it had been a Peter Lehew whom Leannah Taylor married, this would be the period when one would have expected to find them living in Front Royal.

We estimate the date of Francis' death as between 1817 and 1820. We assume that the Francis and Peter Lehew who owned property in Perry Co. and Spencer Co., Indiana, in 1817 were Francis above and his son Peter, and that the 1817 transfer of land from Francis to Peter (Spencer Co.) may have been in anticipation of death. The 1820 Census shows only Peter in Spencer County. For Peter, there seems to have been a period of residence in Dearborn Co., Indiana between the Boone Co., Ky. and the Perry Co., Ind. residence, and it is likely that Francis was there also, although we have no definite evidence on this.

As far as we can tell, Francis Lehew lived in the Shenandoah Valley almost continuously from childhood on until about 1796, although he may have been born in Prince William County during his parents' sojourn there. We do not have exact enough information to be sure of this. Francis Lehew (along with his brother William) appears on a list of men in Lower District, Dunmore County, Va. (Shenandoah was called Dunmore Co. from 1772-1778) under the command of Captain Joseph Bowman. It is supposed from this that Francis and William Lehew served in Dunmore's War under Joseph Bowman.*

Francis owned 160 acres in Shenandoah Co., Va. from 1783 to 1792, when he and his wife Leannah, then residents of Culpeper Co., Va., sold this property in Shenandoah Co. He also had 35 acres in Frederick Co., Va., bequeathed to him by his father. This land was described in the will (dated 1780) as "on the south side of the main road where Francis now lives."

We have studied the personal property tax records for Frederick and Shenandoah Counties in Virginia from 1782, when these records begin, to 1814. These two counties must be considered as a unit during this period, for Shenandoah Co. was created from Frederick, and Lehew properties seem to have straddled the county line. Francis' name appears on tax records of one of these counties or the other almost continuous-16 from 1782 to 1796, when he seems to have left the Shenandoah Valley. In 1793, he was in Culpeper Co., Va., and appears on that list. By 1795, he had returned to Frederick Co., only to leave again after 2 years. Because the Francis Lehew-Peter Lehew combination (we had heard that Francis had a son Peter) appears in Boone Co., Ky. on the "2nd Census of Kentucky" (made up from tax lists to substitute for the lost 1800 Census), we studied Boone Co. and Campbell Co. tax lists (Boone Co. was part of Campbell Co. before 1799) and found the name Francis Lehew appearing for the first time in 1797, with 2 white males over 21. This is the very next year after his name last appeared in Shenandoah-Frederick tax records. Francis is listed with 2 white males over 21 until 1800, when he is listed with 1 white male over 21, and this is the year the name Peter Lehew appears for the first time, with 1 white male over 21. Both Peter and Francis appear on these Boone Co. lists until 1803, and then, although we checked on through 1810, we found no further Lehews. All this fits too well to be anything other than Francis[2] and his son Peter. We have several clues as to where Francis and Peter went from Boone Co., Ky., but we have not been able to find tax lists to trace and time their exact migrations after leaving Boone Co. The name Peter Lehew appears in Dearborn Co., Ind. (just across the Ohio River from Boone Co., Ky.) on lists of jurors in 1806 and 1808 and on a list of voters in that county in 1809. The courthouse records for Dearborn Co. have been checked, but show nothing further on Francis or Peter Lehew. There is no 1810 Census list for Indiana, and the 1810 Census for the entire state of Kentucky shows only the John Lehew who settled in Grayson Co. The 1820 Census for the state of Indiana has been indexed on a statewide basis and shows Peter Lehew in Spencer Co., Ind. A check of records in Spencer Co. showed deed records for Peter and Francis Lehew from the county's beginning in 1817, and refers us back to Perry Co., parent county of Spencer. A Perry County tax list for 1815 (published in a county history) includes the name Peter Lehew, and 1816 and 1817 deed records show both names. It seems safe to say that Francis and Peter migrated from Frederick Co., Va. to the area around Boone Co., Ky. around 1796 or 1797, then on to Dearborn Co., Ind. sometime between 1803 and 1806, and were in Perry Co., Ind. by 1815. The part of Perry Co. where they lived became Spencer Co., and it is likely that this is where both Francis and Peter died.

From the Frederick and Shenandoah Co. tax lists, we noted that the highest number of white males (over 16 or over 21, according to which year the list was for, as this seemed to vary) ever listed for Francis Lehew's household was four, in 1791. This probably represents Francis himself and 3 sons. The number decreased to 2 white males over 16 in 1792, when John Lehew first appears on the list, leading us to the conclusion that John was Francis' son, and that another son may have left the county or died between 1791 and 1792. These tax records tell us nothing about the females of the family, or about any younger sons, but we do know from Shenandoah Co. marriage records that Elizabeth Lehew, daughter of Francis (so designated in the record), married Richard Conner (or Comer) on 3 Jan., 1793. So we have three known children of Francis; there was probably at least one more son.

ii. Elizabeth Lehew, who m. Richard Conner in 1793

(9) son of (1)

DAVID[2] LEHEW (Peter[1])--son of Peter Lehew and wife Frances (Allen). Born about 1754. Revolutionary War pension lists show David as 78 years old--presumably when he made application (under Act of 1832) for pension, which was probably in 1832. His pension application papers have either been misfiled or lost completely, but published pension indexes and reports show his age. David's wife's name was Elizabeth, full name not known to us. David and wife Elizabeth appear in Frederick County deed records beginning in 1785.

David Lehew and his brother Jeremiah (and a number of other Frederick Co., Va. men)* served in the same company for at least part of their Revolutionary Service. The exact date of David's enlistment is not known to us. He was on the muster roll in March of 1778--we have no earlier records. He served in Capt. Boswell's Company in the 2d Virginia State Regt. commanded by Col. Wm. Brent, and in Capt. Bressie's Company under Col. Gregory Smith. Although David's pension application seems to have been lost or misfiled by the War Department or General Services Administration, his pension folder contains papers sworn to by himself and his agent in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland Co. Penna. in 1838, to the effect that his agent had lost David's pension certificate and was applying for a copy. There are also papers in the folder showing that David Lehew of Westmoreland Co., Penna. had been a private in Col. Brent's Regt. for 2 years and that his name had been inscribed on the pension roll at Pittsburgh under the Act of 1832, and certificate of pension issued the 20th of June 1833, payments to be made at the rate of $80 per annum, commencing 4 March 1831. It is assumed that he was successful in getting a new certificate but that he probably died before 1840. He is not on the 1840 Census of Rostraver Township, Westmoreland County, and does not appear on the 1841 list of pensioners.

David received Warrant No. 972 for 100 acres of land for his military service. Survey 535 in Clermont Co., Ohio was made in his name, but the land was patented to John S. Lytel. We could find nothing in Clermont Co. to indicate that he ever went there; it is possible that he, like many others, sold his land without ever seeing it.

David was one of the Executors of his father's will in 1782 (his mother was the other one). He is named as a son and heir in that will--to receive 35 acres of land--that particular piece on which his father lived. David's name appears consistently on personal property tax lists for Frederick or Shenandoah County in Virginia from the beginning of these lists in 1782, to the year 1805--which seems to time his move to Fayette Co., Penna. He appears in Fayette Co., Penna. on the 1810 Census as follows: (in Redstone Township)

David Lehew- males: 1(under 10);1(10-16);1(16-26);1(45 or over) females: 1(16-26);1(45 or over)

Also in Fayette Co. in 1810 were Peter Lehew and John Lehew. We feel sure they were David's sons and that the ancestry of the compilers of this book goes back through this Peter to David2 and Peter1. This 1810 Census seems to indicate 3 other sons in the family. That David had a son named Fielder Lehew born about 1805 in Fayette Co., Penna., we have learned from the 1850 Census of Fayette Co. (which is unusual in that it gives counties of birth in many instances), and from the 1880 will of Fielder Lehew, which includes the following: "in case any money being left by said Fielder Lehew's father, David Lehew", etc. This information about Fielder's place and date of birth and the name of his father gives us the information we need as to David and family's arrival in Fayette Co., and ties in very well with information from the tax lists of Virginia previously referred to.

So Fielder was the male under 10 in David's family in 1810, and we still have a son born between 1794 and 1800 and another son born between 1784 and 1794 to try to name. The 1820 Census of Fayette Co. includes one French Lehew in the 26-45 group (born 1775-1794), and one Joseph Lehew with 1 male 45 or over and 2 males between 16 and 26. It is possible that since David does not appear on this census of Fayette Co. as head of a family, that he might have been the male over 45 who appeared with Joseph Lehew, and that Joseph could have been the son born between 1794 and 1800 that we are seeking. The other male in Joseph's household could be Fielder, who, if we are making correct assumptions, would have been Joseph's brother. Note that in each case we have mentioned all the Lehew names appearing on the census designated.

A tentative list of David's children:

(28) i. Peter Lehew, b. abt. 1778 in Maryland
(29) ii. French Lehew, b. abt. 1783 in Shenandoah Co., Va.
iii. Daughter, b. bet. 1784 and 1794
(30) iv. John Lehew, b. abt. 1793 in Virginia
v. Joseph Lehew, b. bet. 1794 and 1800
(31) vi. Fielder Lehew, b. abt. 1805 in Fayette Co., Penna.

There could have been other daughters, perhaps married before 1810. Thus far, we have been able to learn nothing that would explain the family's presence in Maryland at the time of Peter's birth. This information about Peter's birthplace was obtained from the 1850 Census of Marshall Co., Va.--now W. Va.

Nevertheless, we are convinced that David and Peter were father and son, and have numbered Peter and descendants accordingly.

By the time of the 1830 Census, David--age bet. 70 and 80--and John "Lehugh" were living close together in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland Co., Penna., while French Lehugh was still in Fayette Co. Also in Fayette Co. in 1830, in Bridgeport, was a new Lehew name--Henry Lehew, age 30-40. We would guess that he was a son of David, but he could have been a grandson. Peter had moved on to Greene Co., Penna. Joseph is no longer to be found in any of these three counties (unless he could possibly have been named Joseph Henry, and be listed under the second name in 1830?). Note that the moves between 1820 and 1830 do not involve any great distances.

Fielder Lehew and John Lehew appear on the 1840 Census in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland Co., Penna., Peter on the 1840 list of Tyler Co., Va. (now W.Va.). David was not on the 1841 list of pensioners and is assumed to have died between 1838 and 1840. He would have been 84-86 by then. No further trace of Joseph and/or Henry Lehew.

We shall do what we can to carry David's line forward, with the help of census materials, the rather scanty county records, and some information from Lehew-Leyhew-etc. families still living in Westmoreland and Fayette Counties in Penna., but there are many missing links, and some groups, therefore, must be listed in the appendix.

NANCY[3] OWENS (Winifred[2] Lehew Owens, Peter[1] Lehew)--daughter of Vincent Owens and wife Winifred (Lehew). Born on 15 March 1754, probably in Frederick Co., Va. Married on 20 Sept. 1773 in the Shenandoah Valley to William Owens, her cousin. William was born in Frederick Co., Va. in 1750 and was the son of Nancy's father's brother William and his wife Judah. William's (Nancy's husband) Revolutionary War pension papers state that he had been living in the counties of Augusta and Montgomery in Virginia when called into the Service, and that after the Revolution he lived in Montgomery Co. until that part in which he lived became Wythe Co. He continued to live in Wythe Co. until 1796, when he moved to Russell Co., and lived there until 1803, when he removed to and settled in Pulaski Co., Ky. He died there in 1836, and Nancy died in 1840. They are both buried in the old Baptist Cemetery at Somerset, Ky. William's pension folder includes pages from the family Bible, which give the family of William Owens and wife Nancy (Owens) with their dates of birth.

See p. 20 for list of children.

Children of William Owens and wife Nancy (Owens):

(11) son of (3)

JOHN[3] LEHEW (Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Spencer Lehew and wife Ann--or Nancy--(Foley). Probably born about 1762 or 1763. His first child was born in 1785, which would lead us to suppose that he himself was born 1765 or earlier. John's name appears on personal property tax lists for Frederick Co., Va. for the first time in 1784--no male in his family (not even himself) over 21. So he had to have been born after 1763 (after 1762, if tax listing is for the previous year, as is usually the case nowadays). This John appears on these Shenandoah Valley tax lists until 1803. John's identity as a son of Spencer Lehew and grandson of Peter Lehew seems to be well established by Frederick Co., Va. will and deed records. He is named as one of the sons and heirs in Spencer's will of 1802, to inherit "50 acres of land lying in the Blue Ridge."

Dr. John Leslie Lehew, Miss Eleanore LeHew, and other descendants of John have given us his wife's name as Elizabeth Spencer. According to a Bible record sent by another descendant (Wm. P. Irwin), Elizabeth Spencer Lehew died 12 Sept. 1823.

John Lehew's name appears on the 1806 tax list for Muskingum Co., Ohio. He may have been there earlier, but there is no earlier tax list. However, John Lehew and Elizabeth Lehew, his wife, sold property in Front Royal, Va., in March, 1805, and the record gives their residence as Front Royal as of that time. Harriet Fritz (another descendant) quoted Elizabeth (Lehew) Sheppard's obituary as showing that Elizabeth (John's youngest child) was born in Front Royal in 1804 and went to Zanesville with her parents in 1805. This is probably as close as we can expect to date the move to Ohio. Everhart's History of Muskingum Co. gives the year of Spencer Lehew's arrival in Zanesville as 1804. Perhaps Spencer (son of John) went on ahead of the others.

In 1807 John Lehew was one of the signers of a petition to permit Rufus Putnam and others to keep a ferry in Zanesville, Ohio.

Bible records furnished by William P. Irwin give John's death date as 20 June 1816. John's will, dated 14 Mar. 1816 (the original is at Zanesville Courthouse, with John's signature on it), named his sons William and Spencer as heirs of the property (one acre) on which the mill stood, but did not name his other children. However, the will provided that at his wife's death, all property was to be divided among all his children. The real estate records at Zanesville were therefore the best source for a complete list of children living after Elizabeth's death, as all sales of John's property required signatures of all the children and their spouses. This list (which, it will be noted, agrees with Mrs. Fritz's list of children she had supposed belonged to Moses Lehew, and which also agrees with the Bible list from Wm. P. Irwin) follows: (the birthdates are from Mrs. Fritz)

(39) i. Leitha Lehew, b. 8 Jan. 1785
(40) ii. Spencer Lehew, b. 27 Sept. 1786
(41) iii. William Lehew, b. 15 Apr. 1792
(42) iv. Moses Lehew, b. 3 May 1797
(43) v. Thomas Lehew, b. 27 July 1799
(44) vi. Nancy Lehew, b. 23 Feb. 1802
(45) vii. Elizabeth Lehew, b. 8 Apr. 1804

We shall also give here the Bible record which Wm. P. Irwin, grandson of the William Lehew listed among John's children, copied for us from what he called "records of the old original Lehew who lived in Va."

	Births	Deaths
Spencer Lehew, Sr.		Nov. 22, 1802
John Lehew, Sr.		June 20, 1816
Elizabeth Lehew, Sr.		Sept. 12, 1823
Litha Lehew, Sr.	Jan. 8, 1785
Spencer Lehew, Jr.	Sept. 27, 1786
William Lehew, Jr.	April 15, 1792	Dec. 26, 1870
Moses Lehew, Jr.	May 3, 1797
Thomas Lehew, Jr.	July 27, 1799
Nancy Lehew	Feb. 23, 1802
Elizabeth Lehew, Jr.	April 8, 1804
Leitha J. Lehew	June 15, 1829
Mary E. Lehew	Dec. 18, 1831

The Leitha J. Lehew and Mary E. Lehew at the bottom of this second list have been established as daughters of Moses Lehew --John's son. Their ages as given in guardian records in Muskingum Co. agree with these birthdates.

RACHEL[3] LEHEW (Spencer[2], Peter[1])--daughter of Spencer Lehew and wife Ann (Foley). Born 24 Aug. 1766. Married on the 17th of Apr. 1788 in Frederick Co., Va. to Moses Wiley. The Wileys lived in Frederick Co. as late as 1794, when Moses Wiley acted as a witness in a land transaction. One of his descendants, Mrs. W. K. Strode, has given us the list of his children which follows--also the information that Moses Wiley and family later lived in Butler Co., Ohio, and then in Franklin and Dearborn Counties in Indiana. It was Mrs. Strode's impression that Moses Wiley had fought under Mad Anthony Wayne in the Revolution. However, since no record of such service is on file with General Services Administration (National Archives), and since Moses was not born until 1768, one wonders whether the service under General Wayne could have been in Butler Co., Ohio, since the Wiley's did settle there, as did many who were with General Wayne in his campaigns against the Indians (after the Revolution) in that area.

Franklin Co. (Indiana) histories indicate that among the first lands "entered" in Franklin Co. was Moses Wiley's entry in Section 9 of Whitewater Twp., in January of 1808.

Children:

(46) i. Allen Wiley, b. 15 January 1789
(47) ii. Spencer Wiley, b. 20 Nov. 1790
(48) iii. James Wiley, b. 14 Dec. 1792
iv. John Wiley, b. 26 Sept. 1794; d. 4 Oct. 1794
v. Mahala Wiley, b. 11 Jan. 1796

MARY[3] LEHEW (Spencer[2], Peter[1])--daughter of Spencer Lehew and wife Ann (Foley). We can hazard a guess at her birth year from her marriage date. She was married on 5 Nov. 1792 in Frederick Co., Va., to Richard "Pumarow". If we guess her age at marriage as 18, then we can guess her birthdate as 1774. Mary was referred to as Mary "Pum Roye" in her father's will.

This is probably the present-day name "Pomeroy". Nothing further on Mary.

(15) son of (3)

MOSES[3] LEHEW (Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Spencer Lehew and wife Ann (Foley). From 1810, 1820, and 1830 Census data (Shenandoah Co., Va.), we have estimated Moses Lehew's birth as between 1770 and 1775. He was married on 15 April 1800 in Frederick Co., Va. to Hannah Branson.

In 1802 Moses Lehew bought 200 acres in Shenandoah Co. This land must have been in that part of the county which in 1831 became part of Page Co., for Moses Lehew's will, dated 1 Feb. 1837, was probated in Page Co. on 28 Aug. 1837. The will provided that all real and personal property was to go to Hannah, his wife, during her natural lifetime. At her death, daughters Rebecca and Nancy and son William were to receive one bed and furnishings each, and son Isaac was to receive all of Moses' blacksmith tools. Isaac was to take charge of farm and family, he having consented to do so, and was to be compensated for such services out of the estate, from the time of Moses' death to the death of Hannah. James H. Lehew and Isaac B. Lehew were named executors. At the death of Moses' wife (Hannah), the estate was to be divided among all Moses' lawful children, named as follows: (dates are estimates from 1850 Census listings, except for Eli, whose birthdate we have from the Millar-duBois Genealogy)

(51) i. James Harvey Lehew, b. abt. 1801
(52) ii. Eli Lehew, b. 31 March 1803
(53) iii. Rebecca B. Lehew, b. abt. 1806
(54) iv. Isaac B. Lehew, b. abt. 1808
(55) v. William Lehew, b. abt. 1812
(56) vi. Nancy Lehew, b. abt. 1814

Evidently Hannah, Moses' widow, died sometime before 16 March 1848, for the property was appraised and sold then. The final accounting shows that son Eli had died and his share had been paid to his heirs through their guardian, Giles Cook. In this final accounting record, Rebecca's name appears as Rebecca B. McCullough, indicating a marriage between 1837 and 1848.

(16) son of (3)

SPENCER[3] LEHEW (Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Spencer Lehew and wife Ann (Foley). Born 29 Oct. 1776, probably in Frederick Co., Va. Married on 8 June 1802 in Frederick Co. to Nancy Catlett, dau. of John Catlett. According to the 1850 Census of Clark Co., Mo., Nancy was born in Virginia about 1777. She died on 27 Sept. 1859. Spencer died 29 Sept. 1853 in Clark County, Missouri.

Spencer was executor of his father's will (dated 1802). He and his brother William inherited the plantation on which their parents had lived.

On the 1810 and 1820 Census, Spencer is listed as head of a family, in Frederick Co., Va. By 1823, Frederick Co. records indicate that Spencer had begun to sell his property, and sometime before 1830, the family moved to Hamilton Co., Ohio. The 1830 Census lists them there. Evidently they had been in this general area for several years before 1830, for Spencer's dau. Alcinda was married on 17 Oct. 1827 in Dearborn Co., Indiana, which is very close to Hamilton Co.

Spencer and his family were still in Hamilton Co. in 1834 when matters pertaining to property inherited from her father by Spencer's wife required signatures of some of the family--Spencer and his wife Nancy, Catlett Lehew, John M. T. Smith and Alcinda (Lehew) his wife, and Joseph Lehew. An 1839 record (Warren Co., Va., formerly part of Frederick Co.) shows Patsy and Henrietta Lehew, of Hamilton Co., Ohio selling their share of the property bequeathed by John Catlett. The move to Clark Co., Mo. seems to have been after 1839.

The 1850 Census lists Spencer and his wife Nancy in Clark Co., Mo., in the household headed by their son-in-law Charles Williams.

Below are listed the children of Spencer and Nancy as given by descendants. The 1810 Census and some family letters indicate that there may have been one more daughter, born before 1810 (prob. died young?). We have used family records for birthdates, because the ages of family members were so inconsistently listed from one census to another, and we concluded that the family records were probably from a family Bible in which the births were recorded at the time of the births, although we do not know this to be the case.

Children:

(57) i. Catlett Lehew, b. 17 Nov. 1804
(58) ii. Alcinda Lehew, b. 1807
(59) iii. Joseph Madison Lehew, b. 3 May 1813
(60) iv. Patsey A. (Martha) Lehew, b. 1815
(61) v. Henrietta Lehew, b. 1817

EDA[3] LEHEW (Spencer[2], Peter[1])--daughter of Spencer Lehew and wife Ann (Foley). Born in 1779 or 1780, probably in Frederick Co., Va. Married 18 Dec. 1801 in Frederick Co. to Jacob Vannort. Died in 1857.

On the 1850 Census the Vannorts are listed in Warren Co., Va. Mrs. Vannort appears as "Edith", age 71. In other records we have noted Eda, Edia, Evia. Jacob Vannort was a farmer. By 1860 Census time Eda had died, and Jacob Vannort, age 80, was in his daughter Ann's household in Front Royal.

Children: (exact order not known to compilers)

(62) i. Ann Vannort, b. abt. 1804
(63) ii. Lucinda Vannort, b. 1808
(64) iii. William Vannort, b. abt. 1815

(18) son of (3)

WILLIAM[3] LEHEW (Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Spencer Lehew and wife Ann (Foley). Probably born about 1785. He is evidently the white male between 16 and 26 with his mother on the 1810 Census of Frederick Co., Va., and the William Lehew whose name appears on the tax lists for Frederick Co., Va. for the first time in 1806. It is assumed that from 1803 through 1805 he was the one white male over 16 in his mother's tax listing, and that he became 16 in 1801, since in that year his father's number of white males over 16 goes up to 2 (including the father). That would make his birthyear about 1785. It would seem to be this William whose estate was being administered in Frederick Co. in 1819. We have seen no evidence that he had a wife and family, and have concluded that he died a bachelor. He was one of the heirs named in his father's will of 1802.

REBECCA[3] LEHEW (Spencer[2], Peter[1])--daughter of Spencer Lehew and wife Ann (Foley). Born between 1784 and 1794. Rebecca was referred to as under age in her father's will of 1802, and is surely the white female in age group 16-26 with her mother on the 1810 Census of Frederick Co., Va. Married 7 Nov. 1816 in Frederick Co. to Isaac Skelton, son of John Skelton and wife Nancy - or Catherine? - (Hepler).

Ike Skelton of Lexington, Mo., a greatgrandson of Rebecca, has given us this list of the children of Isaac Skelton and wife Rebecca (Lehew): (prob. not in order)

(67) i. Washington Mason Skelton, b. 1823
ii. Rebecca Skelton; m. James Allen; lived Front Royal
iii. Catherine Skelton; m. Lionel Branson Skelton
(68) iv. Aleatha Ann Skelton

(20) son of (6)

WILLIAM[3] LAHUE (William[2], Peter[1])--son of William Lahue (or Lehew) and wife Hannah. Probably born about 1765 or a little later. His age and birthdate appear inconsistently from one record to another. (See 1810 Census, 1850 Census, and tombstone record, which are included here to show this inconsistency). Referred to in his father's will as the oldest son. Married (1) on 19 April 1792 in Frederick Co., Va., to Delphia McLoad; (2) on 24 January 1824 in Harrison Co., Ind. to Nancy Cline (b. 1794; d. 13 Dec. 1864). William died 24 Feb. 1858; both William and Nancy are buried in the La Hue burying ground on the Ellwanger Farm at Hursttown in Jackson Twp., Harrison Co., Ind. The cemetery overlooks Big Indian Creek. William's tombstone reads "William LaHue, Consort of Nancy LaHue, died Feb. 24, 1858, age 95 years."

William and his family probably moved from Frederick Co., Va., to Wythe Co., Va. around 1799. His first land purchase in Wythe Co., Va. was in 1799, and the Wythe Co. record says "William Lehu of Co. of Frederick, Va." The last Wythe Co. record we found for him was an 1816 record--William and Delphy, his wife, sold the land in Wythe Co. on which they had lived. This indicates that Delphia, his first wife, was still alive in 1816, and perhaps died between 1816 and 1824, when William married for the second time. William's name (recorded in both the Lahue and Lehew forms in the earlier records) appears for the first time in Harrison Co., Ind., deed records in March of 1817, when he bought property from John Hurst, Senr. William's residence was Harrison Co.

William is listed as follows on the 1810 Census of Wythe Co.

William Lehew- males: 3(10-16); 1(26-45)
females: 1(10-16); 1(26-45); 1(45 or over)

And as follows on the 1850 Census of Harrison Co., Indiana:

William Lahue	age	80	Farmer	r.est. $1500	born in Virginia
Nancy	"	55?			Tenn.
Emily	"	22			Indiana
George W.	"	21	Farmer		"
Isaac	"	19	Laborer		"
Joseph	"	20	Farmer		"
Margaret	"	17			"
Spencer	"	15			"
Harriet	"	12			"
Charles J.	"	3			"

Charles J. Lahue seems to have been a grandson; see under his own name and generation.

William Lahue left a will dated 19 Feb. 1850. It was entered for probate in Harrison Co., Ind. on 8 March 1858. The final settlement is dated 11 Nov. 1859. This will names as heirs William's wife Nancy and the following children: George Washington Lahue; Joseph Lahue; Isaac Lahue; Spencer Lahue; Harriet Lahue (under age at date of will--died in 1852, before her father); John Lahue; Sarah Jamison, formerly Sarah Lahue; William Lahue, Jr.; Emily Lahue; Margaret Lahue. Our list of William's family is made up from this list of heirs, with the addition of a daughter Martha Lahue, who is not named in the will because she died in 1843. Her tombstone identifies her as a daughter of William and Nancy Lahue. For the most part we have used the 1850 Census to estimate birthyears. Note that the 1810 Census indicates that there were 3 boys and 1 girl in William's first family in 1810; we have the names of only John and Sarah, whose ages indicate that they were Delphia's children. The 1820 Census of Harrison Co., Ind. also indicates that we may not have the complete list of Delphia's and Wm.'s children. Evidently at least two had died before their father made his will. (Were Joseph and Isaac twins?)

Children by 1st wife:

(69) i. Sarah Lahue, b. 23 Sept. 1798
(70) ii. John Lahue, b. in Virginia in 1799

By 2nd wife:

(71) iii. Martha Lahue, b. 14 March 1826 in Indiana
(72) iv. William Lahue, b. abt. 1827 in Indiana
(73) v. Emily Lahue, b. abt. 1828 in Indiana
(74) vi. George Washington Lahue, b. abt. 1829 in Indiana
(75) vii. Joseph Lahue, b. abt. 1830 in Indiana
(76) viii. Isaac Lahue, b. 7 June 1830 in Indiana
(77) ix. Margaret Lahue, b. abt. 1833 in Indiana

JOHN[3] LAHUE (William[2], Peter[1])--son of William Lehew and wife Hannah. Birthdate not known to us, but he may have been one of the three males under 16 who were listed with William on the special 1775 census of Dunmore Co., Va. John was named in his father's will to receive one dollar, which may indicate that he was one of the older children, and well established on his own. Nothing further that is definite on John--but consider the possibility that the John Lahue who appears on the 1810 Census of Grayson Co., Ky. could have been this John, son of William. A study of several Grayson Co. Census listings narrowed the Grayson Co. John's birthyear estimate to the ten-year period 1765-1775, and revealed other names familiar to us from our study of Frederick Co. and Wythe Co. records (Va.). There was a Craig family next to John Lehew on the 1830 Census of Grayson Co., Ky. Note from Wm.'s will that John, son of William, had a sister Rachel, whose married name was Craig. This is not conclusive enough for us to number John's descendants in the main section of the book, and they are, therefore, included in the appendix.

SPENCER[3] LAHUE (William[2], Peter[1])--son of William Lehew and wife Hannah. Born 2 July 1783. Married Margaret Davis. Spencer died 28 Aug. 1858, and is buried in Harrison Co., Ind. His wife died 24 Feb. 1871.

Spencer and Margaret Lahue seem to have left Wythe Co., Va., after 14 Oct. 1817, when they sold their share of the property of which John Davis (Peggy's father?) died seized, and also their share of the tracts on Reed Creek which had belonged to William "Lehue", Spencer's father. In 1818, Spencer "Lahugh" bought property from Cornelius "Lahugh" in Harrison Co., Indiana. A further evidence of Wythe Co. connections is an 1835 deed between Spencer "Lahew" and Cornelius "Lahew" of the Co. of Harrison, State of Indiana, on one part, and Isaac "Lahew" of the Co. of Wythe, State of Virginia, on the other part.

Spencer Lahue and those members of his family still living at home are listed as follows on the 1850 Census of Harrison Co., Ind.:

Spencer Lahue	63?	Farmer	born in Virginia
Margaret Lahue	57		"
J. H. Lahue	25	Farmer	Indiana
Darthula Lahue	12		"

Spencer died in 1858 and therefore does not show up on the 1860 Census. His widow, Margaret, is listed with daughter Darthula and her family in 1860 (Harrison Co., Ind.)

William Blankenbeker, son-in-law of Spencer Lahue, was the administrator of Spencer's estate. He made the statement before the Court of Harrison Co., Ind. that to the best of his knowledge, Spencer died intestate on 28 Aug. 1858. The following list of the children of Spencer and Margaret is taken from the estate files in the Harrison Co. Courthouse, with most of the birthdates estimated from census listings:

Children:

(80) i. Amanda Lahue, b. abt. 1812
(81) ii. Jackson Lahue, b. abt. 1815?
(82) iii. Eveline Lahue, b. abt. 1817
(83) iv. Gains Lahue, b. 14 Nov. 1818
(84) v. Cassandra Lahue, b. abt. 1820? (this is a guess)
(85) vi. Sarah Lahue, b. abt. 1822
(86) vii. James Harvey Lahue, b. 8 August 1825
(87) viii. Melvina Lahue, b. abt. 1827
(88) ix. Darthula Lahue, b. abt. 1838

Margaret Lahue, Spencer's widow, died 24 February 1871. The records of the administration of her estate include proof of kinship of all heirs. The list of children agrees with that above. Several had died before the time of administration of Margaret's estate--Amanda, Cassandra, Sarah, and Jackson. Their children are listed among the heirs.

(23) son of (6)

ISAAC^{3} LAHUE (William^{2}, Peter^{1})--son of William Lahue and wife Hannah. Born 20 August 1787. Married on 27 Feb. 1823 in Wythe Co., Va., to Martha D. (called Patsey) Sayers (b. 23 Dec.

of 1802, prob. a dau. of David Sayers, since she was listed among his heirs in 1846). Isaac died 14 November 1856, his wife 11 October 1875.

Isaac Lehew (Lahue, Lahew) seems to have moved with his parents from Frederick Co., Va. to Wythe Co., Va. sometime around 1792. When his brothers William, Spencer, and Cornelius went on to Harrison Co., Indiana around 1817, Isaac remained in Wythe Co. However, Isaac may have intended moving to Harrison Co. also, for Harrison Co. deed records indicate that he owned 160 acres in Harrison Co., probably an original land office purchase, since it does not show up in grantee records. He sold this property to Carrington Lahue (his nephew) in 1850.

In 1814 Isaac Lahue was constable of the 1st Battalion of the 35th Regiment of Militia in Wythe Co.

Isaac "Lehew" is the only one of this family name listed on the 1830 Census of Wythe Co., Va. We were not able to find the family on the 1850 Census, but on the 1860 Census they appear as follows in Wythe Co.--without Isaac, who died in 1856:

			r. est.	p.prop.	Born in
Martha Lahew	58	Farming	$10,000	$2500	Virginia
Spencer Lahew	23	Farm laborer			"
Nancy Lahew	18				"
Newton Lahew	15	Farm laborer			"
Mary Sprinkle	11				"
E. H. Bailey	28	Merchant			"
Elizabeth Bailey	21				"
Alice Bailey	1				"

Mary Sprinkle is undoubtedly one of the children of deceased daughter Rhoda, and Eliz. Bailey another dau. of Isaac.

When Isaac died in 1856, he left a will bequeathing to his wife, Martha D. Lahue, for her natural lifetime, the plantation on which he had resided. Also to her the rents on his real estate in Wytheville and the use of his boy Clabe and his negro woman Eliza. Any of his personalty which she did not want was to be divided equally among their children, and after her death, all real and personal property was to be sold and the proceeds divided among his children and the two children of his deceased daughter, Mrs. Sprinkle. No other names of heirs are listed in any of these records. We have put together the list of the children of Isaac and Martha from descendants' records, 1860 Census, Wythe Co. marriages, Confederate records, etc.:

(89) i. James Crockett Lahue, b. 18 Jan. 1824
ii. Mary Ann* Lahue, birthyear guessed at abt. 1825 (90) iii. Rhoda J. Lahue, b. abt. 1826 or 1827?
(91) iv. David Sayers Lahue, b. abt. 1835 in Va.
(92) v. Spencer Cornelius Lahue, b. abt. 1837 in Va.
(93) vi. Elizabeth C. Lahue, b. abt. 1839
(94) vii. Nancy Almeta Lahue, b. abt. 1842 in Wythe Co.,Va.
(95) viii. Isaac Newton Lahue, b. abt. 1845 in Va.

*We do not have definite information that Mary Ann was Isaac's daughter, but his seems to be the only group of Lahues in Wythe Co. after 1818. Mary Ann "Lahew" married James Cassell in Wythe Co. on 27 Sept. 1842.

Two members of Isaac's family served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War--Spencer Lahue and Isaac Newton Lahue. See under their own names and generation for further details.

CORNELIUS[3] LAHUE (William[2], Peter[1])--son of William Lehew and wife Hannah. Born 3 July 1788, probably in Frederick Co., Va. Married Sabrina Batman. (Sabrina was born 13 Dec. 1801; died 26 Jan. 1861). Cornelius died 27 Dec. 1865.

Cornelius migrated from Frederick Co., Va., to Wythe Co., Va. with his parents about 1792. He was named as a son in the Wythe Co. will of his father, William Lahue. His name appears for the last time (as a Wythe Co. resident) in Wythe Co. records in 1814, and for the first time in Harrison Co., Indiana deed records in 1817. In 1835, Cornelius and Spencer Lahew, of Harrison Co., Ind., deeded land in Wythe Co., Va. to Isaac Lahew of Wythe Co.

Cornelius Lahue and family are listed on the 1850 Census of Harrison Co., Indiana, as follows:

Cornelius Lahue	60	farmer	r.est.$1500	Born in Virginia
Sabinah Lahue	50			Ky.
Dunkin Lahue	19	laborer		Indiana
Marshal Lahue	16	laborer		"
Emry Lahue	15			"
Lucinda R. Lahue	12			"
Mary L. Lahue	11			"

Cornelius' son Carrington Lahue is listed close by. Cornelius is also listed in Harrison Co. on the 1860 Census (Jackson Tp. New Salisbury P.O.).

Cornelius died in 1865. The records of the administration of his estate (Harrison Co., 1866) list the following heirs--all living adults and all children of Cornelius Lahue, dec'd.: Carrington Lahue; Duncan Lahue; Emery Lahue; Marshall Lahue; Mary Brubeck, wife of Edwin Brubeck; Cindrilla E. Miller, wife of John Miller; Ursula Byrn, dec'd--her children named as heirs.

Mrs. Esther LaHue Walker, great-granddaughter of Cornelius Lahue, has given the following list of Cornelius' children to us:

i. Alvira Lahue, b. 15 June 1820
ii. Norben Lahue, b. 23 Sept. 1823
(96) iii. Carrington Lahue, b. 3 Feb. 1825
iv. Margret Lahue, b. 14 Sept. 1826
(97) v. Ursula Lahue, b. 3 Feb. 1828
vi. Catherine Lahue, b. 24 May 1830
(98) vii. Duncan Lahue, b. 9 Dec. 1831
(99) viii. Marshall Lahue, b. 26 Dec. 1833

(100) ix. Emery Lahue, b. 14 Aug. 1835
(101) x. Cinderella Lahue (twin), b. 10 March 1837
xi. Alzemeda Lahue (twin), b. 10 March 1837
(102) xii. Mary Lucrecie Lahue, b. 9 October 1840

Note that of the twelve children listed, only six are on the list of living heirs of Cornelius in 1866. It would seem that Alvira, Norben, Margret, Ursula, Catherine, and Alzemeda had died before 1866.

NANCY[3] LAHUE (William[2], Peter[1])--daughter of William Lehew and wife Hannah. We do not have her birthdate. She was named in her father's will (Wythe Co., Va., 1811). Descendants of Spencer Lahue (son of William) list Nancy as an unmarried sister of Spencer, Cornelius, and William. Since these descendants could trace themselves back only to the period of the Harrison Co., Ind. residence, and knew nothing of other brothers and sisters, perhaps Nancy was one of those who migrated to Harrison Co.

(26) son of (8)

JOHN[3] LEHEW (Francis[2], Peter[1])--son of Francis Lehew and wife Leannah (Taylor?). Born between 1770 and 1775. Our guess is about 1771. He would then have been age 20 when he married Nancy Conner (or Comer) in Shenandoah Co., Va., on 24 Nov. 1791.

John Lehew appears on Shenandoah and Frederick Co., Va. tax lists (sometimes one, sometimes the other) from 1792 to at least 1812. We feel sure he was Francis' son, because the very year his name appears for the first time on the tax list, the number of white males in Francis' household drops by one. The number in the other Lehew households does not change, which to us means that John had left Francis' household, married, and set up on his own. When Francis' name appears on the Culpeper Co., Va., tax list in 1793, John's name also disappears from the Shenandoah list and appears on the Culpeper list. When Francis' name reappears on the Frederick-Shenandoah list, so does John's. It looks as though John preferred to remain in the Shenandoah Valley when Francis took off for Kentucky, however. Francis' name appears on the Frederick-Shenandoah lists for the last time in 1796, and shows up in Kentucky in 1797, while John continues to be listed in Frederick and Shenandoah Counties.

John Lehew- Males: 4(under 10);2(10-16);1(26-45)
Females: 4(under 10);1(10-16);1(16-26);1(26-45)

There is also only one John Lehew listed on the 1820 Census of Shenandoah Co. (in the 45 or over group). And the only John Lehew in the Shenandoah area on the 1830 Census is in the 50-60 age group. From these census listings we have narrowed our estimate of the time of John's birth to between 1770 and 1775.

Now we shall try to see how many we can name of those twelve children the 1810 Census seems to indicate that John had. There now seems no doubt that we have the right John to connect with Abner Lehew and his descendants. Descendants of Abner knew that Abner was born in the Shenandoah-Frederick area about 1799-1800, and that his father's name was John. They were sure that this John had served in the Revolutionary War. Since John, son of Francis, would have been a very small child at the time of the Revolution, this seems impossible, but perhaps John served in one of the Indian uprisings later. Abner does not seem to have been the oldest child--note that we are looking for two males born between 1794 and 1800 (one of these was probably Abner); four males born between 1800-1810; one female born between 1784 and 1794; let's say 1792, since John and Nancy were married in 1791; one female born between 1794 and 1800; and four females born between 1800 and 1810. The 1820 Census indicates that another son and another daughter were born between 1810 and 1820.

Of the two boys born between 1794 and 1800, one was surely Abner; the other we would name as the Jeremiah Lehew who served in the War of 1812 from Shenandoah Co. On 16 Nov.1816 in Shenandoah Co., Jeremiah Lehew married Milly Rudiciller. He appears on the 1820 Census of Shenandoah Co. in the 26-45 group--probably b. 1794? We have nothing further on him, unless he could have been the Jeremiah "Layhugh" listed in Licking Co., Ohio on the 1830 Census.

There was definitely a daughter Sarah--a Shenandoah Co. marriage record shows that Sarah "Lahue", dau. of John, married John Martin on 7 Feb. 1816.

Other possibilities for John's children: one Jane Lehew, otherwise unaccounted for, who married Joseph Gordon in Shenandoah Co. in 1827. The names of her parents were not recorded; one Rebecca Lehew, otherwise unaccounted for, who married John Welch in Shenandoah Co. on 13 Oct. 1834. The names of her parents were not recorded, but Abner Lehew acted as bondsman. We have nowhere nearly all of John's children's names. Let us list the definite ones:

(103) i. Abner, b. 1799 or 1800
ii. Sarah Lehew, whose birthdate we do not have, but who m. John Martin on 7 Feb. 1816

Tentative list of others:

Jeremiah Lehew, who served briefly in the War of 1812 from Shenandoah Co., Va., and who was married in Shenandoah Co. on 16 Nov. 1816 to Milly Rudiciller. Prob. born between 1794 and 1800.

Jane Lehew, who m. Joseph Gordon in Shenandoah Co. on 23 Aug. 1827

Rebecca Lehew, who m. John Welch in Shenandoah Co. on 13 Oct. 1834

These are not quite so tentative as they seem at first glance when one considers the possible parents present in this area during this period. From the personal property tax records and the 1810, 1820, and 1830 Census of Frederick and Shenandoah Counties in Virginia, we have the following Lehews whose families might be likely to be marrying in the years 1816-1834: John Lehew, Moses Lehew, Spencer Lehew, Jr., and Wm. Lehew. The tax lists from 1806 to 1814 show only the same names. We have a complete list of the families of Moses and Spencer, and also of the daughters of Spencer, Sr. named as unmarried in Spencer, Sr.'s will of 1802. Indications are that William (brother of Moses and Spencer, Jr.) had no children. This brings us back to John and his numerous children.

There is also some possibility that if we could only find enough records, we might be able to establish a connection John and the two "Lahugh" brothers who turned up in Athens Co., Ohio in the 1830's. They were James Lahugh and Francis M. Lahugh (James the older of the two), and descendants are under the impression that Francis, at least, was born near Moorefield, Va. (now W.Va.) about 1813, and that they left several brothers and sisters in their former area of residence, one of the brothers being named Absalom. Since we have never run across the name Absalom Lehew, we wonder whether this could have been misread somewhere along the line, and whether Abner was meant. Also--could Moorefield, Va. and Millfield (Athens Co., O.) have been confused? We found nothing in the Courthouse at Moorefield or in Hardy Co. tax records to indicate the presence of any Lehews in Hardy Co. from 1810-1820, and at the moment, we know of no way to carry these speculations beyond the "hunch" stage. We have therefore placed the Athens County Lahughs in the Appendix, among the groups where links of proof are either missing or too doubtful for this part of the book.

(27) son of (8)

PETER^{3} LEHEW (Francis^{2}, Peter^{1})--son of Francis Lehew and wife Leannah (Taylor?). Established as a son of Francis by earlier researchers (we have to confess here that we do not know by what source this was established), and this relationship corroborated by the association of these two names in tax lists of Boone Co., Ky. and in county records of Perry and Spencer Counties in Indiana. (See also under Francis (8).) Peter was born in 1775 or earlier, probably in Frederick or Shenandoah Co., Va. He probably moved with his father about 1796 or 1797 to Boone Co., Ky., where Peter shows up on the tax lists from 1800 to 1803. This is undoubtedly the same Peter Lehew who was married in Boone Co., Ky., in May of 1800 to Polly Horsley. There was only one Peter Lehew in Boone Co. if we can judge from the tax lists, and he shows up only from 1800 to 1803, although we studied the lists for several years before and after those dates. There was no Peter Lehew in Woodford Co., Ky. from 1792 to 1811, again judging from tax lists and county records. Peter and Polly were married by the Rev. John Taylor, who seems to have been Peter's uncle.

This would also seem to be the same Peter Lehew who appears on a list of jurors in Dearborn Co., Indiana in 1806 and 1808, and on a list of voters in Dearborn Co. in 1809. The combination Francis Lehew-Peter Lehew shows up again in Perry and Spencer Counties in Indiana. Peter's name appears on a Perry County tax list in 1815, and in 1817, Francis Lehew sold land to Peter Lehew in Perry Co. This was evidently that part of Perry County which became part of Spencer Co. about 1817, for their first land records in Spencer Co. give their residence as Perry Co., while the 1820 Census shows Peter Lehew in Spencer Co. (age 45 or over). Peter's marriage (evidently a second marriage) to Elizabeth Mitchell on 10 September 1818 is recorded in Spencer County. Either Peter or Elizabeth may have had a child by a previous marriage, since there is a male between 10 and 16 with them on the 1820 Census. Elizabeth is in the 26-45 age group on this census. On the 1830 Census, Elizabeth is listed as the head of the family, so perhaps Peter had died before this. He was certainly dead by 1837, when matters pertaining to his estate came before the court in Spencer Co.

We feel sure that the Meredith Lehue who was born about 1800 or 1801 in the Boone-Woodford Co. area in Kentucky was a son of Peter Lehew and wife Polly (Horsley). On the 1860 Census of Trimble Co., Ky., Meredith Lehue's county of birth is listed as Woodford Co., Ky. The boundaries between these two counties around 1800 were not clearly defined, and there were no other Lehews on the tax lists in either of the two counties from 1800 to 1811 except Francis and Peter (from 1800 to 1803). The name "Meredith" is one which is found on the Taylor side of Peter's family.

(28) son of (9)

PETER[3] LEHEW (David[2], Peter[1])--son of David Lehew and wife Elizabeth. Born about 1778 (in Maryland, according to 1850 Census). Peter's wife's name was Louisa, surname not known to us. Peter died 21 March 1856. His grave is in the Wayman Cemetery on the Charles Stephan place on Proctor Ridge, near Proctor, Wetzel Co., W. Va. The dates on the tombstone have now weathered away, but we have a picture taken while the inscription was still readable.

This Peter Lehew is known (from family records kept by a greatgrandson who lived in the Proctor area) to have been the ancestor of the compilers--g.g.grandfather of James H. LeHue, and g.g.g.grandfather of Edith Foster. Let us say at the outset that we realize that the link between Peter and David could stand more definite proof, and that we hope that someone will come up with a Bible record or some such proof that will not only establish their relationship beyond a doubt, but will also explain why Peter is listed on the 1850 Census with a Maryland birthplace. In the meantime, the most logical conclusion from all the data that we can find seems to be that Peter must have been David's son. After learning from the 1850 Census that Peter's children (then living in the W. Va. Panhandle area near Peter's burial place) were born in Pennsylvania, we made a thorough study of southwestern Pennsylvania, which seemed a logical starting point, since it is close to the W. Va. Panhandle. A study of recent telephone directories revealed quite a concentration of Lehew (Leyhew, Lahew, etc.) names in Fayette Co., Pa. We proceeded to conduct courthouse searches in Fayette, Greene, Westmoreland, Allegheny, and Washington Counties, and studied census listings for this southwestern Pennsylvania area from 1790 through 1850. The 1790 Census contains no Lehew names for the entire state of Pennsylvania. The 1810 Census shows a David, a Peter, and a John Lehew as heads of families in Fayette Co., all in Redstone Township. Peter was in the right age group to be the Peter buried on Proctor Ridge, and David of an age to be his father. As far as we could tell from this intensive study of southwestern Penna. there were no other early Lehews in this area except members of these families--David and his descendants, according to our reasoning.

Through successive census listings, we traced Peter first to a different township in Fayette Co. (1820), then to Aleppo Township in Greene Co., Pa. (1830), where Peter is listed next to a John Lehew of an age to be his son. (There were no Lehews in Greene Co. in 1820.) 1830 is about the time we expected to find our ancestor John Lehew leaving his father's (Peter's) home and setting up on his own--and this is also the general area where we expected to find him. By 1840 Peter was in Tyler Co., Va. (probably that part which later became Wetzel Co., W. Va.--where Peter is buried). This time it is Peter's son William who is listed nearby. Sons John and David are listed in adjoining Marshall Co. (Note that the 1830 Census of these Panhandle Counties shows no Lehews, and that the 1840 Census of Greene Co., Pa., which listed Peter and John Lehew in 1830, no longer shows any Lehew families.)

Peter Lehew's name is among the very first to appear in the land records of the newly organized Wetzel County in 1846. In 1848 he sold 100 acres on Proctor Ridge to John Lehew. The cemetery where both he and his son John (and some other descendants) are buried is near this farm, which was John's home until his death, after which John's daughter Eliza and her husband, Abraham Hoyt, bought out the other heirs. It was not until 1920 that the farm was sold by the Hoyt heirs. This represents nearly 75 years of continuous ownership by Lehews or their heirs.

In 1848 when Peter sold property in Wetzel Co. to John Lehew, his place of residence was recorded as Jackson Co., Va. This was evidently a short period of residence, since Jackson Co. records show nothing on him, and he was back in Marshall Co., Va. by 1850 Census time, immediately next to Peter Lehew,

1850 Census - Marshall Co., Va. (now W.Va.) - Oct. 12,1850

Peter Lehew, Sr.	age 73	Born in Maryland
Louisa Lehew	69	"
Andrew Lehew	13	"

Earlier researchers have agreed that Peter had at least two children--John and David. Let us see what the census tells us about Peter's family. We shall use the 1830 Census, as it probably tells us most about the size of his family. Note that by 1850 the only child listed with them was one Andrew Lehew, age 13--surely too young to be Louisa's child (perhaps a grandchild?).

1830 Census - Greene Co., Penna. - Alleppo Township

Peter Leahue - Males: 1(5-10); 1(10-15); 1(15-20); 1(50-60)
Females: 1(under 5); 1(5-10); 2(10-15); 1(50-60)

It would seem that there were 3 boys in addition to John, who was listed separately next door; and 4 girls. So we need the names of 7 children in addition to John.

From marriage records, census records, and letters and oral reports from descendants which show interrelationships,* we have concluded that the following were definitely

Peter's Children:

(105) i. John Lehew, b. 6 May 1803 in Penna.
(106) ii. David Lehew, b. abt. 1810 in Penna.
(107) iii. William Lehew, b. 1812-15 in Penna.
(108) iv. Catherine Lehew, b. abt. 1819-21 in Penna.
(109) v. Peter Lehew, b. abt. 1822 in Penna.
(110) vi. Melinda Lehew, b. abt. 1826 in Penna.

One Cecelia Lehew, born about 1817, married Joseph Reed in Marshall Co., Va. (now W.Va.) in 1839. Joseph and Cecelia Reed appear on the 1850 Census of Marshall Co. Cecelia was probably also a daughter of Peter. Because we could not be sure her birthplace read Penna., and because in her case we did not have statements of interrelationship such as we had for the others, we are only tentatively calling her a daughter of Peter. Several members of the Peter Lehew family had connections with the Reed family, however, and the 1830 Census does indicate that Peter had a daughter of the right age group to have been Celia. Even if we include her, we are short one girl's name.

The 1850 Census lists John Lehew in Wetzel Co.; David Lehew, Peter Lehew, Sr., Peter Lehew, Jr., Catherine Lehew Trader, and Melinda Lehew Poulson in Marshall ; and William Lehew in Mason Co. (These were all Virginia counties until 1863, when they became part of newly formed West Virginia. Note that what was the John Lehew farm is in that part of Wetzel Co. which is very close to the Marshall Co. line, so that all the above except William could have been living quite close to each other. Also that Mason Co., where William is listed in 1850, adjoins Jackson Co., where Peter was in 1848.) For more detail on these census listings, see the individual writeups.

FRENCH[3] LEHEW (David[2], Peter[1])--son of David Lehew and wife Elizabeth, according to our analysis. Born about 1783 in Shenandoah Co., Va. (Note that this is the area of David's residence around 1783.) French is probably the oldest male child indicated in David's household on the 1810 Census of Fayette Co., Penna. He appears for the first time as head of a family on the 1820 Census of Fayette Co. He was still in Fayette Co. in 1850, listed on the Census as follows:

1850 Census - Fayette Co., Penna. - Jefferson Twp.

French Lahu	age 67	Born in Shenandoah Co., Va.
Mary Lahu	50	Fayette Co., Penna.
David Lahu	19	" " "
Joseph Lahu	14	" " "
Joshua Lahu	11	" " "

There probably were other older children, but we have nothing further on this group.

JOHN[3] LEHEW (David[2], Peter[1])--son of David Lehew and wife Elizabeth. Born in Virginia about 1793. (Note that David was in the Shenandoah area of Virginia in 1793.) Married Mary Polly Baden.

The 1810 Census of Fayette Co., Penna. lists John Lehew in the same township as David and Peter Lehew--his father and brother, according to our analysis. John was the only individual in his household. He had moved across the line into Rostraver Twp., Westmoreland Co., Penna. by 1820 (or the line had moved!), and in 1830 John and David "Lehugh" were living in Rostraver Twp., with only one household in between. John was still in Rostraver Township in 1840. The 1850 Census shows him again in Fayette Co., Penna. Next door was Peter Lahue, age 27, whose death certificate shows him to have been a son of John Lehew and wife Mary Polly (Baden). Our list of John's children is taken from the 1850 Census, with additional information on Peter from his death certificate. See next page.

FIELDER[3] LEHEW (David[2], Peter[1])--son of David Lehew and wife Elizabeth. Born about 1805 in Fayette Co., Penna. His wife's name was Caroline. Fielder died about 1882.

Fielder Lehew was in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland Co., Penna. at the time of the 1840 Census. At the time of the 1850 Census, we find him listed in Washington Twp., Fayette Co., with 4 children.

Fielder Lehew left a will dated 23 August 1880 at Belle Vernon, Penna. and probated in Fayette Co. in 1882. The will names his wife Caroline and six children as heirs, and identifies himself as a son of David by the following clause: "In case of any money being left by said Fielder Lehew's Father David Lehew it shall be equally divided between my wife and six children as named---". The names listed were: his wife Caroline, and children Aron, Henry, David, Lewis, Elizabeth, and Clarisa. We have placed Aron and Lewis at the end of our list, since they do not appear on the 1850 Census, and we guess that they were born after 1850.

LEITHA[4] LEHEW (John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--daughter of John Lehew and wife Elizabeth (Spencer). Born January 1785, presumably in or near Front Royal, Va. A greatgranddaughter, Mrs. Harriet Fritz, said Leitha's first marriage was to a man named Offner. An examination of the marriage records of Shenandoah Co., Va., revealed the record of this marriage. Litha (the name appears in many different spellings) Lehew married John Offner there on 29 Jan. 1804. Mrs. Fritz believed that John and Leitha Offner may have preceded John Lehew (Leitha's father) and the other members of the family to Zanesville, O., spending some time in Wheeling before proceeding to Zanesville.

Leitha married (2) Hugh Lackey. Mrs. Fritz (a granddau. both of Sarah Offner and of William Lackey) said Hugh Lackey was a shoemaker and also a river merchant--that he, together with some other men, would build a boat and take merchandise down the rivers to New Orleans. Sometimes they sold their boat and returned overland, other times they brought back a load of merchandise. The last Hugh Lackey was heard of he had started his return journey by land. It is possible that the date the Offner children had guardians appointed for them (1821) offers a clue to the date of this disappearance. It was as Leitha Lackey that Leitha (heir of John Lehew) signed various real estate records which appear in Muskingum Co. deed books from 1827 on. Her husband's name does not appear in these records --from which it might be assumed that he was presumed dead by 1827.

SPENCER[4] LEHEW (John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of John Lehew and wife Elizabeth (Spencer). Born 27 Sept. 1786, presumably in or near Front Royal, Virginia. If Everhart and Co.'s History of Muskingum Co., Ohio (pub. in 1882) is correct, Spencer went to Zanesville a little earlier than his father and built a cabin on the site of Colonel Goddard's office. Another county history says the first distillery in Zanesville was built by Spencer Lahew on Mill Run in 1808--that in 1815, Spencer paid a tax of $159.20 for manufacturing whiskey. Spencer's land in Washington Twp., Muskingum Co., Ohio, became the village of Jackson, surveyed into lots in 1830 by Spencer Lehew, proprietor.

On 1 June 1813 in Muskingum Co., Spencer married Margaret Lawrence. Spencer's will, dated 15 April 1862 and probated 6 May 1863, names his daughter, Sarah Hillier, his son Spencer, Jr., and also names Loransey (Lorenzo). His other heirs, not named, had already been provided for, he says in his will. Listed with Spencer and Margaret Lehew on the 1850 Census of Muskingum Co. are John, age 32; and Spencer, Jr., age 20. Lorenzo Lehew and his family are listed next to them. The complete list of heirs-at-law of Spencer Lehew is contained in the record of a petition filed in 1864 by Caleb Evans, Executor: Lorenzo Lehew, of Muskingum Co.; Sarah Hillier, intermarried with Thomas C. Hillier of Knox Co., O.; Susan Fitz, intermarried with David S. Fitz of Muskingum Co.; Mary Fitz, intermarried with William Fitz of Muskingum Co.; Rachel Fitz, intermarried with John Fitz, of Muskingum Co.; Spencer Lehew, Jr. of Muskingum Co. Since John Lehew, age 32 at the time of the 1850 Census, was almost certainly a member of Spencer's family also, it seems logical to assume that the omission of his name from the above list means that John died before his father. There is no John Lehew on the 1860 Census of Muskingum Co. There is a possibility that Spencer also had a daughter Elizabeth who predeceased him. One Elizabeth Lehew was married 14 Nov. 1839 in Muskingum Co. to Samuel Galbraith. Spencer's family seems to have been the only one around which could have had a daughter of marriageable age at that time.

On the 1860 Census, Spencer Sr. is listed in Washington Twp., Muskingum Co. as a 73 year old living with the family of William and Mary Fitz (Spencer's dau.). Spencer's death can be approximated as between 15 April 1862 and 6 May 1863 (date of will and date of probate). His wife evidently died first, as there is no mention of her in Spencer's will, and she is not listed with him on the 1860 Census. One of the provisions of Spencer's will was that Spencer, Jr. was to settle for Spencer Sr.'s board after selling the personal property.

(41) son of (11)

WILLIAM[4] LEHEW (John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of John Lehew and wife Elizabeth(Spencer). Born 15 April 1792, presumably in or near Front Royal, Virginia. Married 6 November 1817 in Muskingum Co., Ohio to Mary Pringle (1801-1879), dau. of Henry Pringle and wife Mary (Trumbo). William Lehew died in Bloom Twp., Morgan Co., Ohio, on 25 December 1870.

William was probably about 13 years old when his family moved to Muskingum Co., Ohio. Robertson's History of Morgan County, Ohio says William Lehew moved to Morgan County in 1824 --to the farm where the Lehew road now (1886) crosses Meigs Creek. He erected a stillhouse and manufactured pure liquors for a number of years. This was probably an original purchase from the land office, since it is later referred to as land sold at Zanesville.

William Lehew and family are listed in Morgan Co., Ohio on 1830, 1840, 1850, 1860, and 1870 Census. In 1860 three grandchildren were with them--William Lehew, son of John, who died in 1858; and Richard and Jacob Fouts, sons of Elizabeth (Lehew) Fouts, deceased before 1860. The 1870 Census lists four grandchildren with William and Mary Lehew: Richard M. Fouts; Mary Greer; and Francena and William Irwin.

The William Lehew will, dated 2 March 1870, is on record in Morgan Co. He named as heirs his wife Mary, three living children and the legal heirs of five others who died before he did. The three living children were Rebecca Robinson, Samuel Lehew, and Jedidah Lehew. Elizabeth Fouts' heirs were to receive Elizabeth's one share; the heirs of John Lehew, deceased, his one share; the legal heirs of Belinda Greer, deceased, her one share; the heirs of Mary Ann Hammond, her one share; the heirs of Sarah C. Irwin, her one share; One half acre of the farm was bequeathed to the trustees of Bloom Twp. as a burial ground. The estate was not finally settled until 1879, after William's wife Mary's death (she was to have real and personal property until death or end of widowhood).

Children, as listed by descendants:

(127) i. Rebecca Lehew, b. 5 August 1818
(128) ii. Elizabeth Lehew, b. 15 Nov. 1819
(129) iii. John Lehew, b. 8 Nov. 1821
(130) iv. Samuel Lehew, b. 14 March 1824
(131) v. Belinda Lehew, b. 23 January 1826
(132) vi. James D. Lehew, b. 18 April 1828
(133) vii. Jedidah Lehew, b. 25 July 1830
(134) viii. Litha Lehew, b. 19 Nov. 1832
(135) ix. Peninnah Lehew, b. 21 Dec. 1834
(136) x. Henry P. Lehew, b. 20 Dec. 1835
(137) xi. Mary Anne Lehew, b. 4 April 1838
(138) xii. William P. Lehew, b. 17 Feb. 1841
(139) xiii. Sarah C. Lehew, b. 1 July 1843

As noted earlier, William and Mary Lehew had lost all but three of their thirteen children before the date of William's will.

(42) son of (11)

MOSES[4] LEHEW (John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of John Lehew and wife Elizabeth (Spencer). Born 3 May 1797, presumably in or near Front Royal, Va. His family moved to Zanesville, Ohio about 1805.

Moses Lehew was married on 22 August 1821 in Muskingum Co., Ohio, to Isabella Clark. His and Isabella's names appear as heirs of John Lehew in real estate records after the death of Moses' mother, Elizabeth Lehew. Both Moses and his wife were dead in the summer of 1839 when William Pringle was appointed guardian of the three youngest of their six children, and when the three older ones chose Thomas Williams as their guardian. Descendants report that Moses and his wife died within two weeks of each other..

It is interesting to note that Thomas Williams' guardianship accounts include an item of $1.81 each for his three wards--for one-third the cost of their parents' tombstones.

The following list of Moses' children is made up from the guardianship records of Muskingum County, Ohio:

(140) i. George W. Lehew, 16 on 5 July 1839--b. 5 July 1823
(141) ii. James L. Lehew, 14 on 29 Mar.1839--b. 29 Mar. 1825
(142) iii. Eliza Ann Lehew, abt. 12 in 1839--b. abt. 1827
(143) iv. Leitha Jane Lehew, abt. 10 in 1839, b. abt. 1829
(144) v. Mary Ellen Lehew, abt. 7 in 1839--b. abt. 1832
(145) vi. Benjamin F. Lehew, abt. 5 in 1839--b. abt. 1834
(Descendants give his birthdate as 5 Sept. 1834)

In our writeups on Leitha J. and Mary E., we shall use the more exact birthdates from the Bible record quoted in the writeup on John (11).

(43) son of (11)

THOMAS[4] LEHEW (John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of John Lehew and wife Elizabeth (Spencer). Born 27 July 1799 in Front Royal, Va. Moved to Zanesville, Ohio with his parents about 1805. Married on 27 Dec. 1820 in Muskingum Co., Ohio to Catherine Fletcher (b. 1802 in Penna.). Thomas and Catherine went to Delphos, Ohio to spend their declining years with their daughter Catherine. Thomas' wife, Catherine, died in Delphos in 1887, and Thomas died there on 18 Jan. 1891.

Muskingum County Guardian records show that in the Nov. 1816 Court term, Spencer "Lehu" was chosen as guardian by Thomas "Lehu", minor above 14. In 1821 it was Thomas' turn to act as guardian--to Sarah and Samuel Offner, children of his oldest sister, Leitha.

Thomas and Catherine "Lehue" were members of the Second Street Methodist Church in Zanesville in 1823.

About 1835, Thomas and his family moved to McKean Twp. in Licking Co., Ohio, and about six years later to Jersey Twp. in the same county. Thomas and Catherine and the following children still living in his household are listed on the 1850 Census of Jersey Township: Elizabeth, Mary A., Sarah J., Robert, Rachel, Moses, Joseph, Catharine. Thomas' son John and his family were also in Jersey Twp. in 1850. Thomas and Catherine Lehew were still in Jersey Twp., Licking Co., Ohio at the time of the 1860 Census, the household then being made up of Thomas and Catherine and their children Rachel, Moses, and Catherine. Their son John was married a second time and living in Jersey Twp. in 1860, Elizabeth and her husband were in Licking Co., Thomas Lafayette, Robert, and Mary Ann had moved to Van Wert, Ohio, William Fletcher and possibly also James and Sarah had already migrated to Iowa. In 1870, Thomas, a 71 yr. old carpenter, and wife Catherine F. are listed in the Village of Van Wert, Van Wert Co., Ohio. Also in Van Wert village in 1870 were daughter Mary Ann Moore, son Robert, son Joseph, and son Thomas L.; and in Union Twp. of Van Wert Co., we find son Moses.

Thomas and Catherine were still in Van Wert Co. at the time of the 1880 Census, living at 42 N. Washington St., Van Wert. Thomas, age 80, gave his own and his parents' birthplace as Virginia. The censustaker had placed a checkmark in line with Thomas Lehew's name in the column headed "maimed, crippled, bedridden, or otherwise disabled." However, Thomas did live on for another 11 years.

Five of the sons of Thomas and Catharine Lehew served in the Union Army in the Civil War: William Fletcher Lehew, James Lehew, Robert Davis Lehew, Moses Spencer Lehew, and Joseph Snyder Lehew.

The complete list of Thomas Lehew's children as sent to me by Miss Eleanore LeHew, granddaughter of Thomas, follows:

(146) i. William Fletcher Lehew, b. 1 December 1821
(147) ii. Elizabeth Lehew, b. September 1823
(148) iii. John Lehew, b. 4 May 1825
(149) iv. Mary Ann Lehew, b. 3 June 1827
(150) v. Thomas Lafayette Lehew, b. 20 Feb. 1829
(151) vi. James Lehew, b. 6 January 1831
(152) vii. Sarah Jane Lehew, b. 24 March 1833
(153) viii. Robert Davis Lehew, b. 2 February 1835
(154) ix. Rachel Margaret Lehew, b. 5 May 1837
(155) x. Moses Spencer Lehew, b. 10 March 1839
(156) xi. Joseph Snyder Lehew, b. 14 March 1841
(157) xii. Catherine Lehew, b. 5 April 1843

ANN[4] (or Nancy) LEHEW (John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--daughter of John Lehew and wife Elizabeth (Spencer). Born 23 Feb.1802, presumably in or near Front Royal, Va. Married 2 April 1818 in Muskingum Co., Ohio, to Caleb Evans.

At the time of the 1850 Census, Nancy and Caleb Evans were in Washington Twp., Muskingum Co., Ohio, as follows:

Caleb Evans	age 53	Farmer	Born in Penna.
Nancy	48		Virginia
Elizabeth	15		Ohio

We have no knowledge of any other children, but there could have been others old enough to be on their own in 1850. Caleb and Nancy were still in Muskingum Co. at the time of the 1860 Census.

Caleb Evans was surety for the guardianship of Moses Lehew's daughter Mary Ellen in 1848, also for Wm. Pringle's guardianship of Leitha Jane, Mary Ellen, and Benjamin F. Lehew (also children of Moses) in 1839. He was also executor for Spencer Lehew (son of John3).

ELIZABETH[4] LEHEW (John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--daughter of John Lehew and wife Elizabeth (Spencer). Born 8 April 1804 in Front Royal, Virginia. Married 14 Dec. 1821 in Muskingum Co., Ohio, to Thomas Sheppard. Elizabeth's obituary, referred to in old letters from Harriet Fritz, says Elizabeth died 22 July 1853, and that she had come to Zanesville with her parents in 1805.

Thomas and Elizabeth Sheppard appear on the 1850 Census in the 4th Ward of Zanesville, Ohio, as follows:

			r.est.
Thomas Sheppard	50	Stonecutter	$10,000	born in England
Elizabeth	46			Virginia
Thomas	16			Ohio
Anna	13			Ohio

There may have been other children who had already left the family nest.

In the guardianship accounts (Muskingum Co.) for Moses Lehew's children, Thomas Sheppard's name appears as the one who supplied tombstones for Moses and wife Isabella. The charge was $1.81 for each of the three wards of Thomas Williams, a total of $5.43 for two tombstones!

ALLEN[4] WILEY (Rachel[3] Lehew Wiley, Spencer[2] Lehew, Peter[1])--son of Moses Wiley and wife Rachel (Lehew). Born in Virginia (presumably Frederick Co.) 15 January 1789. This is the Rev. Allen Wiley, who was a well-known Methodist minister in the Whitewater country of Indiana. His parents moved to the Harrison (Dearborn Co.), Indiana region in 1804. Several articles by the Rev. Wiley on the history of Methodism in Southeast Indiana appeared in the Western Christian Advocate in 1845 and 1846.

SPENCER[4] WILEY (Rachel[3] Lehew Wiley, Spencer[2] Lehew, Peter[1])--son of Moses Wiley and wife Rachel (Lehew). Born 20 November 1790.

U.S. Land Office records show Spencer Wiley "entering"

Laurel Township in Franklin Co., Ind. in 1814. His name is among those listed in an 1830 directory of Laurel Twp. in Franklin Co.

Spencer Wiley served in the Indiana Legislature from Franklin Co. in 1845-46, 1846-47, and in 1857.

JAMES[4] WILEY (Rachel[3] Lehew Wiley, Spencer[2] Lehew, Peter[1]) son of Moses Wiley and wife Rachel (Lehew). Born in Frederick Co., Va. 14 Dec. 1792. Married Elizabeth Williams (b. in North Carolina in 1794--d. Feb. 1874). James Wiley died 28 Nov. 1874.

James Wiley and family lived in Brookville, Ind. in 1811, and afterward lived in Decatur Co. for a few years before returning to Franklin Co., Ind. in 1829. James bought a 320 acre farm in the Whitewater Valley. He received a land warrant for serving during an Indian uprising in Illinois. This land was in Franklin Co., Indiana.

On the 1850 Census, James and Elizabeth Wiley appear in Laurel Twp., Franklin Co., Ind. Reifel, in his History of Franklin Co., says that at one time James Wiley was one of the largest land owners in Franklin Co., owning over 1000 acres.

JAMES HARVEY[4] LEHEW (Moses[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Moses Lehew and wife Hannah (Branson). Born about 1801 in Va. Married on 2 August 1826 in Shenandoah Co., Va. to Eve Cliser. James Harvey Lehew evidently died shortly before 12 Aug.1890, as his personal property was appraised and sold on that date, and the final distribution of cash made on 12 Aug. 1894 to the following heirs (listed in the administration records of Page Co., Va.), one-seventh to each heir: Amanda J. Moyer, Elizabeth F. Beahm, Mary F. Beahm, Rebecca B. Grubbs, Sarah C. Sanford, William Lehew, Eliza A. Beahm.

James H. and Eve Lehew appear on the 1850 Census of Page Co., Va. with nine children. The death of their dau. Susan is on record in Page Co. James Ambrose Lehew is also missing from the list of heirs, and is presumed to have died before his father.

The following list of the children of James H. and Eve Lehew is made up from 1850 and 1860 Census listings (Page Co., Va.) and a Bible record sent by Mr. Raymond Isaac LeHew, a descendant:

(162) i. Rebecca Lehew, b. abt. 1829 in Va.
(163) ii. Mary Lehew, b. abt. 1830 in Va.
(164) iii. Eliza Ann Lehew, b. abt. 1833 in Page Co., Va.
(165) iv. William Branson Lehew, b. 6 May 1835, Page Co.
(166) v. James Ambrose Lehew, b. 8 March 1837
(167) vi. Susan Lehew, b. abt. 1839
(168) vii. Sarah Catherine Lehew, b. abt.1841-43, Page Co.
(169) viii. Elizabeth Frances Lehew, b. abt. 1844
(170) ix. Amanda Jane Lehew, b. abt. 1847 in Page Co.

The Bible record referred to indicates that there may also have been a daughter Nancy.

ELI[4] LEHEW (Moses[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Moses Lehew and wife Hannah (Branson). Born 31 March 1803 in Big Spring, in what is now Page Co., Va. Married (1) on 24 April 1828 to Sarah Branson, dau. of Lionel Branson and wife Rebekah (Millar). Sarah (or Sally) died 20 Feb. 1843, and Eli married (2) on 27 June 1844 in Shelby Co., Mo., his cousin Ann Van Nort, dau. of Jacob Van Nort and wife Eda (Lehew). It is said that Eli rode his horse all the way to Missouri, where Ann was visiting, married her there and brought her back to Virginia. We have the original of the minister's return of this marriage. Eli died on 16 September 1845.

Eli and Sally Lehew owned property in both Hardy and Hampshire Counties in what is now W. Va. He was a farmer and stock raiser on Lost River. The Hardy Co. property was land in the Lost River valley which Sally had inherited from her father before her marriage to Eli Lehew. It must have been just before Eli's death that he bought the Hampshire Co. property, for it was still only partly paid for when his estate was being administered, and the balance of the purchase price came from the settlement of the estate. There was a considerable estate, which was settled in the courts of Hardy Co., there being no will. A guardian was appointed for the children--one Giles Cook. Mrs. Frances Jett, a descendant of Eli, has inherited some of the linen sheets, etc. made on the farm of Eli Lehew for his sons. The flax was raised, thread spun, and cloth woven on that farm. There were also beautiful quilts and blankets made on the farm, some of which Mrs. Jett still has.

By the time of the 1850 Census, Ann Lehew had bought a house on Chester Street in Front Royal, and had established herself and Eli's children there near her sister Eliza Boone.

The 1860 Census of Warren Co., Va., lists them as follows in Front Royal:

Ann Lahew	55	Retired Lady	$ 300	$ 5360	Va.
J.B. "	30	Clerk	100	6730	"

Jacob Vannort	80	Retired	4000	11225	"

Eli's daughter Ann Elizabeth had married in 1852.

Children of Eli Lehew (all by 1st wife):

REBECCA B.[4] LEHEW (Moses[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--daughter of Moses Lehew and wife Hannah (Branson). Born about 1806 in Va. Married in 1839 in Page Co., Va. to John McCullough.

Named in the will of her father, Moses Lehew. By the time the estate was settled, administration records referred to her as Rebecca McCullough.

Listed as Rebecca B. McCullough, age 44, in her brother William's family group on the 1850 Census of Page Co., Va. One child, Franklin McCullough, age 7, is listed with her on this census. Her husband is not listed with them.

ISAAC B.[4] LEHEW (Moses[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Moses Lehew and wife Hannah (Branson). Born about 1808 in Va. Married 4 Nov. 1844 in Page Co., Va. to Eliza B. Miller, dau. of Peter Miller. Died before 26 July 1897 (date of probate of will).

Isaac B. Lehew and wife Eliza appear on the 1850 Census listing for Page Co., Va. (no children with them). They were listed in Page Co. again in 1860 as follows (Cedar Point P.O.):

Isaac B. Lehew		51	farmer
Isaac N.?	"	6

Isaac B. Lehew willed his entire estate, real and personal, to his wife Eliza B. during her lifetime, and after her death to his daughter (perhaps the Mary E. on census?), the wife of John Meeham at the time of Isaac's will, dated 1888--after Elizabeth's death, to her children.

WILLIAM[4] LEHEW (Moses[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Moses Lehew and wife Hannah (Branson). Born about 1812 in Va. Married in Page Co., Va. to Mary Ann Pomeroy.

William and family are listed on the 1850 and 1860 Census of Page Co., Va. William's sisters, Nancy Lehew and Rebecca McCullough, and Rebecca's son, were with them in 1850.

William was named in his father's will--to inherit equally with Moses' other children.

Our list of William's children is put together from census and county records:

i. Mary C. Lehew, b. 1850 - prob. died bef. 1860, as she does not appear on 1860 Census
ii. Susan Lehew, b. abt. 1851
iii. Martha A. Lehew, b. abt. 1852; m. in 1870 in Page Co., Va. to S. H. Pomeroy
iv. Ida Lehew, b. abt. 1854 - d. in 1865 in Page Co.
v. James Lehew, b. abt. 1859
vi. William Lehew, b. abt. 1860 - d. in 1865 in Page Co.

CATLETT[4] LEHEW (Spencer[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Spencer Lehew and wife Nancy (Catlett). Born 17 Nov. 1804, prob. in Frederick or Shenandoah Co., Va. Married Joan Scott (b. Ky. abt. 1827). Catlett Lehew probably moved to Hamilton Co., Ohio with his parents sometime before 1830. He was a resident of Hamilton Co. in 1834 when he had a Power of Attorney from his parents and brother and sister to act for them in settling their part of the John Catlett estate (his grandfather's) in Shenandoah Co., Va. He later moved to Clarke Co., Missouri.

Catlett Lehew was a physician, well known in the tri-state area near Alexandria, Mo., where he practiced for many years. He is listed as a physician on the 1850, 1860, and 1870 Census of Clarke Co., Mo. Since Catlett's birth year as estimated from these various census listings is not consistent (in some cases it was difficult to read), we have used the year 1804, which seems to have come from family records.

Children:

i. Lucia Lehew, b. abt. 1852-3 - d. unmarried at age 72
ii. Spencer Lehew, b. abt. 1854
iii. Betty Lehew, b. abt. 1856
iv. Catlett Lehew, b. abt. 1859 (with family on 1860 Census but not on 1870 - died young?)

Possibly it was the Spencer Lehew above (b. 1854) who married V. Bosworth and had a daughter Dorothy Isabell Lehew. Spencer is listed by some members of this branch of the Lehew family with a daughter Dollie and a son Catlett.

John M.T.Smith and Alcinda were residents of Hamilton Co., Ohio, in 1835 when they sold land in Shenandoah Co., Va. which was part of Alcinda's grandfather Catlett's estate.

They had a son W. B. Smith, born in 1844.

20 February 1902 in Kahoka, Missouri.

Joseph M. Lehew probably moved to Hamilton Co., Ohio with his parents around 1827 or a little earlier. He was a resident of Hamilton Co. in 1834 when he appointed his brother Catlett to act for him in settling his part of his grandfather Catlett's estate in Shenandoah Co., Va. He later moved to Clarke Co., Mo., where we found the family listed on the 1850 and 1870 Census.

HENRIETTA[4] LEHEW (Spencer[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--daughter of Spencer Lehew and wife Nancy (Catlett). Born in 1817. Married Luther Turner. Henrietta probably moved from the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia to Hamilton Co., Ohio with her parents about 1827. She was a resident of Hamilton Co. in 1839 when she sold her share of her grandfather Catlett's estate in Shenandoah Co., Va. She is listed with her husband and one child on the 1850 Census of Clarke Co., Mo. We have taken the list of her children from the 1860 Census of Clarke Co.:

i. Catlett Turner, b. abt. 1850 in Mo.
ii. H. M. Turner, b. abt. 1852 in Mo.
iii. M. A. Turner, b. abt. 1855 in Mo.

ELIZA A.[4] VANNORT (Eda[3] Lehew Vannort, Spencer[2] Lehew, Peter[1])--daughter of Jacob Vannort and wife Eda (Lehew). Born 1 Jan. 1819. Married on 26 Dec. 1839 at the old Vannort home near Riverton, Va. to Abraham R. Boone. Died in 1894.

After their marriage, Mr. Boone taught school in Augusta Co., Va. for a while, then they went to Missouri, where Eliza's brother William and her sister Isabella Vannort Hughes, as well as other Front Royal families, had already settled. The Boones bought a farm near Shelbyville, and it was there that their daughter Kathleen was born in 1842. They returned to Virginia to live while the children were still quite young.

On the 1850 Census, the family is listed next to Ann Lehew (sister of Eliza) in Front Royal, Warren Co.,Va.:

SARAH[4] LAHUE (William[3], William[2], Peter[1])--daughter of William Lahue and wife Delphia (McLoad). Born 23 Sept. 1798 in Virginia. Married on 9 March 1820 in Harrison Co., Indiana to John T. Jamison. Died 16 Feb. 1880. Both John T. Jameson and his wife are buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Corydon, Ind.

Daughter Sarah Jameson is mentioned in the will of William Lahue, and in the final settlement of his estate (Harrison Co., Ind. 1859). Mr. Frederick Griffin, collector of Harrison Co. historical items, has notes to the effect that the John T. Jameson family kept a tavern in Corydon during the time that Corydon was the State Capital of Indiana. At a very early date, Sarah Jameson had a lending library in the tavern to lend books to the state legislators. Some consider this to have been the beginning of the Indiana State Library. Mr. Griffin said Sarah was the "oldest half-sister of Isaac Lahue", to whom he referred as "Dr. Isaac Lahue."

John and Sarah Jameson are listed in Corydon, Harrison Co., Ind., on both the 1850 and 1860 Census - in 1860 as follows:

John T. Jameson	72	Boardinghouse keeper	born in Maryland
Sarah "	61		Virginia

Six boarders are listed with them

JOHN[4] LAHUE (William[3], William[2], Peter[1])--son of William Lahue and wife Delphia (McLoad). Born in 1799 in Virginia, probably in either Frederick or Wythe Co. Married twice - his first wife's name was Margaret; (2) on 22 Jan. 1871 in Harrison Co., Ind., he married Mary Hurst. Died in 1886, shortly after the death of his second wife. John Lahue is mentioned as son and heir of William Lahue in William's will (dated 19 Feb.1850, probated 8 Mar. 1858 in Harrison Co., Ind.) and in the final settlement of the estate in Nov. 1859.

John "Lehew" bought land in Harrison Co., Ind. from the U.S.Government in 1825 and in 1841--land authorized to be sold at Jeffersonville, Ind. by President John Quincy Adams and President Martin Van Buren.

John Lahue's will, dated 7 Aug. 1886, was presented to court on 14 Sept. 1886. His estate was to be sold and the proceeds (with the exception of some real estate to his granddaughter, Angie Leslie) invested for the support of his dau. Ann R. Lahue. Jonathan J. Lahue was one of the executors. John's will does not mention the names of all his children, but at the time of his son William's death in 1865 (Wm. left no will), the estate records included a list of Wm.'s legal heirs. Included on the list were John and Margaret Lahue, parents of Wm.; Jonathan Lahue, brother of Wm.; Anna R. Lahue and Mary E. Leslie (formerly Lahue), sisters of William. From the 1850 Census of Harrison Co., Ind., we have added Aaron R. Lahue, another son of John (presumed to have died before 1865). We also found John on the 1870 and 1880 Census of Harrison Co., but by that time the only one of his children listed with him was Ann R. Lahue.

WILLIAM[4] LAHUE (William[3], William[2], Peter[1])--son of William Lahue and wife Nancy (Cline). Born abt. 1827 in Indiana. Married (1) on 10 Sept. 1845 in Harrison Co., Ind. to Mahala Bevers; (2) on 3 Nov. 1850 in Harrison Co. to Rhoda Stevens. William died 13 April 1861.

William Lahue was mentioned as Wm. Jr., son and heir of Wm., Sr., in his father's will (dated 1850, probated in 1858 in Harrison Co.) and in the final settlement of the estate in 1859.

William Lahue, age 23, presumed to be the William of this sketch, shows up on the 1850 Census of Eelriver Twp. in Hendricks Co., Ind. in a family group headed by Joseph Cline. Note that his mother was a Cline.

Wm. Boyer was appointed administrator of Wm. Lahue's estate in 1861. Wm. Lahue left many debts, and the final settlement showed a net deficit. One bill, dated Oct. 17, 1860, includes an item for "accouchement for lady." Notes for debts include one to George W. Lahue in 1857, and another in 1860 signed by William and Isaac Lahue for a loan from Spencer Lahue. There was no list of heirs in these administration records (Harrison Co.), but "Rhody" Lahue signed receipts, etc. as widow of William. After Rhoda Lahue died on 24 July 1866, the proof of kinship in the estate records of Harrison Co. listed her children as Isabella Wolfe, wife of Andrew Wolfe; Nancy Lahue; Mary Lahue; Charlotte Lahue; the last three designated as minors. To this list of Wm.'s children, we would add Charles J. Lahue, born about 1847, evidently a son of Wm. by his first wife, and therefore not listed among Rhoda's children in the estate records. He is, however, listed as a brother in the Harrison Co. records of the estate of Nancy Lahue in 1873. The same list of Nancy's kin lists Isabella Wolfe as her sister. Charles J. Lahue was with his Lahue grandparents at the time of the 1850 Census.

GEORGE WASHINGTON[4] LAHUE (WILLIAM[3], William[2], Peter[1])--son of William Lahue and wife Nancy (Cline). Born 31 Jan. 1829 in Ind., presumably in Harrison Co. Married on 4 Dec. 1851 in Harrison Co. to Rhoda Blankenbaker. Rhoda was born in 1831, and was a daughter of Felix Blankenbaker and wife Mary (Crisler). George Washington Lahue died after 1894, when the Garr Genealogy shows his address as Wills Point, Van Zandt Co., Texas.

George Lahue is listed with his parents on the 1850 Census of Harrison Co., Ind. The 1860 Census of Harrison Co. shows George and Rhoda in Corydon, with four children. By 1870 Census time they had moved to Montgomery Co., Mo., where they are listed in Bearcreek Twp. with five children.

George Washington Lahue is named as son and heir of Wm. Lahue in Wm.'s will (dated 19 Feb. 1850, probated in Harrison Co., Ind. 8 March 1858), and in the final settlement, dated 11 Nov. 1859. He and his mother were executors of the will.

In 1894, John Calhoun Garr completed a Garr Genealogy begun in 1844 by his father, John Wesley Garr. This book contains a great deal of information on the descendants of George Washington Lahue (his wife was a Garr descendant) and on the descendants of George's brother Joseph, who also married a Garr descendant. Some of the data presented here on these particular Lahue families is taken from this book.

JOSEPH[4] LAHUE (William[3], William[2], Peter[1])--son of William Lahue and wife Nancy (Cline). Born 15 Apr. 1830 in Ind., presumably Harrison Co.). Married 2 Nov. 1854 in Harrison Co. to Mary Ellen Harrison, dau. of Joshua Harrison and wife Elizabeth (Blankenbaker). Mary E. was born 16 Aug. 1837 and died in 1890 in Van Zandt Co. Tex. Joseph Lahue died 4 Feb. 1865 in Harrison Co., Indiana.

Joseph Lahue is listed with his parents on the 1850 Census of Harrison Co., Ind. He was named as son and heir in the will of Wm. Lahue (dated 19 Feb. 1850, probated 8 March 1858 in Harrison Co.) and also in the final settlement in 1859.

Joseph died intestate on 4 Feb. 1865. George W. Lahue was appointed administrator of his estate. Mary E. Lahue was appointed guardian of the minor heirs of Joseph Lahue (children of Joseph and Mary) by the Harrison Co. Court in 1867. They are listed in the records as follows: Millard F. Lahue, age 11 in 1867; Wm. H. Lahue, age 9 in 1867; John M. Lahue, age 7 in 1867; George M. Lahue, age 3 in 1867 (all residents of Harrison Co. in 1867 and owning no real estate). A Harrison Co. guardianship report dated May 1876 indicates that Mary E. Lahue had moved with her wards (who were also her children) in 1868 to Montgomery Co., Mo., and was asking that the case be transferred there. The report stated that one of the children, John M., had died 12 Feb. 1874 in Montgomery Co. The 1870 Census shows Mary Lahue and two of the children, John and George, living in Bearcreek Twp. in Montgomery Co., Mo. Joseph's brother George and family were in the same township.

Joseph's wife, Mary Ellen, was also a Garr descendant, and the Garr Genealogy (see p. 56) was helpful in providing us with information about this branch of the Lahue family.

Married on 14 Feb. 1856 in Harrison Co., Ind. to Miss Charlotte Cook (b. 10 June 1840; d. 29 Feb. 1908). Isaac d. 7 May 1916.

Isaac Lahue was named as son and heir in Wm. Lahue's will dated 1850, and in the final settlement of the estate in 1859 (Harrison Co., Ind.). He is listed with his parents on the 1850 Census of Harrison Co., Ind. On the 1860 Census of Harrison Co., Isaac and Charlotte and two children show up in Spencer Twp. in Harrison Co., and in 1870, they are listed Harrison Twp., same county, with six children. As will be seen by the list of children (sent by a descendant from family records), there were a number of children born after 1870 Census time. Isaac was farming in 1870.

AMANDA[4] LAHUE (Spencer[3], William[2], Peter[1])--daughter of Spencer Lahue and wife Margaret (Davis). Born about 1812 in Va. (probably Wythe Co.). Married 9 Feb. 1832 in Harrison Co., Ind. to Wm. Blankenbeker. Amanda died sometime before 1860. Wm. Blankenbeker administered her father's estate in 1860, and records indicate he was a widower then.

The children of Wm. Blankenbeker and wife Amanda (Lahue) are named in the records of the administration of the estate of Spencer Lahue (to inherit their mother's share) as follows:

i. Elias C. Blankenbaker
ii. Thompson Blankenbaker
iii. William H. Blankenbaker
iv. Benjamin R. Blankenbaker
v. Jefferson Blankenbaker
vi. Caroline Blankenbaker
vii. Christina Blankenbaker

The 1850 Census (Harrison Co., Ind.) indicates that there was also a dau. Drusilla. She evidently died before 1860. When Margaret Lahue (widow of Spencer and mother of Amanda) died, her deceased daughter Amanda's heirs were again listed in Harrison Co. Admin. Records (1872). Thompson and Christena are not on the 1872 list, and are presumed to have died between 1860 and 1872. Caroline is listed as Caroline Lindsay, wife of Zachary Lindsay.

JACKSON LAHUE (Spencer , William , Peter)--son of Spencer Lahue and wife Margaret (Davis). We have estimated his birthyear as about 1815. Married on 1 Aug. 1836 in Harrison Co., Ind. to Elizabeth Boley (b. abt. 1818). Died 6 July 1858.

Harrison Co. records in connection with the estates of Spencer and Margaret Lahue, parents of Jackson Lahue, and in connection with the guardianship of Jackson's children, have given us considerable information about Jackson's family. Since Jackson died before his parents, his children were named in the estate records to inherit his share of both estates. Civil War Pension Records added still more information about the family. Three of Jackson's sons served in the Union Army.

Jackson's wife, Elizabeth, and their minor children resided in Crawford Co., Ind. in 1860 when the Harrison Co. Court appointed John Riley as guardian of the minor children. Elizabeth Lahue applied for a dependent mother's pension in 1883, based on her son Isaac's service in the Union Army (Isaac died in 1868 of disease contracted in or caused by hardships of army service). On her application, Elizabeth stated that her husband had left her and the children a farm of 117½ acres of badly worn and poor land. She and the children had remained on the land, working it the best they could, and in winter she had "spun yarn", quilted and sewed, etc., barely managing to get along, especially while three of her sons were in the army. After the war, she had sold her interest in the farm and in 1877 had moved from Leavenworth in Crawford Co., to Parke Co., Ind. (P.O. Leatherwood), where in 1883 she owned a little over two acres.

SARAH[4] LAHUE (Spencer[3], William[2], Peter[1])--daughter of Spencer Lahue and wife Margaret (Davis). Born about 1822 in Indiana, presumably in Harrison Co. Married on 6 March 1838 in Harrison Co. to Nicholas Boley. Listed on the 1850 Census of Harrison Co. with seven children. Died before the administration of her father's estate in 1860. Her children are named in the administration records (Harrison Co.) as follows (as children of Sarah Boley, deceased, who was dau. of Spencer Lahue): Birthyears estimated from census.

i. Henry Boley, b. abt. 1839
ii. Martin V. Boley, b. abt. 1841
iii. Adaline Boley, b. abt. 1843
iv. Caroline Boley, b. abt. 1844
v. Darthula Boley, b. abt. 1846, twin of Melvina
vi. Melvina Boley, b. abt. 1846, twin of Darthula
vii. Mary Boley, b. abt. 1849 viii. Isaac G. Boley, b. after 1850 census was taken

The list of Sarah's heirs is repeated in connection with her mother's estate in 1872, with the exception of Darthula, Mary, and Caroline, who are therefore presumed to have died between 1860 and 1872. In 1872, Adaline is listed as Adeline Thomas, widow; and Melvina as Melvina Dyer, wife of Charles Dyer.

JAMES HARVEY[4] LAHUE (Spencer[3], William[2], Peter[1])--son of Spencer Lahue and wife Margaret (Davis). Born 8 Aug. 1825 in Harrison Co., Ind. Listed as a farmer living with his parents on the 1850 Census of Harrison Co., Ind. Married in 1850 or 1851 in Harrison Co. to Christena Fleshman (she d. Jan.1900).

James H. Lahue was named as a son of Spencer Lahue on the list of heirs submitted to the Court in Harrison Co., Ind. in connection with Spencer's estate in 1860. He was also listed as a son of Margaret Lahue on the list of heirs filed in Harrison Co. in connection with Margaret's estate in 1871 and 1872. James and Christena were residents of Atchison Co., Mo. in 1860 when they sold their interest in land in Harrison Co., Ind. inherited from Spencer Lahue. According to a history of Atchison Co. published in 1905, they had moved to Atchison Co. about 1851. There they had bought 160 acres of land which they had added to until in 1905 James owned a 310 acre farm, and had also given 320 acres to the children.

James Harvey LaHue served in the Mexican War in 1846 and 1847, and also served six months in the Civil War.

Married (1) to Angeline ____; (2) on 24 April 1872 in Knox Co., Ind., to Elizabeth La Croix (she d. in 1883 in Cairo, Ill.). James Crockett Lahue died in 1910 in Cairo.

James C. "Lahew" was still a resident of Wythe Co., Va. in 1844 when he bought 50 acres of land in Wythe Co. Sometime before 1850 he moved to Knox Co., Ind. He is listed in Knox Co. on the 1850, 1860, 1870 Census, in 1870 in the town of Vincennes, his occupation insurance agent in 1870. By 1875 James had moved to Alexander Co., Ill., and the 1880 Census shows him there (in Cairo) with his second wife. He was listed as a City Marshall in 1880.

RHODA J.[4] LAHEW (Isaac[3], William[2], Peter[1])--daughter of Isaac Lahew (Lahue--note varied spellings of this group) and wife Martha D. (Sayers). Born about 1826 or 1827 (est.). Married 4 Dec. 1845 in Wythe Co., Va. to John H. E. Sprinkle. Died sometime before her father made his will (dated Apr.1856) in which he mentions as heirs the two children (not by name) of his deceased daughter Mrs. Sprinkle. The Mary Sprinkle listed with Rhoda's mother's family group on the 1860 Census of Wythe Co. is undoubtedly one of these children.

SPENCER CORNELIUS[4] LAHUE (Isaac[3], William[2], Peter[1])--son of Isaac Lahue and wife Martha D. (Sayers). Born about 1836 or 1837 in Wythe Co., Va. Married on 9 Sept. 1863 in Wythe Co. to Lucinda Elizabeth Ewald, dau. of Stephen Ewald and wife Angeline (Seagle). Died about 1902.

Listed with his mother' family group on the 1860 Census of Wythe Co., Va.--Postoffice, Wytheville.

Spencer C. Lahue served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War as a private. He enlisted in Co. A, 4th Va. Inf. on 10 March 1862 at Wytheville, for 3 years. Although this is the same company which fought in the Battle of Gettysburg, in which Spencer's brother Isaac lost his life, Spencer did not take part in this engagement because he was confined to hospital in Richmond, Va. with intermittent fever. After his recovery, Spencer was granted a 40-day furlough, and it was during this furlough that he was married (in Wythe Co.). Spencer's name appears on Confederate muster rolls as late as April 1864. He may have served longer, but we could find no later record.

It is interesting to note that Spencer's son James' birth record shows James' father as "Col. Lahue". Since he seems to have been a private during his war service, this title probably has nothing to do with this service.

Spencer C. Lahue's will, dated 14 Dec. 1901, was probated in Wythe Co. 10 June 1902--giving us an indication of when he died. The will names as heirs: wife Lucinda, daughters Angeline, Lucy, and Gay Lahue, and Mary McCarthy; sons James and George. David had evidently died before his father. Lucinda, Spencer's widow, died 18 March 1925, leaving all her property to daughters Angela and Lucy Lahue--Miss Lucy Lahue to be executrix. Lucinda had been a resident of Wytheville before her death.

Listed as Newton Lahue in his mother's family group on the 1860 Census of Wythe Co., Va.

Confederate records show that Isaac N. Lahue served as a private in Co. A, 4th Regt. of Va. Inf. He enlisted 4 Apr.1863 at Wytheville, Va. for a period of three years, and was killed in action at Gettysburg 3 July 1863. His name appears on a list of casualties in the "Stonewall Brigade" commanded by Brig. Gen. J. A. Walker in the Battle of Gettysburg. Isaac's brother Spencer served in the same company, but did not take part in the Battle of Gettysburg because he was in hospital in Richmond, Va. at the time.

DUNCAN[4] LAHUE (Cornelius[3], William[2], Peter[1])--son of Cornelius Lahue and wife Sabrina (Batman). Born 9 Dec. 1831 near New Salisbury, Indiana. Married on 18 Feb. 1858 in Harrison Co., Ind. to Nancy Stevens. Died about 1907? Buried in Grove City, Illinois.

On the 1850 Census of Harrison Co., Ind., Duncan Lahue is listed with his parents. The move to Illinois seems to have taken place by 1859. The 1870 and 1880 Census shows Duncan and Nancy Lahue and family in Christian Co., Ill--the birthplace of Ione, the oldest child, indicated as Illinois in 1859.

Duncan Lahue is included as a son on the "complete list" of legal heirs of Cornelius in the 1866 estate records of Harrison Co., Ind.

Duncan served in the Union Army during the Civil War (Co.A of 149 Ill. Inf.). In 1891 he applied for and received an invalid pension. In 1907, Nancy Lahue, widow of Duncan, and a resident of Illinois, applied for and received a widow's pension. From this, we assume that Duncan died about 1907.

We have taken our list of Duncan's children from the 1870 and 1880 Census, and from the list sent by Duncan's granddaughter, Mrs. Esther LaHue Walker, who lived with her grandparents in Edinburg (Christian Co.), Ill. from age 4.

Children:

i. Ione Lahue, b. 1859 in Ill.; d. 1904
ii. Lydia Lahue, b. 1861 in Ill.; d. 1944
(218) iii. Joseph Thomas Lahue, b. 1862 in Ill.; d. 1925

MARSHALL[4] LAHUE (Cornelius[3], William[2], Peter[1])--son of Cornelius Lahue and wife Sabrina (Batman). Born 26 Dec. 1833, presumably in Harrison Co., Ind. Married on 19 Jan. 1865 in Harrison Co., Ind. to Lydia Stevens. Died in Clinton Twp., Henry Co., Mo. on 30 Oct. 1888 of typhoid pneumonia. Buried in Bethlehem Cemetery.

Marshall Lahue appears in his parents' family group on the 1850 and 1860 Census of Harrison Co., Ind. By the time of the 1870 Census, Marshall and family were in Henry Co., Mo., in or near Clinton. They were also listed in Henry Co. in 1880. They were in Illinois for a while before proceeding to Missouri, for their oldest son was born in Illinois.

Marshall Lahue was one of the children of Cornelius listed in the proof of kinship in Harrison Co., Ind. in 1866.

Marshall Lahue was a Union soldier in the Civil War. He served in Indiana Cav. B3. In 1870 he applied for and received an invalid pension. His widow applied for and received a widow's pension in 1889.

EMERY[4] LAHUE (Cornelius[3], William[2], Peter[1])--son of Cornelius Lahue and wife Sabrina (Batman). Born 14 August 1835, presumably in Harrison Co., Ind. Married 4 Feb. 1866 in Harrison Co. to Sarah M. Lindsey. Died about 1910 in Oregon?

Emery Lahue was appointed administrator of his father's estate early in 1866, and is on the list of children of Cornelius included in the records of the estate (Harrison Co., Ind.). He evidently left Harrison Co. soon after this, for his son Elmer was born in Indiana about 1867, and his son Oliver was born in Missouri about 1868.

Emery Lahue is listed on the 1850 and 1860 Census of Harrison Co., Ind. in his parents' family group. He is listed with his own family on the 1870 and 1880 Census of Henry Co., Mo., in 1870 in Osage Twp., P.O. Clinton, and in 1880 in Fairview Twp. The list of his children is based on these census listings.

Emery Lahue served in the Union Army in the Civil War--in Indiana Co. 81, Inf., and applied for an invalid pension on 24 March 1890 from Missouri. Family records indicate that he later moved to Oregon, and his widow's application for pension, filed from Oregon in 1910, corroborates this.

Cindrilla E. Miller was named as daughter and heir of Cornelius Lahue in records of the final settlement of his estate (Harrison Co.). Cornelius died in 1865. Cinderella had a twin sister, Alzemeda, who probably died young, as she does not show up on the 1850 Census, or on the list of her father's heirs. We have nothing further on them.

ABNER[4] LEHEW (John[3], Francis[2], Peter[1])--son of John Lehew and wife Nancy Conner (or Comer?). Born about 1799 in Frederick Co., Va. Married 16 May 1824 in Shenandoah Co., Va. to Sarah Forsythe, dau. of William Forsythe.

On the 1830 Census of Shenandoah Co., Va., Abner Lehew is listed with a wife and three children (1 male child between 5 and 10, and 2 females under 5). Abner and Sarah Lehew and family are listed on the 1850 Census of Warren Co., Va. (formed in 1836 from parts of Shenandoah and Frederick Counties) with the following children: William H. Lehew, age 25, blacksmith; Lucinda Lehew, age 21; Jackson Lehew, age 19; Richard Lehew, age 17, Sarah F. Lehew, age 13; all born in Virginia. The census shows Abner's age as 51, occupation lumberman. Since the 1830 Census shows 2 girls under 5, we must look for one more girl born between 1825 and 1830, and the answer seems to be found in a letter written in 1931 by Mrs. Mary Lehew Pirkey, who says her father (Wm. Hamilton Lehew, son of Abner and Sarah) had a sister who was called, as nearly as we could make out the spelling--"Lavary". An 1848 marriage record for Loveray Lehew and William Mills, in Page Co., Va. would seem to explain why this daughter is not among Abner's and Sarah's family on the 1850 Census. Note that a similar name (Love A. in records) occurs in Abner's son Jackson's family.

MEREDITH[4] LEHUE (Peter[3], Francis[2], Peter[1])--son of Peter Lehue and wife Polly (Horsley). Born about 1800-1801 in Woodford or Boone Co., Ky. Married on 3 July 1819 in Gallatin Co., Ky., to Cynthia Driskell. They owned property in that part of Gallatin Co. which in 1838 became Carroll Co. Present-day descendants of Meredith favor the spelling "Lehue or LeHue", but we found varied spellings.

Meredith "Lahew" appears as the only Lehue, Lahew (etc.) on the 1820 and 1830 Census of Gallatin Co., Ky. In 1850, Meredith Lahue, a farmer, and wife Cynthia were listed in Carroll Co. with six children, and by the time of the 1860 Census Meredith and those of his family still at home had moved to Trimble Co., Ky. Meredith "Lahu" was listed as a ferryman, his son John helping tend ferry, and his son Price "trading". Their postoffice address was Milton, which is across the Ohio River from Madison, Ind. Perhaps the ferry plied near the site of the present bridge.

Children: (from census and family records)

JOHN[4] LEHEW (Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--son of Peter Lehew and wife Louisa. Born 6 May 1803 in Penna. Married Acha (or Achsa?) Cotton, possibly one of the Cottons who lived near the border between Monongalia Co., W.Va. and Greene Co., Penna. Acha died in 1868. John Lehew died 25 Jan. 1883. Both are buried in the Wayman Cemetery on Proctor Ridge near Proctor, Wetzel Co., W. Va.

The first census which shows John Lehew as head of his own family is the 1830 Census of Aleppo Twp., Greene Co., Penna. By 1840, he had moved on to Marshall Co., Va. (now W.Va.). John and his family show up in Wetzel Co. (now W.Va.) on the 1850, 1860, 1870, and 1880 Census, John's occupation farming. Some old residents of the area have said that John also made coffins.

Wetzel Co. deed records for 1848 show the purchase of a farm of 100 acres on Proctor Ridge by John Lehew from Peter Lehew. This was the farm where John and family lived for many years, and the cemetery where he is buried is not far away. John's daughter Eliza and her husband, Abraham Hoyt, bought out the shares of the other heirs after John's death, and it was for many years known as the Hoyt place. In 1920, the Hoyt heirs sold the place to Roy Parsons.

The University of W. Va. Library at Morgantown has an abstract of John's will--one of the many county records copied or abstracted by people working under the WPA program in the 1930's. The original will seems to have been lost, also the county record of it. All John's children except William are named as heirs. William's daughter Mary inherited his share.

DAVID[4] LEHEW (Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--son of Peter Lehew and wife Louisa. Born abt. 1807-1810 in Penna. Married Lydia Kirby, dau. of W. and F. Kirby. Lydia was born about 1806 in Penna., and died in 1888 in Tyler Co., W. Va. David died in August of 1885 in Tyler Co., W. Va.

The 1840 Census is the first on which we found David Lehew as head of a family. David "Lahu" was in Marshall Co., Va. (now W.Va.) in 1840, also in 1850 and 1860. Since David's daughter Elizabeth's marriage record indicates that she was born in Marshall Co. in 1834, it would seem that they had lived in Marshall Co. at least six years before 1840 Census time. David and his wife, Lydia, owned 100 acres on Fish Creek in Marshall Co., purchased in 1852 and sold in 1865, which is the same year David's name appears for the first time in Tyler Co., W.Va. deed records. The 1880 Census of Tyler Co. shows David and Lydia "Lahew" in the Ellsworth District. Next to them is son Peter and his wife, and nearby is son David and his wife.

David's grandson, Sam Lehew, has told us that David was a basket weaver. He was also a farmer, according to census information. Others have said that David was a good fiddler and that all his family were good dancers.

WILLIAM[4] LEHEW (Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--son* of Peter Lehew and wife Louisa. Born about 1812 in Penna. Married (1) to Mary Riggs; (2) to Elizabeth _____.

The first census listing we have for William Lehew is the 1840 one, on which he appears as head of a family in Tyler Co., Va. (now W.Va.)--very near Peter Lehew--only one family in between. We must remember that Wetzel Co. was formed from a part of Tyler in 1846, so that William and Peter could have been very close to John and David in 1840. The land on Proctor Ridge which Peter sold to John in 1848 is very close to the line between Marshall and Wetzel Counties. John and David were in Marshall Co. in 1840.

William evidently married a second time before 1850. He appears on the 1850 Census of Mason Co., Va. (now W.Va.) with wife Elizabeth and five children. As far as we know, they were all children of William and Mary, his first wife. We have no record of William after 1850. His granddaughter, Miss Sue CATHERINE[4] LEHEW (Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--daughter* of Peter Lehew and wife Louisa. Born about 1819-1821 in Penna. Married sometime before Feb. 1842 in Tyler Co., Va. to Arthur Trader (this marriage is on the Tyler Co., W.Va. list of marriages performed by Thomas Snodgrass and published in Feb.1842). Arthur and Catherine were probably residents of that part of Tyler Co. which later became Wetzel Co. Catherine Trader died 1 March 1899 in Wood Co., W.Va. Her death record says she died at age 80.

Arthur and Catherine Trader and five children are listed on the 1850 Census of Marshall Co., Va. (now W.Va.). By 1865 they had evidently moved to Wood Co., W.Va., for Wood Co. records show a 31-acre land purchase by Catherine and Arthur Trader on Elk Fork of Lee Creek in 1865. There may have been a period of residence in Meigs Co., Ohio before this, since Wood Co. records indicate that their son William Francis Trader was born in Meigs Co. about 1858.

Catherine Trader left a will, dated 1890 and probated in 1899 in Wood Co., W. Va. She named the following children as heirs: Nancy Jane Leyhew, Sophronia Smith, Lavinia Townsend Nuis, Isabella Congrove, Theodore Trader, Eliza Smith, Etta Swain, Francis Wm. Trader, J. M. Trader. Her son J. M. Trader was to have all the balance of the estate after the others were paid $1.00 each--the others having had $100 each during their mother's lifetime.

PETER[4] LEHEW (Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--son* of Peter Lehew and wife Louisa. Born abt. 1820-1822 in Penna. Married (1) 22 Jan. 1843 in Marshall Co., Va. (now W.Va.) to Elizabeth Reed (she d. 27 Aug.1863 in Lewis Co., Mo.); (2) 1 Jan.1865 in Adams Co., Ill. to Katy Thomas; and (3) 19 Apr.1884 in Henry Co., Mo. to Nettie Edmonson. Peter and Nettie were both residents of Calhoun, Mo. in 1884. Nettie Lehew and their little daughter Fronie were drowned sometime in the 1890's. They were returning to Linn Creek (their home) by wagon from a visit in Calhoun. The Little Niangua River was high as they started to ford it in their wagon. Nettie, who was partially blind, became panicky, and jumped out, taking Fronie with her. Two of Nettie's brothers were with her, but were unable to save Nettie and Fronie. Peter died about 1899 near Linn Creek, Mo., and is buried on the farm near Linn Creek which had been his home.

Peter Lehew is listed on the 1850 Census of Marshall Co., Va. (now W.Va.) as Peter Lehew, Jr.--immediately next to Peter Lehew, Sr. and wife Louisa. The family consisted of himself, wife Elizabeth, and 3 children; Basil, Elsy Anne, and Wilford M. It was probably about 1855 or 1856 that they moved to Missouri. The 1860 Census shows them in Knox Co., Mo. in Fallriver Twp. (P. O. Novelty, Mo.). The family had grown to 7 children, the last born in Virginia being Keziah, b. abt. 1854, and the first born in Missouri being Virginia B., b. abt. 1856.

At 1870 Census time, Peter was in Boonville Twp., Cooper Co., Mo., with his second wife and four additional children (born since the 1860 Census). Note that this is the same township where Abraham Lehew (ancestor of compilers) is listed in 1870. Cooper Co. deed records show Peter Lehew of Cooper Co. leasing land in Cooper Co. for 3 yrs. (date of lease 12 Mar. 1870)--the rent to be one-half of all produce. Peter was to furnish his own wagon and team and to clear ten acres of timbered land and make a "good and lawful fence" around same. The owner was to furnish all farming utensils except wagon and to let livestock then on farm remain on same in charge of Le-hew, and for his attention and feeding, the owner agreed to give Peter one-half the increase of said stock. The owner was to occupy two rooms of the dwelling for 12 months.

1873 records of Benton Co., Mo. show that Peter Lehew had a grant of 160 acres in Benton Co. (granted at the Boonville, Mo. Land Office under the Homestead Act). Peter and wife Katie were residents of Livingston Co., Mo. in 1876 when they sold the Benton Co. land. In between times (1875) Peter and wife Catherine had executed a note for 20 acres of land in Saline Co., Mo. This land reverted to the previous owner by default in 1876--there is no evidence that Peter and Catherine ever resided in Saline Co.

On the 1880 Census, Peter and those of his family still at home are listed in Henry Co., Mo. Three children born since the 1870 Census are included here. There were four more born of the third marriage--in fact, some descendants credit this Peter with 20 to 22 children, some of whom died young. We have the names of only 17 of these.

Peter and two of his sons, Basil and Wilford, served on the side of the Union during the Civil War. Peter enrolled in Lewis Co., Missouri in the 69th Regt. Mo. Militia--a state force which was never called into active service by the U.S. For this reason, Peter's 1891 claim for an invalid pension (from the US Govt.) for this service was rejected. Peter, then 71, and a resident of Bagnall, Camden Co., Mo., stated in his application for pension that he was wholly unable to earn a living by reason of gunshot wounds, plus old age. On 19 Oct. 1892, Peter made a Declaration for Dependent Father's pension under the Act of 1890. His claim was based on his son Basil's service. Basil died in 1862 of typhoid fever contracted while serving in the Union Army. The pension was allowed, and the last pension payment made on 4 Feb. 1899, after which Peter was dropped from the rolls because of death. The exact date of Peter's death does not appear in pension record.

MELINDA[4] LEHEW (Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--daughter* of Peter Lehew and wife Louisa. Born about 1826 in Penna. Married 9 June 1850 in Marshall Co., Va. (now W.Va.) to Greenberry Poulson, son of Asel Poulson, a name we also found spelled Polston and Polson. On the 1850 Census of Marshall Co., Va., Greenberry and Malinda Poulson are listed with Greenberry's father's family. By 1860, Greenberry and Melinda had moved to Adams Co., Illinois, where the census lists them with three children, near Columbus, Ill. 1870 Census time found them in Benton Co., Mo., in Union Twp., their family grown to five children. They were still in Benton Co. in 1880, near Warsaw, and the list of the birthplaces of the six children shown with them on the 1880 Census would seem to indicate that the move to Illinois from W.Va. had taken place between 1854 and 1857. Goodspeed's History of Benton Co. indicates that there were 12 children in the family. We have been able to list 11, with approximate birthdates for those who show up on census lists.

PETER[4] LEHEW (John[3], David[2], Peter[1])--son of John Lehew and wife Mary Polly (Baden). Born 3 April 1824 in Penna. His will names his wife Nancy among his heirs. Peter died 15 Apr. 1907 in Belle Vernon, Fayette Co., Penna. He is buried in Belle Vernon Cemetery. One Thomas Lehew (presumably his son) gave the information for the death record.

Peter and Nancy Lehew and 3 children are listed on the 1850 Census of Fayette Co., Penna., in Washington Twp. It was probably this Peter who bought property in Belle Vernon in 1853 and who was a member of the Borough Council of Belle Vernon in 1867 and in 1871.

Peter Lehew left a will which was probated in Fayette Co., Penna. on 25 April 1907. His heirs were his wife Nancy, sons Samuel's mother had remarried (about 1814?), and the fact that Samuel and his sister went into Muskingum Court about 1821 and chose Thomas "Lehue" as their guardian may date the disappearance and presumed death of Hugh Lackey, the stepfather. William Lackey was born at Zanesville, Ohio on 3 Oct. 1815. On 3 Apr. 1837, he married Harriet Caroline Bell. They had seven children, according to his granddaughter, Harriet Fritz, the third being Caroline Lackey, who was the mother of Harriet (Smith) Fritz. William Lackey died 27 Aug. 1881 at McConnelsville, Ohio. William and Harriet Lackey are listed with 7 children on the 1860 Census of McConnelsville Twp., Morgan Co., O. William was listed as a butcher. They were also in McConnelsville at the time of the 1870 & 1880 Census.

LORENZO[5] LEHEW (Spencer[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Spencer Lehew and wife Margaret (Lawrence). Born 29 Apr.1814 in the Zanesville, Ohio area, his father and grandfather having migrated there from Front Royal, Virginia about 1805. Von S. LeHew of Decatur, Ill., a greatgrandson of Lorenzo, says that Lorenzo came to Illinois in a covered wagon. This was probably in the 1860's, since Lorenzo bought land in the Zanesville area in 1859, and since an 1864 record of the heirs of Spencer Lehew gives Lorenzo's residence as Muskingum Co., Ohio. Lorenzo was married on 31 March 1839 in Muskingum Co., Ohio to Rebecca Brookover. He and Rebecca and five children appear on the 1850 Census of Muskingum Co., Ohio, in Washington Twp. Lorenzo was a farmer. He died on 1 Dec. 1866 in Decatur, Ill. His wife and family continued to live in Macon Co., Ill.--where they are listed in 1870 and 1880 on the census--in 1870 in Decatur, and in 1880 in Hickory Point Twp. Rebecca Lehew died 16 Feb. 1894.

Von LeHew, Lorenzo's greatgrandson, says Lorenzo bought 80 acres of land near Bearsdale (6 mi. northwest of Decatur) when he arrived in Illinois.

JOHN[5] LEHEW (Spencer[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Spencer Lehew and wife Margaret (Lawrence). Born about 1818 in Ohio. John is not mentioned in Spencer's will, nor is he on the list of "heirs-at-law" of Spencer in the 1864 Muskingum Co. record (executor for Spencer Lehew, deceased, seeking authority to make a deed). John is listed as a 32 yr. old laborer in Spencer's family group on the 1850 Census of Muskingum Co., O. He was still living in June 1857 when Spencer Lehew Sr. entered into an agreement with him. John was to lease a house and garden, etc. from Spencer, and to have possession from April 1857 and during said John's natural lifetime--John to agree to build a good wall and to keep the place in good repair, etc., and not to sell, trade, or otherwise dispose of said property. If Spencer did have a son John, as supposed from the preceding, he surely must have died before his father, probably unmarried--at least no marriage record has been found. We have not been able to locate him in 1860.

RACHEL[5] LEHEW (Spencer[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--daughter of Spencer Lehew and wife Margaret (Lawrence). Rachel was born about 1822 (not definite as census record difficult to read). Married 5 Mar. 1846 in Muskingum Co., O., to John Fitz. Rachel Fitz, "intermarried with John Fitz of Muskingum Co." is listed among the "heirs-at-law" of Spencer Lehew, deceased, in an 1864 record having to do with the disposition of property formerly owned by Spencer Lehew.

John and Rachel Fitz are listed on the 1850 Census of Madison Twp., Muskingum Co., O., with 1 child, James, age, 1. We did not manage to find them on later census listings.

SUSAN[5] LEHEW (Spencer[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--daughter of Spencer Lehew and wife Margaret (Lawrence). Born in Ohio about 1823. Married on 23 April 1844 in Muskingum Co., O. to David Fitz. "Susan Fitz, intermarried with David S. Fitz, of Muskingum County" is listed among the "heirs-at-law" of Spencer Lehew, decd., in the 1864 deed records of Muskingum Co.

David S. Fitz and wife Susanah appear on the 1850 and 1860 Census of Madison Twp., Muskingum Co., Ohio. There are three children listed with them in 1860:

i. George Fitz, b. abt. 1846
ii. Margaret Fitz, b. abt. 1848
iii. Marietta Fitz, b. abt. 1849

Married 12 Jan. 1843 in Muskingum Co., Ohio to William Fitz. Mary Fitz "intermarried with William Fitz of Muskingum Co." is listed among the "heirs-at-law" of Spencer Lehew, dec'd., in an 1864 record having to do with the disposition of property formerly owned by Spencer Lehew (Muskingum Co. deed records). We found Wm. and Mary Fitz listed in Muskingum Co. on the 1850, 1860, 1870, and 1880 Census. Spencer Lehew (Mary's father) was with them in 1860, age 73. Children:

SPENCER[5] LEHEW (Spencer[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Spencer Lehew and wife Margaret (Lawrence). Born about 1830 in Ohio. Married 26 Jan. 1853 in Muskingum Co., O., to Rose Agness Christie. Spencer died sometime between April of 1864, when Caleb Evans, Executor of his father's estate, sought permission of the other heirs of Spencer, Sr. to make a deed to Spencer, Jr., and Sept. 13, 1865, when Rose A. Lehew was appointed guardian of Sarah E., David S., and George M. Lehew, children of Spencer Lehew, deceased. Rose Lehew, Spencer's widow, was married again on 1 Sept. 1867 in Muskingum Co., to Lewis Harper.

In the will of Spencer[4] Lehew, dated 15 Apr. 1862, his son Spencer, Jr. was directed to settle for his father's board after selling the personal property.

The 1850 Census of Muskingum Co., O. shows Spencer as a twenty-year-old in his father's family group. In 1860 we find Spencer and Rose A. Lehew listed with their own household, still in Muskingum Co. It is interesting to note that one Mary R. Lehew, age 20, born in Penna., is listed with them. We have no clues to her identity, but it offers interesting possibilities, since the compilers' own group of ancestors spent considerable time in Penna. Before 1870 Census time, Rose Lehew had remarried, and we find on the 1870 and 1880 Census (6th Ward, Zanesville), Lewis Harper and Rose Harper, with three Lehew children, and several Harper children.

REBECCA[5] LEHEW (William[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--dau. of William Lehew and wife Mary (Pringle). Rebecca was born in Ohio (prob. Muskingum Co.) on 5 Aug. 1818. She married Thompson A. Robinson. Rebecca died 12 Nov. 1900 and is buried in Morgan Co., Ohio.

We found the Robinson family on the 1850, 1860, 1870, and 1880 Census. They lived close to Rebecca's father in Bloom Twp., Morgan Co., Ohio in 1850. Mary Lehew, Rebecca's cousin (dau. of Moses Lehew) was with them in 1850. Mary had chosen Thompson A. Robinson as her guardian in 1848. The Robinsons were still in Bloom Twp., Morgan Co. in 1860 and 1870, and in 1880, Rebecca, then age 61, was a widow living with her son Edward S. Robinson in Blue Rock Twp., Muskingum Co., O. Rebecca's sister Jedidah, deaf and dumb, was also a member of Edward's household in 1880.

Rebecca Robinson was one of the heirs named in her father's will, dated 2 March 1870.

ELIZABETH[5] LEHEW (William[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--dau. of William Lehew and wife Mary (Pringle). Born 15 Nov.1819, probably in Muskingum Co., Ohio. Married 24 June 1841 in Morgan Co., Ohio to Silas H. Fouts. Elizabeth died 22 Mar. 1854 and is buried in Morgan County, Ohio.

Silas H. Fouts and Elizabeth Fouts, with four children, William, Jacob, Nancy, and Margaret E., appear on the 1850 Census of Bloom Twp., Morgan Co., Ohio. After their mother's death, the children seem to have been placed with relatives, for the 1870 Census shows Jacob and Richard Fouts (born after the 1850 Census) with their grandfather and grandmother Lehew; and Wm. L. Fouts is listed with his mother's sister Rebecca Robinson and family (all in Morgan Co.) Only three of Elizabeth's children--William, Margaret, and Richard Fouts, were named as legal heirs of Elizabeth Fouts in the 1870 will of Elizabeth's father, William Lehew. It looks as though Jacob and Nancy might have died before 1870. After Mary Lehew's (Wm.'s widow--Elizabeth's mother) death in 1879, Morgan Co. probate records included the final statement showing payments under Wm.'s will. Richard M. Fouts and Wm. L. Fouts are on the list of those who received payments; Margaret Fouts is not on the list, but the records indicate that the two Browning children on the list may have been Margaret's--it looks as though Margaret married a Browning between 1870 and 1879, and then died, leaving two children as her heirs.

ii. Jacob Fouts, b. abt. 1843

JOHN[5] LEHEW (William[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of William Lehew and wife Mary (Pringle). Born 8 Nov. 1821, probably in Muskingum Co., Ohio. Moved with his parents to Morgan Co., Ohio about 1824. Married 1 Nov. 1840 in Morgan Co., to Eliza Smith. Bible records from descendants of Wm.[4] give John's death date as 25 July 1858. He evidently died in Perry Co., Ohio, for Perry Co. records show Wm. King, administrator for John "Lehue", late of Perry Co., in dealings with Eliza "Lehue".

There does not seem to be a list of John's children in Morgan Co. or Perry Co. records, but John's father's will names John's two minor children for us (Philena and Henry). By a careful study of this family as listed on the 1850, 1860, 1870, and 1880 Census, and by adding to the census information, details which we were able to learn from marriage records, Bible records, and statements by descendants, we have been able to list seven children of John and Eliza Lehew. The details involved in establishing James D. Lehew as a member of this family are too lengthy to be included here, but will be sent to anyone requesting them. John and Eliza Lehew and four of the children were in Muskingum Co., O. at 1850 census time; Eliza and five of the children were in New Lexington, O. (Perry Co.) at 1860 census time; and Eliza and three of the children were in Perry Co. at 1870 Census time. On 6 Aug. 1874 in Perry Co., one Eliza "Leahew", presumed to have been John Lehew's widow, married John Sutphen. It would seem to be the same Eliza who appears on the 1880 Census of Perry Co., as Eliza "Lahue", divorcee.

Three of the sons of John and Eliza Lehew--Samuel, David, and William--served in the Union Army during the Civil War. In 1880, Eliza Lehew claimed a pension based on her son William's service, and it was granted. It is presumed that William had died sometime before 1880 as a result of his war service.

SAMUEL OSBORN[5] LEHEW (William[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of William Lehew and wife Mary Pringle). Born in March 1824. His son John Doster Lehew told us Samuel was born about 200 feet from the Y Bridge in Zanesville, O. on the farm on the east side of the bridge, which Samuel's father owned. It must have been soon after Samuel's birth that the family moved to nearby Morgan Co. Samuel was married 24 Feb. 1848 in Morgan Co., O., to Temperance Beal. He died 15 May 1908 and is buried in Ringgold, O.

Samuel and Temperance Lehew and their one-year-old daughter Mary were in Bloom Twp., Morgan Co. at the time of the 1850 Census. The 1860, 1870, and 1880 Census shows them in Trimble Twp. Athens Co., Ohio. Samuel's occupation is shown as farmer on all these listings. His son John D. told us he was a house carpenter in his early life, then went into wagon work and later to farming. Samuel and Temperance owned 160 acres in Athens Co. which they bought in 1864 and sold in 1872. That same year, Samuel bought 200 acres on Tygart's Creek in Wood Co., W.Va., and presumably lived in Wood Co. for a while, but the family was back in Athens Co. by 1880 Census time. County records indicate that they were back and forth between Morgan and Athens Counties (note that Trimble Twp., Athens Co. borders on Morgan County).

Temperance W. Lehew died in Feb. or March 1907, a little over a year before her husband. She left a will which gave her husband (then a resident of Oakdale, Athens Co., O.) full control of her property during his lifetime, and named five children and one granddaughter as heirs: sons Jefferson O. Lehew, Samuel B. Lehew, John D. Lehew; daus. Martha Morgan and Clarinda J. Roberts; and granddaughter Bertha Wareheim. (Bertha was Wm.'s dau.)

Her two daughters, Jedidah and Mary Greer, are named as her legal heirs in the will of Belinda's father in 1870, their bequests to be placed at interest until they married or reached age 25. JEDIDAH[5] LEHEW (William[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--dau. of William Lehew and wife Mary (Pringle). Born 25 July 1830 in Morgan County, Ohio. Old letters from descendants of Wm.[4] indicate that Jedidah was left mute and partially blind as an aftermath of scarlet fever. Whether this or the 1880 Census-taker's checkmark in the column "deaf and/or dumb" is more accurate, we cannot say, but her father saw fit to make a special bequest to her in his will (1870) in addition to her regular share, while each of the others was given a horse. Presumably she would have no use for a horse, but could use an extra $120.

Jedidah Lehew is listed with her parents on the 1850,1860, and 1870 Census of Morgan Co., O. Sometime before census time in 1880 she went to live with her sister's son, Edward Robinson. Both Jedidah and her sister Rebecca Robinson (Mother of Edward), by then a widow, are listed in the household of Edw. Robinson on the 1880 Census of Blue Rock Twp., Muskingum Co., Ohio. Jedidah died (unmarried) on 16 July 1916 in Zanesville, O.

SARAH C.[5] LEHEW (William[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--dau. of Wm. Lehew and wife Mary Ann (Pringle). Born 1 July 1843 in Morgan Co., Ohio. Married 28 Dec. 1865 to John S. Irwin (1840-1913), son of John and Sarah (Sevall) Irwin. Sarah died 15 Sept. 1869 in Morgan Co., and is buried in Bloom Twp. there.

Sarah Lehew appears with her parents on the 1850 and 1860 Census of Bloom Twp., Morgan Co., Ohio. Her two children, Francena, age 3, and William, age 1, were with her father and mother at the time of the 1870 Census of Bloom Twp. Both these children are specifically mentioned in the 1870 will of their grandfather Lehew, their bequests to be placed at interest until they attained lawful age. By the time of the 1880 Census, Francena, then 13, was listed in the family group of James and Esther A. Richardson and their six children in Bloom Twp., and Wm. P. Irwin was listed with the Jesse Ryan family as an "apprentice on farm" (he was 11 yrs. old). It was this William Irwin who was living in Norwich, Ohio in 1940 when he sent the copy of the Lehew Bible records to James H. LeHue. These Bible records have furnished the names and dates for many of the William[4] Lehew family.

GEORGE W.[5] LEHEW (Moses[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Moses Lehew and wife Isabella (Clarke). Born 5 July 1823, probably in Muskingum Co., Ohio. Married on 27 Aug. 1843 in Muskingum Co. to Margaret McMillen. Died about 1857.

Both of George's parents died in 1839, and on 27 July of that year, George went into Muskingum Co. Court and chose Thomas Williams to be his guardian. His age was then stated to be "sixteen years on 5 last July." This record, plus Muskingum deed records in which George's name appears as son of Moses and therefore as heir of John, identify his family group. George W. Lehew left a will, dated 22 Dec. 1856 and probated 10 Apr. 1857 in Muskingum Co. The heirs were his wife and children, but they were not named. The will provided for payment of the mortgage held by Wm. Pringle on the farm on which George W. was resident in Salem Twp., Muskingum Co.

We have not been able to find this family on the 1850 or 1860 Census. On the 1870 Census, Margaret Lehew and five children are listed in Union Twp., Muskingum Co., Ohio, and

Margaret and the one son still at home (Austin) were still in Union Twp. in 1880. Margaret's death record (Muskingum Co., 23 Sept. 1888) indicates that she was a widow and that she died in Union Twp.--her residence Norwich. Her will names the JAMES L.^{5} LEHEW (Moses^{4}, John^{3}, Spencer^{2}, Peter^{1})--son of Moses Lehew and wife Isabella (Clarke). Born 29 Mar. 1825, probably in Muskingum Co., O. Married 15 May 1850 in Muskingum Co. to Sarah Jane Thorpe. Died 23 March 1906.

Both James' parents died in 1839, and on 29 July 1839, in Muskingum Co. Court, James, "orphan of Moses Lehew" chose Thomas Williams as his guardian. His age was stated as "fourteen on 29th last March". James Lehew and his wife Sarah are named along with other children of Moses in Muskingum Co. records of sales of land formerly belonging to John Lehew (father of Moses).

James "Lewhew" and wife Sarah J. appear on the 1850 Census of Zanesville Twp., Muskingum Co., O. James was a carpenter.

James L. Lehew served as a private in the Union Army during the Civil War. He was enrolled in the 65th Regt. Ill.Vol. on 1 Mar. 1862 at Chicago, Ill., and transferred to Co. H. same Regt. in May 1865. He applied for an invalid pension in Aug. 1879 from Colchester, McDonough Co., Ill. The pension was granted. He and Sarah evidently moved on to Kansas after that, for his 1890 report to the Bureau of Pensions was made from Osage City, Osage Co., Kans. The usual 1899 questionnaire from the Bureau of Pensions was answered from Garnett, Kans. This gave his wife's maiden name and the date and place of their marriage, which checks with what we learned at the Zanesville Courthouse. In 1906, Sarah Lehew, of Garnett (Anderson Co.), Kansas, applied for and was granted a widow's pension, James L. Lehew having died 23 March 1906. Sarah died 26 Aug. 1914. No children.

Eliza Ann Lehew came into Muskingum Co. Court on 27 July 1839 and chose Thomas Williams as guardian. She is designated in the records as heir of Moses Lehew, and her age in 1839 was stated as about 12 years. In 1853, Eliza Ann and Washington Pyle were grantors in a Muskingum Co. land transaction as heirs of Moses Lehew, selling land conveyed to John Lehew (father of Moses) in 1815.

We have not managed to find Eliza Ann Lehew on the 1850 Census. By 1860 she and her husband were in Perry Co., O., and were still there (in New Lexington) in 1870. In 1880, Geo. LEITHA JANE[5] LEHEW (Moses[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--dau. of Moses Lehew and wife Isabella (Clarke). Born 15 June 1829. Married 25 Mar. 1851 in Morgan Co., O. to Wm. J. Fouts.

On June 26, 1839, William Pringle was appointed guardian for Leitha Jane Lehew, age about 10 years. Also for Mary Ellen Lehew, age about 7, and for Benjamin F. Lehew, age about 5. They are designated in the guardianship records of Muskingum Co., O. as heirs of Moses Lehew.

Muskingum Co., Ohio real estate records for 1853 show Leitha Fouts, dau. of Moses Lehew and wife of Wm. Fouts of Morgan Co., selling property once belonging to John Lehew.

In his rendering of guardianship accounts in the period 1839-1843, Wm. Pringle included items of expense incurred for clothing his three wards, for getting a "situation" for Leitha and Mary E. (this in 1839, when they were 10 and 7 respectively), for renting the farm, etc. The lists of materials used for clothing, the prices per yard, etc. make good reading.

Nothing further on Leitha and family. We did not find them on any census listing.

MARY ELLEN[5] LEHEW (Moses[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--dau. of Moses Lehew and wife Isabella (Clarke). Born 18 Dec. 1831. Married 10 Sept. 1861 in Perry Co., Ohio to Ebenezer Pyle. This was Ebenezer's second marriage, his first wife also a Mary.

In Muskingum Co., Court records show that Wm. Pringle was appointed on 26 June 1839 as guardian of Mary Ellen Lehew, an heir of Moses Lehew. In 1848, Mary Ellen Lehew, then 16, went into Muskingum Co. Court and chose Thompson A. Robinson her guardian, Wm. Pringle and Caleb Evans to be securities.

In 1853, Mary Ellen "Leahew" of Morgan Co. was a grantor in a Muskingum Co. deed to sell property which once belonged to John Lehew. She is designated as a daughter of Moses Lehew.

Mary Lehew, age 18, is listed with the Thompson Robinson family in Bloom Twp., Morgan Co., O. on the 1850 Census (T. A. Robinson being Mary's guardian, and Rebecca, his wife, Mary's cousin). The 1860 Census of Perry Co., O. shows Mary E. Lehew, 25, schoolmistress, in the family group of Geo. W. and Eliza A. Pyle (Eliza was Mary Ellen's sister). By 1870, Mary Ellen was the wife of Ebenezer Pyle, and is listed in Perry Co. with him and family, some of the children being by his first wife. By 1880, Ebenezer and Mary Pyle had moved to Salt Creek Twp. in Muskingum Co., Ohio, and are listed there on the 1880 Census, as follows:

Pyle,	Ebenezer	58	Farmer	b. Ohio
	Mary E.	47	wife	"
	Thomas C.	29	son-physician	"
	Parker E.	27	son-teacher	"
	James B.	22	son-teacher	"

	Victoria M.	10	dau.	"
	Emet E.	5	son	"
	Elizabeth	3	dau.	"
Pyle,	John	97	grandfather	Penna.

We assume that Hezekiah was the 1st of Mary Ellen's children.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN[5] LEHEW (Moses[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1]) --son of Moses Lehew and wife Isabella (Clarke). Born in Muskingum Co., O. on 5 Sept. 1834. Both parents died in 1839, and Muskingum Co. Court appointed Wm. Pringle of Muskingum Co., as guardian for Benjamin and two of his sisters. Benjamin F. Lehew was with Wm. Pringle's family group in Muskingum Co. at 1850 Census time. He lived with his foster parents until he was 21, and remained around Zanesville until he was 24. In 1859 he married Sarah Catherine Comstock (b. Zanesville on 13 June 1836), dau. of Lewis Edw. Comstock and wife Alpha Elizabeth (Smith). Soon after they were married they moved near Ft. Wayne, Allen Co., Ind., and lived there until 1873, then moved near Trenton, Mo., where Mr. Lehew was a fruit culturist and sheepraiser, according to Birdsall & Dean's History of Grundy Co., Mo. (1881). Benjamin Franklin Lehew died on 25 Jan. 1891.

WILLIAM FLETCHER[5] LEHEW (Thomas[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Thomas Lehew and wife Catherine (Fletcher). Born in or near Zanesville, O., 1 Dec. 1821. Married (1) 28 Oct. 1841 in Muskingum Co., O. to Mary Roberts; (2) 15 Jan. 1891 at Elk Falls, Elk Co., Kans. to Abagail J. Holmes. Died 17 Nov.1892 in Baldwin, Kans.

Wm. F. Lehew and wife are listed on the 1850 Census of Union Town, Newton Twp., Muskingum Co., O., with 3 children. By 1860 census time, they were located in Henry Co., Iowa, having settled there in 1857. Western Historical Company's History of Henry Co. (1879) lists W. F. Lehew, carpenter, among Henry Co. residents in 1879, and gives a brief sketch of Wm.'s son, R. M. Lehew, then Auditor of Henry Co. Wm. F. and Mary A. Lehew were living in Mt. Pleasant, Iowa at the time of the 1880 Census.

Wm. Fletcher Lehew and two of his sons--Thomas H. and Robert Milton Lehew--served with the Union Army during the Civil War. William was mustered in as a Lieutenant with Co.G, 11th Regt. Iowa Infantry on 15 Oct. 1861. He was invalided out at Corinth, Mississippi in June of 1862. He applied for an invalid pension on 24 Mar. 1883, and his declaration gives the following information: resident of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; personal description: age 62; height 5 ft. 9½ in.; complexion, florid; hair, dark brown; eyes, gray; occupation, carpenter. He was pensioned until his death in 1892. His second wife, Abigail J. (Holmes) Lehew, a resident of Baldwin, Kansas, applied for a widow's pension in Dec., 1892.

Married John Tinnon or Tinning (appears as Tinning on 1860 and 1870 Census). Elizabeth appears with her parents on the 1850 Census of Licking Co., Ohio. On the 1860 Census she is listed with her husband in Jersey Twp., Licking Co., Ohio. No children are listed with them in 1860; in 1870, a ten-yr.-old Robert Tinning is with them in Jersey Twp. Elizabeth's brother John is listed nearby.

JOHN[5] LEHEW (Thomas[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Thomas Lehew and wife Catherine (Fletcher). Born in Zanesville, Ohio on 4 May 1825. Married (1)Sarah Rhodes (probably Sarah Catherine); (2) 1 Feb. 1855, he married Eliza Cramer, a native of Union County, Penna. John died of consumption in Licking Co. Ohio on 17 Feb. 1880. His death record states that he was a mechanic.

John moved from Muskingum Co. to Licking Co., Ohio with his parents when he was about ten years old. They went first to McKean Twp. and about six years later to Jersey Twp. John learned the carpenter trade with his brother in Muskingum Co. (probably William), staying in that county several years before returning to Jersey Twp. in Licking County. He was a member of the Christian Union Church for 38 years.

The 1850 Census shows John and Catherine "Lahue" in Jersey Twp., Licking Co., with 1 child, Thomas, age, 1. In 1860, John is listed with his 2nd wife, Eliza (still in Jersey Twp.) and 4 children--Thomas and Mary obviously of the 1st marriage; and Emiline and Joseph of the 2nd marriage. By 1870 3 more children had been born, and the 1880 Census of Jersey Twp., Licking Co. reflects the tragedy which had befallen the family shortly before. Mrs. Lehew lost her husband and two of her children from consumption in a six month period in 1879-1880.

THOMAS LAFAYETTE[5] LEHEW (Thomas[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1]) --son of Thomas Lehew and wife Catherine (Fletcher). Born on 20 Feb. 1829 in or near Zanesville, Ohio. Married (1) Angeline Pratt; (2) on 22 Mar. 1869, Rebecca Eastgate (Rebecca d. 20 Nov. 1899). This was evidently Rebecca's 2nd marriage, for children by the name of Eastgate are included with Thomas and Rebecca Lehew on the 1870 and 1880 Census. Thomas died 19 March 1898.

Thomas L. Lehew moved from Muskingum Co., Ohio to Licking Co., Ohio with his parents about 1835. He preceded his parents to Van Wert Co., Ohio sometime before the 1860 Census was taken. This is indicated in a letter which his father wrote to Joseph Lehew (brother of T.L.) from Johnstown, Licking Co., in 1861, and the 1860 Census bears this out. Thomas Lafayette Lehew and wife Angeline appear on the 1860 Census listing for Van Wert, Ohio--with 3 children. On the 1870 and 1880 Census of Van Wert, Thomas Lafayette Lehew and wife Rebecca appear with some Lehew children and some Eastgate children. Thomas was listed as a brickmaker, and in 1870 their dwelling was next to that of Isaac and Mary Ann Moore (sister of Thomas). There were five other brickmakers (in addition to Thomas) in their household in 1870, evidently boarders.

JAMES[5] LEHEW (Thomas[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Thomas Lehew and wife Catherine (Fletcher). Born 12 Jan. 1831 in Zanesville, Ohio. Married (1) in 1850 in Guernsey Co., Ohio, to Catharine M. Addy; (2) on 6 July 1897 in Linn Co. (Bertram), Iowa, to Laura M. Winn (a widow, dau. of Philander Andrews and wife Safrana Smith); (3) on 12 Dec. 1898 in Vinton, Ia. (Benton Co.) to Cynthia Hughes; (4) on 26 Aug. 1908 in Albert Lee (Freeborn Co.), Minnesota, to Mary F. Graves of Freeborn Co. James' first wife, Catharine (Addy), died in Bertram, Iowa on 24 June 1896, and was buried in Shellsburg, Iowa. She was the mother of his children. James Lehew died in the Iowa Soldiers' Home at Marshalltown, Iowa on 13 May 1912, having been admitted to the Home on 21 Jan. 1907. He was buried in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

James and Catherine Lehew were in Guernsey Co., Ohio at the time of the 1850 Census. It was probably sometime between 1855 and 1860 that they moved to Iowa. James entered the Union Army from Benton Co., Iowa in 1862. He was mustered into service as a Corporal in Co. A, 28 Regt. Iowa Volunteers. On 28 Dec. 1863 at St. Louis, he was given a discharge for disability (he was severely injured in the head while getting out logs to build a bridge, causing total deafness in one ear and general debility). His certificate of disability for discharge describes him as 31 years old, 6 ft. 6 in. tall, light complexion, blue eyes, light hair, and a sawyer by occupation. In 1876 James applied for and was granted an invalid pension which presumably was paid to him until his death in 1912. His widow, Mary (Graves) LeHew, made a declaration for widow's pension on 24 Oct. 1917 at Albert Lea, Minn.

James was listed as a farmer on the 1850 Census; he was a sawyer when he entered the Union Army in 1862, and a minister at the time of the 1880 Census (Benton Co., Ia.) and at the time of his 2nd marriage in 1897. His granddaughter, Ruth Lehew Marks, living in Littlefield, Texas in 1965, told of his also being a postmaster and owner of a general store for a time.

SARAH JANE[5] LEHEW (Thomas[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--dau. of Thomas Lehew and wife Catherine (Fletcher). Born 24 March 1833 in Zanesville, Ohio. Married 7 Aug. 1851 at Granville, Licking Co., Ohio, to Montgomery Robison (1829-1910) son of David and Mary (Montgomery) Robison of Licking Co. (This name was spelled Robinson by some members of the family.) Sarah (Lehew) Robison died 20 Sept. 1905 at Grand Terrace, Calif., and is buried in Evergreen Cemetery in Riverside, about 5 mi. from Grand Terrace. They lived near Colton, Calif. from about 1900 to 1905.

Sarah Jane "Lehue" is listed with her parents on the 1850 Census of Jersey Twp., Licking Co., Ohio. Montgomery "Robbinson" also appears (with his parents) on this census of Jersey Twp. As will be noted from the birthplace of their son Albert, they were in Brighton, Iowa by 1857.

ROBERT DAVIS[5] LEHEW (Thomas[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Thomas Lehew and wife Catherine (Fletcher). Born 2 Feb. 1835 in or near Zanesville, Ohio. Married in Delaware Co., O. to Minerva Wickizer or Minerva Wells (family lists differ). Minerva Lehew died in 1893; Robert D. Lehew died 4 Nov. 1903.

Robert "Lehue" is listed with his parents on the 1850 Census of Jersey Twp., Licking Co., Ohio. On the 1860, 1870, and 1880 Census, Robert D. and Minerva Lehew show up in Van Wert Co., Ohio. Robert D. Lehew was a blacksmith. There were four children listed with them in 1880.

Robert Davis Lehew served as a private in the Union Army in the Civil War. He was with Co. H, Regt. 139 Ohio Volunteers, from May 2, 1864 to Aug. 26, 1864, when he was mustered out with his Company at Camp Dennison, Ohio. He applied for an invalid pension on 22 Apr. 1890--stating that on 25 July 1864 in the line of duty at Point Lookout, Maryland, he contracted sunstroke, resulting in nervous prostration, disease of eyes, heart, and spine, and in deafness. At the time of applying for pension he was still partly disabled, although carrying on with his work as a blacksmith in Van Wert, Ohio. The pension was granted and paid to him until his death on 4 Nov. 1903.

We have the exact dates of birth of sons George D. and Wells W. from their father's report to the Bureau of Pensions in 1898--the only children whom he lists as living at that time. Wells is reported by his father as being a member of Co. D, 2nd OVI in the War against Spain.

MOSES SPENCER[5] LEHEW (Thomas[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Thomas Lehew and wife Catherine (Fletcher). Born 10 Mar. 1839 in Licking Co., Ohio. Married 6 Mar. 1867 in Lexington, Ohio to Adaline Dudley (b. 17 Feb.1841, Lexington, O.). Moses died 9 May 1914 at the Veterans Administration Center in Hot Springs, South Dakota. His body was sent to Stuart, Iowa for burial.

Moses Lehew is listed with his parents on the 1850 and 1860 Census of Jersey Twp., Licking Co., Ohio. At the time of the 1870 Census, he and his wife Adaline and dau. Dimmie were in Union Twp., Van Wert Co., Ohio.

Moses Spencer Lehew served in the Union Army during the Civil War. He enlisted 6 Aug., 1861 in Newark, Ohio, and was a private in Co. D, 1st Ohio Vol. Cavalry. He was discharged on 6 Oct. 1864 at Columbia, Tenn. On 6 Apr. 1865, he re-enlisted --at Lima, Ohio, in Co. C, 8th U.S.Infantry--and was discharged 6 Apr. 1866 at Washington, D. C. Moses S. Lehew applied for a pension on 1 July 1889 from Kansas. On one of his pension reports (1912) he gave his occupation as brickmaker, and his places of residence after leaving the service as follows: Ohio, 6 years; Indiana, 7 years; Kansas, 8 years; Missouri, 3 years; balance of time in Iowa. His postoffice address in 1912 was Stuart, Iowa (Guthrie Co.). His Kansas residence was at Baldwin, Kans. (at least part of it), where his brother William had moved from Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. The signature of M. S. Lehew, resident of Baldwin, Kans., appears on the 1892 pension claim of Abigail J. Lehew, widow of Wm. Fletcher Lehew.

Moses Lehew and his wife Adaline were admitted to the Iowa Soldiers Home in 1912. Mrs. Lehew died there on 3 Dec. 1912. After her death, Moses spent some time with his brother Joseph. Joseph's daughter Eleanore remembered her Uncle Moses as "tall and straight as a telephone pole, very slender and fine appearing."

JOSEPH SNYDER[5] LEHEW (Thomas[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Thomas Lehew and wife Catherine (Fletcher). Born 14 Mar.

1841 near Granville, Licking Co., Ohio. Married 1 Oct. 1866 in Van Wert, Ohio to Eleanora Pier (1846-1924), dau. of William Pier and wife Susanna (Cook). Joseph LeHew died in Denver, Colorado on 13 June 1923.

Joseph "Lehue" is listed with his parents on the 1850 Census of Jersey Twp., Licking Co., Ohio. On the 1860 Census he appears with the family of M.B.Robertson in Muskingum Co.,Ohio. And on the 1870 Census he and his young family show up in the Village of Van Wert, Van Wert Co., Ohio. Joseph was a brickmaker and an insurance agent in 1870.

Joseph LeHew enlisted in the Union Army on 7 Sept.1861--in Co. H, 15th Ohio Inftry. He re-enlisted in Tennessee and fought in every battle in which his regiment was engaged during the war, though he was wounded twice, captured once and put in Libby prison. He was mustered out of service at San Antonio, Texas, marched to the Gulf from there and was six weeks getting to his home in Ohio, where he arrived the last day of 1865. After his discharge, Joseph learned brickmaking with his brother-in-law, Isaac Moore, in Van Wert, as his war injuries prevented him from returning to his former occupation of blacksmithing. Joseph S. LeHew applied for an invalid pension on 18 Nov. 1870 and it was granted. His widow was granted a pension after his death.

Joseph LeHew took his family to Nebraska in 1872, settling on a homestead near Grafton, where they lived for three years before moving to Sutton. Mr. LeHew was appointed County Judge when Fillmore Co., Nebraska was organized, and he was always known as "Judge" LeHew. He was admitted to the Bar in 1875. He was 1st Lieutenant of the first organized and equipped militia in Nebraska, which was called the "Governor's Guard". Later, Governor Nance appointed him to draft a military code for the State, and his code was adopted by the legislature in 1881. Judge LeHew was appointed Major and Advocate General on Gov. Nance's staff, and served nine years under different governors. He was promoted to the rank of Colonel by Gov. Boyd.

Judge and Mrs. Joseph LeHew and family moved to McCook, Nebr. in 1886. At that time they could not rent a house large enough to accommodate their family, which was the largest in town at the time, so they rented two houses until a sufficiently large house could be built. It was in this new house that their many friends called to celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary on 1 Oct. 1916. Their children came from near and far to be with them on this great occasion--Calmar O. and family, and Mrs. Dora Krauter and family, from Denver; George D. from Sterling, Colo.; Orla G. and family from Albia, Iowa; Misses Lora and Nell, and John T., from Richland Center, Wis.; Mrs. Susan C. Beatty, from Lincoln, Nebr., and Miss Clara E. LeHew from McCook.

Sometime before 1921, Judge and Mrs. LeHew moved to Denver.

SPENCER[5] WILEY (James[4] Wiley, Rachel[3] Lehew Wiley, Spencer[2] Lehew, Peter[1] Lehew)-- son of James Wiley and wife Elizabeth (Williams). Born in Decatur Co., Ind., 24 Oct. 1824. Married 3 Dec. 1848 to Henrietta Hoffman (b. 1830 in Penna.), dau. of Daniel Hoffman and wife Sarah (George). Died at his home in Franklin Co., Ind. on 1 Dec. 1888. A few years after her husband's death, Mrs. Wiley built a home in Metamora, Ind. and was still living there in 1915.

Spencer Wiley's parents settled in Franklin Co., Ind. in 1829. Spencer served for three years or more in the Civil War, in Co. B, 37 Regt. Ind. Vol. Inftry.

Mr. Wiley inherited 100 acres of land from his father, and added to this until he had a fine large farm. We assume this was in Laurel Twp., Franklin Co., Ind. That is where the family lived at the time of the 1850 Census.

WILLIAM BRANSON[5] LEHEW (James H.[4], Moses[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1]) --son of James H. Lehew and wife Eve (Cliser). Born 6 May 1835 in Page Co., Va. Married (1) 27 June 1858 in Page Co. to Mary Ann Fox, dau. of John and Christena Fox. After Mary Ann's death, William was married a second time--on 19 March 1876 in Rappahannock Co., Va., to Sarah Ann Priscilla Dyke. Both Wm. B. and Sarah Ann were residents of Rappahannock Co. at the time of their marriage.

Wm. B. Lehew is listed with his parents on the 1850 Census of Page Co., Va. He was still a resident of Page Co. when he married in 1858. He enlisted in the Confederate Army from Luray, Va., serving in Co. F, 97 Va. Militia. He received a pension for this service from the State of Virginia, under the Act of 1902. In 1902, he was a resident of Rappahannock Co.

Wm. Lehew is listed in Page Co. records as one of the heirs to receive 1/7 of the estate of his father, James H. Lehew.

(340) iv. Isaac Wm. Lehew, b. 18 Feb. 1868

by 2nd wife

(341) v. Sarah Ellen Lehew, b. abt. 1879

The above list has been verified from a Bible record and from 1931 estate records in connection with the estates of William Branson Lehew and John Lionel Lehew, which give exact relationships. There may also have been a daughter named Lina --a Page Co. birth record shows one Lina Lehew born to Wm. B.

and Mary A. Lehew in March of 1866. However, there were two sets of Wm. and Mary A. Lehews in Page Co. at that time, and if we have Florence's birthdate correct (from Bible record), then Lina must have belonged to the other family, as these birthdates are only three months apart. The other William was Uncle to the subject of this sketch.

FRANCIS WESLEY[5] LEHEW (Eli[4], Moses[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Eli Lehew and wife Sally (Branson). Born 25 Feb.1837. Married 28 May 1868 at Wardensville, Hardy Co., W.Va. to Sallie Machir Hopewell, dau. of John Machir Hopewell and wife Ann Maria (Cloud). Mrs. Lehew was born 13 Feb. 1845 and died 19 Feb. 1918. Francis Wesley Lehew died 3 Dec. 1918 near Cedarville, Va.
After the death of their father, Francis Wesley and the other children moved to Front Royal with their stepmother, Mrs. Ann Van Nort Lehew. They were there at the time of the 1850 Census. Francis Lehew grew to manhood at "Mountain Home", the residence of his guardian, Capt. Samuel B. Gardner. He was listed with them at the time of the 1860 Census of Warren Co., Va. He served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War, as private and captain in Co. B, 17th Va. Infantry. He was desperately wounded at Sharpsburg (Antietam), and imprisoned at Johnson's Island on Lake Erie. After the War, Francis and his brother Jonathan first rented, then bought a farm called "Fair View", and operated it for many years. Francis died at "Fair View"--a very substantial (for the times) stone house between Nineveh and Cedarville, formerly the home of his brother-in-law, Thomas Buck McKay--now owned by Capt. Francis Lehew's granddaughter, Mrs. Frances Jett.

Married 19 Feb. 1862 to Greenberry Samuels, son of Judge Greenberry Samuels and wife Maria Gore (Coffman). Greenberry Samuels served in the Confederate Army throughout the Civil War. Kathleen Boone Samuels died about 1925.

Kathleen Boone is listed with her parents on the 1850 and 1860 Census of Front Royal, Va. She attended Powell's Finishing School in Winchester and also Woodstock Female Academy. It was from the latter school that Kathleen wrote the letters which make such a charming part of "A Civil War Marriage in Virginia, which three of her children have published. In this book, they have collected her reminiscences, her schoolgirl letters, and the letters written between Kathleen and Greenberry during their engagement and early married life while he was serving in the Confederate Army. This book furnishes quite a picture of the life and times, as well as many details on the Boones, Samuels, VanNorts, Lehews, and other Front Royal families.

WILLIAM[5] LAHUE (John[4], William[3], William[2], Peter[1])--son of John Lahue and wife Margaret. Born about 1825 in Indiana, presumably in Harrison Co. Listed with his parents on the 1850 Census of Harrison Co., Ind. The records of the administration of his estate (Harrison Co., Ind.) after his death on 5 Mar. 1865 indicate that he was not married. There was no will, and his personal property was divided among his parents and sisters and brother--named as follows: Mother and Father - John and Margaret Lahue; sisters - Anna R. Lahue and Mary E. Leslie; and brother - Jonathan J. Lahue. This puts his parents' family together very nicely for us.

Frederick Leslie was listed as a 24 yr. old woolcarder, living with his parents, on the 1850 Census of Harrison Co.

Mary E. Leslie is named as a sister of Wm. Lahue and dau. of John and Margaret Lahue in the records of the administration of Wm.'s estate in 1865 (Harrison Co.).

There was a daughter, Angie Leslie, who was one of her grandfather Lahue's heirs.

CHARLES J.[5] LAHUE (William[4], William[3], William[2], Peter[1])--son of William La hue and 1st wife, Mahala (Bevers). Born abt. 1847 in Indiana. Married (1) 23 July 1869 in Harrison Co.,Ind. to Hester McClaren. They were divorced in Corydon, Ind. in May of 1887, and Charles married (2) on 5 Mar. 1890, in Great Bend, Barton Co., Kans. - Mrs. Rhoda B. Meade (maiden name--Sampson). Charles died 30 April 1900.

Charles J. Lahue is listed on the 1850 Census of Harrison Co., Ind. as a 3 yr. old in his grandfather's household. His father seems to have been in Hendricks Co., Ind. in 1850, with a Cline family (Wm.'s mother was a Cline).

Charles J. is identified as a member of William's family by Harrison Co. estate records. When Nancy Lahue died in 1873, distributive shares were paid to Isabella Wolfe, sister of decedent, and Charles J. Lahue, brother of decedent. Note that Isabella Wolfe and Nancy Lahue are on the list of the children of Rhoda Lahue (widow of William) in the Harrison Co. estate records. Charles J. Lahue is not on the list of Rhoda's children (in fact, he was born before William m. Rhoda, pointing to a previous marriage for William.).

Charles J. Lahue served in the Union Army in the Civil War--in Co. D, 13th Regt. Ind. Cav. His war and pension records show him born abt. 1846-7, and living in Barton Co.,Kans. on 3 Apr. 1891 when he applied for an invalid pension. Rhoda, his widow, applied for widow's pension in 1900 from Kingfisher Co., Territory of Oklahoma.

Charles' pension report of 1898 shows the following six children then living (evidently the children of his 1st wife, since the age of the youngest was given as 16--b. 1882--and Charles and Hester were not divorced until 1887):

Children:

i. Josie Lahue (married Anthony Davis in 1893?)
ii. Jennie Lahue (married Chas.W.Seibert in 1899?)
iii. Andrew Lahue
iv. Anga Lahue
v. Ettie Lahue (married A. C. Hickman in 1893?)
vi. Rosie Lahue,age 16 in 1898. A Harrison Co. birth record (evidently Rosie's) shows a child (unnamed) born 20 Nov.1882 to Chas. J.Lahue and wife Hester.

EDMOND[5] LAHUE (Jackson[4], Spencer[3], William[2], Peter[1])--son of Jackson Lahue and wife Elizabeth (Boley). Born 19 Aug. 1841. Married 28 Apr. 1867 at Leavenworth, Ind. (Crawford Co.) to Eliza Angeline Houghton. Died 17 June 1913.

Edmond Lahue was one of the children of Jackson Lahue and grandchildren of Spencer and Margaret Lahue listed in settlement records of these three estates and in guardianship records for the minor children of Jackson Lahue (Harrison Co., Ind.). John Riley was appointed guardian of the minor heirs of Jackson and Spencer Lahue.

Edmond Lahue served with the Union Army in the Civil War. He enrolled 28 Aug. 1862 in Co. E, 28 Ind. Regt. (1st Cav. Vols). He was honorably discharged at Devalls Bluff, Ark. on 22 June 1865. He applied for and was granted an invalid pension in 1880 (address then: Leavenworth, Crawford Co., Ind.). When Edmond made his report to the Pension Bureau in 1899, he was living in Rockville, Ind.

Living children listed on 1899 Pension Report:

i. Francis M. Lahue, b. March 17, 1869
ii. James A. Lahue, b. 15 May 1871
iii. John A. Lahue, b. 22 Dec. 1874 cont. p.112

iv. Edmond E. Lahue, b. 7 Jan. 1879
v. Mary A. Lahue, b. 9 Feb. 1880
vi. Ardella May Lahue, b. 24 May 1889

Edmond Lahue was dropped from the pension rolls Aug.1913 because of his death on 17 June 1913. His son Ernest, then age 34, made application for reimbursement for medical and burial expenses. Ernest (Edmond E.?) was then living in Parke Co., Ind., near Rosedale. Ernest stated that his mother had been dead about eight years, and that the pensioner (his father) had made his home with son Ernest during his last illness and had been cared for by himself and wife. Pensioner was buried at Mt. Olivet near Catlin, Ind.

GEORGE[5] LAHUE (Jackson[4], Spencer[3], Wm.[2], Peter[1])--son of Jackson Lahue and wife Elizabeth (Boley). Born 30 Dec. 1844 in Harrison Co., Ind. Married 3 Nov. 1867 in Crawford Co., Ind., to Rebecca Ellen McClure. George died 31 July 1920, probably in or near Leavenworth, Ind., his address at enlistment in the Union Army, and also when he reported to the Bureau of Pensions in 1915.

Listed among the children of Jackson Lahue and grandchildren of Spencer and Margaret Lahue in connection with the settlement of these three estates and the appointment of a guardian for Jackson's minor children (Harrison Co., Ind.)

Enlisted in the Union Army at Camp Noble in Floyd Co., Ind. in 1863 (Co. H, 13 Regt. Ind. Cavalry), and served until May 1965. George applied for an invalid pension in 1869, claiming that typhoid fever and pneumonia suffered during the service had made him a permanent invalid. Pension granted.

George's 1915 report to the Bureau of Pensions shows George and wife Rebecca living together, and lists their

Isaac Lahue, son of Jackson and Elizabeth, served in the Union Army during the Civil War. He was enrolled 6 Feb. 1865 at Jeffersonville, Indiana, and was mustered out with the Co. (Co. F - 144 Regt. Ind. Inftry. Vol.) on 5 Aug. 1865. He died 28 Feb. 1868, leaving neither widow nor child. His mother's 1883 application for pension as widowed mother states that his death was due to effects of fever contracted while in service and from consumption induced by hardships of army life. The pension was granted to her.

James Lahue and his wife were living in Bluefield, W.Va. in 1893 when his wife inherited property from her father. He was a resident of Bluefield in 1925 when Wythe Co. listed him among the heirs-at-law of his mother, and in 1930 when he was named an heir-at-law of his brother George F. LaHue of Wytheville. He was a resident of Bluefield in 1942 when he was named an heir-at-law of Miss Angela LaHue, his sister.

Married 24 June 1896 in Wythe Co. to Ida Patterson, dau. of Chas. E. Patterson and wife Eliza (Halsey). He was a resident of Wytheville before his death on 25 Jan. 1930. George LaHue was one of the heirs named in his father's will of 1901. He did not inherit under his mother's will of 1924, but was listed in the records of the heirs-at-law, his residence Wytheville. Since the heirs-at-law of George himself include only two sisters and one brother--neither wife nor children--it is assumed that there were no children, and that George was divorced from his wife. Mrs. Ida LaHue's will was probated in 1946 in Wythe Co., and the list of heirs-at-law for her includes only her relatives.

She seems to have been a resident of Wytheville most of her life. Angela was named as heir by her father in 1902, her mother in 1925, and by her sister Lucy A. in her 1914 will (probated 1937, at which time Angela was a Wytheville resident--also Lucy's executrix). She died unmarried on 15 April 1937. Lucy Agnes LaHue was a resident of Wytheville, Va. in 1925 when her mother's will was entered for probate, and in 1930, when her name appeared on the list of heirs-at-law of her brother George. Lucy's own will, dated 5 Feb. 1914, divided her property equally between her two sisters, Martha Angela LaHue and Gay Louise LaHue. However, her sister Gay Louise died at least 12 years before Lucy. The list of heirs-at-law of her mother which the court required did not include a daughter Gay Louise. We found nothing in Wythe Co. records to indicate that Gay was married. Her sister Lucy's will (1914) referred to her as Gay Louise LaHue.

JOSEPH THOMAS[5] LAHUE (Duncan[4], Cornelius[3], Wm.[2], Peter[1]) --son of Duncan Lahue and wife Nancy Ellen (Stevens). Born near Edinburg, Ill. abt. 1861. Listed with his parents on the 1870 and 1880 Census of Christian Co., Ill. Married (1) on 19 Dec. 1883 in Sangamon Co., Ill. to Althea Coe of Sangamon Co.; Thomas, as he is called in the marriage record, was a resident of Christian Co. in 1883; (2) abt. 1900 in Grundy Center, Iowa, he married Lillian Josephine Schultz. Joseph Thomas LaHue died 2 Sept. 1925 in Edinburg, Ill. He was buried at Grove City, Ill.

Earl Theodore LaHue, son of Joseph Thomas by the second marriage, says his father worked for the Government after the Spanish-American War, in which he was wounded. Joseph Thomas LaHue met and married his second wife in Grundy Center, Iowa. In the course of his travels for the U. S. Land Dept., he covered Iowa, Minnesota, N. Dakota, S. Dakota, Missouri, and then Arkansas. In Arkansas he resigned his government job and homesteaded and bought land near Waldron, Ark. Then in 1912 he traded for property in Claremore, Okla. In 1921 Joseph Thomas LaHue sold out in Okla. and moved back to Edinburg, Ill. to be with his mother, who was 83 years old and alone. He died there in 1925 and was buried beside his mother and father in Grove City Cemetery.

WILLIAM HAMILTON[5] LEHEW (Abner[4], John[3], Francis[2], Peter[1]) --son of Abner Lehew and wife Sarah (Forsythe). Born about 1825 or 1826 in what is now Warren Co., Va. Married 30 Nov. 1854 in Shenandoah Co., Va. to Emily Frances Balthis, dau. of Leonard E. and Mary Balthis.

Wm. H. Lehew was listed as a blacksmith on the 1850 Census of Warren Co., Va. At the time of the registration of the births of his daughters Mary Virginia and Ella in 1855 and 1858, he was a merchant (in Strasburg). Martin LeHew, a descendant, says that between 1880 and 1896, Wm. H. Lehew entered into a partnership with James Hickerson to manufacture pottery in Strasburg. The company traded under the name of Wm. H. Lehew and Co. Neither of the men was a potter, and after a time Hickerson retired from the company and established another pottery. Later Wm. H. sold out to Geo.Miller.

One William Lehew, presumed to have been Wm. Hamilton Lehew of this sketch, served in the Confederate Army as 2nd Lieut., Co. B, O'Ferrall's Batt'n, Va. Cavalry.

JACKSON[5] LEHEW (Abner[4], John[3], Francis[2], Peter[1])--son of Abner Lehew and wife Sarah (Forsythe). Born about 1831 in Virginia. His full name, according to some descendants, was Andrew Jackson Lehew. Married (1) 18 Mar. 1857 in Shenandoah Co., Va. to Rebecca Moreland; (2) 11 Nov. 1886 in Page Co., Va. to Susan A. Bixler? This last record showed no marriage return, but since records indicate that Jackson's daughter Virgie (see among his children) was a half-sister to the other children, there must have been two marriages. Listed with his parents on 1850 Census of Warren Co., Va.

One Jackson "Lahue", presumed to be the same Jackson, served in the Confederate Army in the Civil War. He enlisted 5 July 1861 at Woodstock, Va., as a private in Co. E, 1 Reg't, 7 Brig., Va. Militia.

Jackson Lehew's occupation was listed as "miner" in the Page Co. record of his son James H. Lehew's birth in 1871.

ABRAHAM W.[5] LEHEW (John[4], Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--son of John Lehew and wife Acha (or Achsa?) (Cotton). Born 23 Oct. 1830, probably either in Greene Co., Penna. or in the nearby Virginia (now W.Va.) Panhandle. Married 9 May 1853 to Naomi Susannah Hanes (b. 1826, Proctor, W.Va.; d. 1906 in Burlington, Iowa), dau. of Abraham Hanes and wife Susannah (Martin). The record of this marriage is in the Abraham Hanes Bible. Abraham W. Lehew died in a train accident at or near San Lucas, Calif. on 3 Aug. 1896. His daughter Phebe witnessed this terrible accident, which happened after he had put her and her children on the train to return to Iowa, and had then tried to get off the train after it had started moving. He was buried in San Lucas.

Abraham W. Lehew is listed with his parents on the 1850 Census of Wetzel Co., Va. (now W.Va.) as a farmer. By 1854 Abraham and Naomi, his wife, were in Henderson Co., Ill. His brother William may have accompanied them, since he was also in Henderson Co. about this time. The 1860 Census of Henderson Co. shows Abraham and Naomi Lehew in Oquawka with three children, Abraham's occupation farming.

Abraham Lehew's name (spelled Lehew) appears in real estate records in Henderson Co. from 1854 to 1869. County histories indicate that he was a trustee of the Town of Oquawka in 1865, 1866, and 1867. Items from the Oquawka Spectator indicate that deer hunting was pretty good around Oquawka in the 1860's, and that Abe Lehew (printed thus in newspaper) brought in his share with his shotgun!

By 1870 Census time, Abraham was in Boonville, Cooper Co., Mo., his occupation carpenter. We know from relatives that he also worked as a cooper at times. His wife and six children were still in Oquawka in 1870, and were also there in 1880. We have not been able to find Abraham on any 1880 Census, but we know from Wetzel Co., W.Va. records that he was in Sacramento, Calif. in 1883 when his father's estate was being settled in Wetzel Co. We have a picture of him which was taken in a Sacramento studio, most likely around this time. In 1889, Abraham W. Lehew was listed in a Monterey Co. (Calif.) Directory as a farmer. His dau. Phebe and family visited him in San Lucas and lived in the area for a time in the 1890's. The Monterey Great Register of Voters for 1896 lists him as a resident of San Lucas (this was in May, 1896, just before he was killed). The registration record includes a personal description. Abraham W. Lehew was a farmer, age 65, 5'10" tall, light complexion, blue eyes, gray hair, with a scar at the corner of his right eye.

Children:

(384) i. John Abraham LeHew, b. 12 July 1855 or 1856
(385) ii. Susan Acha LeHew, b. 6 Sept. 1857
(386) iii. Mary E. LeHew, b. 4 March 1859
(387) iv. Phebe Emeline LeHew, b. 20 Jan. 1861
(388) v. Charles Rutledge LeHew, b. 21 June 1863
(389) vi. William Ellery LeHew, b. 5 Feb. 1865

When A. W. Lehew's heirs sold properties in Henderson Co., Ill. in 1899, the heirs-at-law were recorded as follows: Naomi S. LeHew, widow of Abraham W.--she signed before Henderson Co. Deputy Clerk; John A. LeHew and Laura A., his wife, of Peoria, Ill.; Susie E. Wheeler and C. M. Wheeler, her husband, of McDonough Co., Ill.; Phebe E. Wheeler and J. M. Wheeler, her husband, of the Territory of Oklahoma, Garfield Co.; Charles R. LeHew and Melvina, his wife, of Des Moines Co., Ia.; Wm. E. LeHew and Mattie C., his wife, also of Des Moines Co.; and Nellie McCullough and Charles McCullough, her husband.

WILLIAM[5] LEHEW (John[4], Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--son of John Lehew and wife Acha (or Achsa?) (Cotton). Born about 1833 in Va. (probably in what is now W.Va.Panhandle). Married 20 Apr. 1854 in Henderson Co., Ill. to Dorcas Emiline Michael (b. in Tenn.).

William is listed with his parents on the 1850 Census of Wetzel Co., Va. (now W.Va.). It is possible that William and his brother Abraham traveled together from Wetzel Co., Va. to Henderson Co., Ill. in 1853 or 1854. We have not been able to learn anything about William after his marriage, except that he had a daughter Mary. Evidently he was either dead or divorced before 8 June 1863, for on that date Mrs. Dorcas Emiline Lehew married Mr. John McGlarron (in Henderson Co., Ill.). When Dorcas died in Henderson Co. in 1888, her name was recorded as Dorcas E. Lehew. It was William's daughter Mary who inherited his share of his father's property in 1883.

JOHN COTTON[5] LEHEW (John[4], Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--son of John Lehew and wife Acha (or Achsa?) (Cotton). His death certificate indicates he was born 2 January 1937 in Va. (now W.Va.). However, his age as given on 1850, 1860, and 1870 Census lists indicates that he was born about 1835. Married (1) 15 Dec. 1857 in Ohio Co., Va. (now W.Va.) to Catharine Butler, dau. of Roley and Anna Butler. Catharine died on 11 Feb. 1898 at Proctor, W. Va. John married (2nd) Tabitha Douglass, dau. of Samuel Douglass. John died 9 April 1910 in East Liverpool, Ohio, and is buried in Riverview Cemetery.

John C. Lehew is listed with his parents on the 1850 Census of Wetzel Co., Va. (now W.Va.). In 1860, J.C."Layhue" and Catherine and baby Charles were enumerated next to John's father and mother in Wetzel Co. And 1870 Census time found them in Oquawka (Henderson Co.), Ill., where it will be remembered that John's brothers Abraham and William had gone about 1854. In 1934, John's son Charles wrote an interesting account of their trip to Illinois which appeared in the Wheeling paper.

See under Charles (391) for more on this. They lived in Oquawka for two years, then returned to W. Va. because Catharine missed her old home so much.

During the Civil War, John Cotton Lehew served as a private in the Union Army--Co. E, 7 Regt. W.Va. Inf. He was enrolled in Sept. 1864 at Proctor, W.Va. and mustered out in June 1865 at Munson's Hill, Virginia. His pension record indicates that he applied for a pension in 1890 from Kansas. His marriage to Tabitha Douglass was performed in Harrison Co., W.Va., and his 1906 and 1907 reports to the Bureau of Pensions were made from East Liverpool, Ohio. He was a shoemaker in 1907. John's widow, Tabitha, applied for a widow's pension after his death in 1910.

ELIZA[5] LEHEW (John[4], Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--dau. of John Lehew and wife Acha (or Achsa?)(Cotton). Eliza's tombstone gives her birthdate as 29 July 1839--her death date as 7 Jan. 1909. She is buried in Wayman Cemetery on Proctor Ridge, near Proctor, W.Va., near her father, mother, and grandfather. Eliza was married 17 Dec. 1856 in Wetzel Co., Va. (now W.Va.) to Abraham Hoyt, of Marshall Co., Va., son of Nicholas and Katharine Hoyt. The record of their marriage shows Eliza's residence as Wetzel Co., her birthplace Marshall Co., and her age 18. Eliza died at New Martinsville,W.Va. of cancer.

Eliza Lehew is listed with her parents on the 1850 Census of Wetzel Co. We found Abraham and Eliza Hoyt and family on the 1880 Census, also in Wetzel Co., with five of their children. After Eliza's father death in 1883, Abraham and Eliza bought out the others' shares in John's farm on Proctor Ridge, and it became known as the Hoyt farm.

Children (from 1880 Census):

(392) i. William Hoyt, b. abt. 1862
(393) ii. Emma Hoyt, b. 1 Nov. 1864
iii. Abraham Hoyt, b. abt. 1865; m. Emma Rose Cozart; d. 22 Dec. 1938 (394) iv. Eliza Hoyt, b. abt. 1867
v. James Hoyt, b. abt. 1868; m. Lizzie Bear

Charles H. Lehew (Eliza's nephew) lists one more child--Mary, who married John Roper or Raper. She may have been the oldest child--perhaps married before 1880 Census time.

Married Rebecca Nice, dau. of Caleb and Nancy Nice of Marshall Co., W.Va. We do not know when Dudley died. Rebecca had died by April 1911 when an administrator was appointed to handle her estate.

Dudley Lehew is listed with his parents on the 1850 and 1860 Census of Wetzel Co., Va. On the 1870 and 1880 Census, he and Rebecca are listed in Proctor District, Wetzel Co.,W.Va. near Dudley's father and some of the other members of his family.

JEREMIAH[5] LEHEW (John[4], Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--son of John Lehew and wife Acha (or Achsa?)(Cotton). Born abt. 1847 in what is now Wetzel Co., W.Va. Married Ruey Ann Smith, dau.

of Isaac and S. A. Smith. It would seem to be this Jerry Lehew whose death record in Ohio Co., W. Va. says he died from a fall from an apple tree at Chester, W.Va. on 20 Sept. 1904, at the age of 57.

Jeremiah is listed with his parents on the 1850 and 1860 Census of Wetzel Co. He and Ruey and family are listed in Proctor Dist., Wetzel Co. on the 1870 and 1880 Census, near other members of his family. He seems to have moved to Wheeling by 1890--at least some of his family did.

In a letter written by Jerry Lehew to his brother A. W. Lehew on 20 Feb. 1883 (shortly after their father's death), Jerry says he is going to start a grocery and will also keep coffins to sell. He expresses the hope that his brother will return to Proctor.

DAVID MARION[5] LEHEW (David[4], Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--son of David Lehew and wife Lydia (Kirby). Born abt. 1849, probably in what is now Marshall Co., W.Va. Married Rebecca A. Taylor. In 1964, David's son Sam indicated that his father had died about 75 years before that--when Sam was 5 mo. old. Died about 1889?

David Marion Lehew is listed with his parents on the 1850 and 1860 Census of Marshall Co., Va. (now W.Va.). In 1880 at Census time, David and Rebecca A. "Lahew" were living quite close to David, Sr. and others who seem to be members of the same family in Ellsworth District, Tyler Co., W. Va.

Sam Lehew, David Marion's son, said his father was a violinist, and that he also made violins.

Tyler Co., W.Va. death records indicate that David and Rebecca Lehew lost three of their children from diphtheria in 1876 and 1878. The family evidently moved to Wetzel Co. for a time after 1880, since the births of two of the children are registered in Wetzel Co. (1882 and 1884).

Children:

i. E.F.Lehew (girl), b. abt. 1870; d. at Sistersville, W.Va. of diphtheria, 4 Nov. 1876
ii. James W.F.M.Lehew, b. abt. 1872; d. of diphtheria in Tyler Co. 17 Nov. 1876
iii. Caleb Lehew, b. abt. 1877; d. 6 Oct. 1878 of " in Tyler Co.
iv. D. H. Lehew (Harvey), b. 9 Apr. 1882 in Wetzel Co. Possibly this is the David Lehew who d. of consumption in Tyler Co. on 26 May 1905,age 24?
(408) v. John Michael Morgan Lehew, b. 22 Oct. 1884 in Wetzel Co.
vi. Sam Lehew, b. abt. 1889? Living near Sistersville, W.Va. in the 1960's

After David Marion Lehew's death, Rebecca remarried, and had at least two more children, so that the above Lehew children had step-brothers, but since they were not Lehews, they are not listed here.

PETER AUBRA[5] LEHEW (William[4], Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--son of William Lehew and wife Mary (Riggs). Born 9 Nov. 1834 near Wheeling, Va. (now W.Va.). Married on 13 Oct. 1870 at Mason City, W.Va. to Sarah Elizabeth Heslop, dau. of Robt. Greenwood Heslop and wife Susan (Dixon). Sarah Elizabeth was born in 1851 on Staten Island, N.Y. Peter Aubra Lehew died 3 Sept.1917 in Mason Co., W.Va. The death record says he was a carpenter. His wife d. 4 Nov. 1933 in Mason City.

Peter Lehew is listed with his father on the 1850 Census of Mason Co. (now W.Va.). He seems to have been the only Lehew in Mason Co. at the time of the 1870 Census. In 1880, Peter A. "Layhugh", carpenter, and wife and three children, were listed in Mason City on Pomeroy Street.

Peter's daughter, Miss Sue Lehew of Mason City, told us in 1960 that her father was Captain of an Ohio River boat at one time. She had pleasant memories of special privileges accorded her sister and herself on the boat because they were the Captain's daughters.

FRANCIS[5] LEHEW (William[4], Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--son of William Lehew and wife Mary (Riggs). He was called Francis, Franklin, and Frank. Born 31 May 1836 at Woodland, Va. (now W.Va.). Married (1) 17 Dec. 1857 in Marshall Co., Va.(W.Va.) to his cousin Nancy Jane Trader, dau. of Arthur Trader and wife Catherine (Lehew). Franklin was a resident of Wetzel Co., Va. in 1857, and a farmer. Francis (or Franklin) divorced Nancy after the Civil War, and in 1870, in Louisville, Ky., he married (2) Mary Jane Troxel, widow of Grandville Troxel. Mary Jane's maiden name was Carter. Francis Lehew died 2 August 1915 in LaGrange, Mo., and was buried there.

Franklin Lehew is listed with his father on the 1850 Census of Mason Co., Va. (now W.Va.).

Francis Lehew served in the Union Army during the Civil War. He enlisted at Ravenswood, Va. on 24 July 1862, in Co.I, 11th Regt. W. Va. Vol. Inf. He was honorably discharged on 19 June 1865. In Oct. of 1866, Francis, then a resident of Wood Co., W. Va., applied for an invalid pension under the Act of June 1866, claiming almost total loss of sight which began with a severe cold while he was in the service. He stated that since leaving the service he had resided in Harris Twp., Wood Co., W.Va., P.O. address Belleville. The pension was granted. Much of the information we have about Francis is from his pension record. His 1898 and 1915 reports to the Bureau of Pensions--both from LaGrange, Lewis Co., Mo.--give information about both marriages, and supply the names of his children--all by his first wife. On these reports, the name appears both as "Lehew" and as "LeHew". Martha, his widow, applied for a widow's pension in 1915.

LOUISA JANE[5] LEHEW (William[4], Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--dau. of William Lehew and wife Mary (Riggs). Born about 1841 in Wetzel Co. (now W.Va.). Married 16 April 1857 in Marshall Co. (now W.Va.) to William Jackson Rine, son of George and Hannah Rine. Both were residents of Marshall Co. at the time of their marriage. Louisa's death can probably be dated between 1861 when her third child was born, and Dec. 1864, when Wm. J. Rine remarried (assuming it was death which terminated the marriage).

Children:

i. Arminta Rine, b. 1 Apr. 1858; d. 21 July 1879
ii. Nathan Rine, b. 31 July 1859; living with his father and stepmother near Loman, Wetzel Co., W.Va. at the time his father was written up by Hardesty (1883).

DAVID[5] LEHEW (William[4], Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--son of William Lehew and wife Mary (Riggs)? (It is just possible that David might have been a child of Wm.'s second marriage.) Born about 1844-45. Married Virginia Bass. Died 20 Jan. 1933 in Salisbury Twp., Meigs Co., Ohio. Buried in Rocksprings Cemetery in Meigs Co. David's death record indicates that he was a saltmaker.

David Lehew is listed in the family of William Lehew on the 1850 Census of Mason Co., Va. (now W. Va.). He is listed with his own family (six children) on the 1880 Census. We were told by one of his nephews that David raised a family of fourteen children and outlived them all. We have the names of only seven of these children. One of David's grandsons told us that David lived in Hartford, W.Va. for a time, moving to Pomeroy, Ohio after he lost everything in the 1884 flood.

WILFORD MARION[5] LEHEW (Peter[4], Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--son of Peter Lehew and first wife, Elizabeth (Reed). Born

2 April 1847 or 1848, in what is now Marshall Co., W. Va. Married (1) on 31 Oct. 1866 in Adams Co., Ill. to Susan M. Ramey. Susan died 19 Jan. 1897, and was buried at Malta Bend, Mo. Wilford was married (2) on 26 Dec. 1898 in Clinton, Henry Co., Mo. to Mrs. Ellen J. Hinson, widow of Austin M.Hinson. Wilford Marion Lehew was a resident of Malta Bend, Mo. at the time of this marriage. Wilford died 10 Feb. 1915 at Brownington, Henry Co., Mo. He was buried in Maplewood Cemetery in Brownington.

Wilford M. Lehew is listed with his parents on the 1850 Census of Marshall Co., Va. (now W.Va.), as a one-year-old. He is also listed with his parents in 1860--this time in Knox Co., Mo. At the time of the 1870 Census, he and Susan and their two children were in Otterville, Palestine Twp., Cooper Co., Mo. And in 1880, the censustaker found them in Saline Co., Mo.--in Grand Pass Twp.--their family numbering six children. Real estate records indicate that Wilford was still a resident of Saline Co. in 1887.

Wilford Marion Lehew was enrolled in the Union Army at Quincy, Ill. on 3 Feb. 1865. He served as a private in Co.H, 148 Regt. Ill. Inf., and was honorably discharged on 5 July 1865 at Nashville, Tenn. Wilford applied for an invalid pension on 27 Aug. 1890 from Missouri. It was granted. The report required of all pensioners in 1898 gives us his living children's birthdates. Another report was required in 1912, at which time he was a resident of Brownington, Mo., age 65, and said he had resided from 1865 to 1895 in Saline Co.,Mo., and since 1895 in Henry Co., Mo. After Wilford's death in 1915, Ellen J., his widow, applied for and was granted a widow's pension. She was dropped from the pension roll because of death on 6 Sept. 1928. Affidavits in connection with her pension application were given by Joe McVey and Mrs. M. A. Hix.

Children - by 1st wife: (dates from pension report)

i. Lucy Alice LeHew, b. 10 March 1868; m. 25 Oct. 1886 in Saline Co., Mo. to U. G. Needles; buried in Bloomington, Ill.?

(418) ii. Peter Abraham LeHew, b. 7 June 1871 (this should be 1870--he is on 1870 Census!)

iii. James Marion LeHew, b. 11 Nov. 1873; no children

iv. Cora E. LeHew, b. 23 Mar. 1875; m. George Parker

(419) v. Mollie E. LeHew, b. 13 Oct. 1878

(420) vi. Wilford Edward LeHew, b. 23 Feb. 1880

(421) vii. John Perry LeHew, b. 23 June 1885

By 2nd wife:

viii. Bruce LeHew, who died at age 2

Saline Co., Mo., birth records indicate that there may have been two more children by Wilford's first wife, since the Doctor's registration of the June 1885 birth is labeled "9th child of mother". If this is correct, two must have died.

Married 5 Apr. 1894 in Miller Co., Mo. to Malinda Bunch (b. 26 Feb.1875 - d. 13 Nov. 1938). William and his bride were both residents of Aurora Springs, Mo. at the time of their marriage. William Robert Lehew died in a Kansas City hospital on 19 Nov. 1943. Buried in Hiawatha, Kansas.

Listed as a son in the family of Peter and Catherine Lehew on the 1880 Census of Henry Co., Mo. William Robert was still a small boy when his mother died--in Henry Co. Sometime after his father's third marriage, the family moved to the area around Eldon, Missouri.

William's children were all born near Eldon, Mo. When Peter (William's father) died in late 1898 or early 1899, Peter's two youngest children, then orphans, lived with their half-brother William and his family in Bagnall, Mo. for a while. Later James Daniel (Peter's youngest son) and William had farms near each other in this general area. It was sometime after this that William Robert Lehew and family moved to Falls City, Nebraska.

JAMES DANIEL[5] LEHEW (Peter[4], Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--son of Peter Lehew and third wife, Nettie (Edmonson). Born about 1890? near Eldon, Mo. Married Helena Lillie Sidebottom, dau. of Calvin Sidebottom and wife Sarah (Bunch). Living in Eldon, Missouri in 1967.

The exact date of James Daniel Lehew's birth is not known to him. His mother met her death by accidental drowning when he was very young, and his father also died before James was old enough to keep track of his own age. James and his sister Barbra went to live with their half-brother Wm. Robert Lehew after their father died.

Although James Daniel Lehew (now called "Jim") now lives in the town of Eldon, he owns a farm nearby where he lived and farmed up to the summer of 1965. He has always been fond of and good at hunting and trapping--and tells of times before so many people "invaded" the area, when trappers could support themselves on the sale of skins.

James Daniel Lehew served in World War I.

*Compressed because of space limitations

James M. Smith's daughter, Harriet Bell (Smith) Fritz, told us that her father was the twelfth of thirteen children, and her letters (1941) indicate that he was alive then at the age of 93. Mrs. Fritz did not name the other twelve children. Her letters also tell us that Caroline (Lackey), James' wife, was also a grandchild of Leitha Lehew (by Leitha's second marriage). These letters have contributed a great deal to our knowledge of this branch of Lehews.

Children:

i. Harriet Bell Smith, b. 13 Sept. 1881, Viroqua,Wis.; m. 21 Sept. 1904 to Charles A. Fritz; lived in Zanesville, Ohio in 1947 probably also:

ii. Bernard Smith, res. of Evansville, Ind. in 1934

iii. Dr. R. L. Smith, res. of Milwaukee, Wis. in 1934

The last two were named as nephews (and Harriet Fritz as niece) in next of kin listed for Harriet Lackey in Morgan Co., Ohio in 1934.

HARRIET[6] LACKEY (William[5] Lackey, Leitha[4] Lehew Offner Lackey, John[3] Lehew, Spencer[2], Peter[1])--daughter of William Lackey and wife Harriet Caroline (Bell). Born about 1846. Did not marry. Died 18 March 1934. Harriet Lackey left a will which is on record in Morgan Co., Ohio. The application for probate says Harriet was a resident of McConnelsville, Morgan Co., Ohio, and that she died 18 March 1934. She names as heirs her sisters Emma Lackey and Bell Lackey. The probate records list the following as her next of kin: Bell G. Lackey, sister, living at Orient, Ohio; Emma Lackey, sister, living at McConnelsville, Ohio; Harriet Fritz, niece, living at Zanesville, Ohio; Harriet Newman, niece, living at Evansville, Ind.; Bernard Smith, nephew, living at Evansville, Ind.; Dr. R. L. Smith, nephew, living at Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Harriet Lackey is listed with her parents on the 1860, 1870, and 1880 Census of Morgan Co., Ohio. In 1880, they were in McConnelsville, and Harriet was working in a bakery.

SARAH E.[6] LEHEW (Spencer[5] Lehew, Spencer[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--daughter of Spencer Lehew and wife Rose Agness (Christie). Born on 17 Dec. 1853. Married 17 June 1886 in Wheeling (Ohio Co.), W. Va., to George H. Harper. Birthplace and residence of both bride and groom is recorded as Zanesville Ohio.

On 13 Sept. 1865, the Muskingum Co., Court appointed Rose A. Lehew as guardian of Sarah E. Lehew, minor child of Spencer Lehew, deceased. The record shows Sarah's age as 11 on 17th of Dec. 1864. George Christie and Wm. Fitz were securities for this guardianship.

Rose A. Lehew remarried in 1867 (to Lewis Harper). Sarah Lehew is listed in the family group of Lewis and Rose Harper on the 1870 and 1880 Census (she was with Spencer and Rose Le-hew on the 1860 Census). Sarah was listed as a seamstress in Zanesville, Ohio at the time of the 1880 Census.

DAVID S.[6] LEHEW (Spencer[5] Lehew, Spencer[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Spencer Lehew and wife Rose Agness (Christie). Born 28 April 1857 in Washington Twp., Muskingum Co., Ohio. Married (1) on 14 March 1885 in Muskingum Co. to Elizabeth Thompson. In 1887 one David Lehew and wife Elizabeth appear as grantors in Muskingum Co. records, selling to Ebenezer Harper, which name helps identify this David as son of Spencer and Rose Lehew (Rose married Lewis Harper after Spencer's death). Among Muskingum County marriages is recorded a second (so designated) marriage for David S. Lehew, son of Spencer Lehew and Rose Christie. This marriage was on 22 April 1906--to Ida M. Nichols, dau. of Andrew Perone. David was 49, his birthplace and 1906 residence, Washington Twp., Muskingum Co., Ohio. Ida had been married once before --Nichols was her married name. David died in Zanesville (we do not have the date).

On 13 Sept. 1865, Rose A. Lehew was appointed guardian of David S. Lehew by the Muskingum County Court, George Christie and William Fitz to be securities. David's age was recorded as eight years on the 28th day of April 1865, thus dating his birth as 28 April 1857.

David S. Lehew is listed with his parents on the 1860 Census, Washington Twp., Muskingum Co., Ohio, and with his mother and step-father on the 1870 and 1880 Census of Muskingum County.

No children.

GEORGE MONTGOMERY[6] LEHEW (Spencer[5] Lehew, Spencer[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Spencer Lehew and wife Rose Agness (Christie). Born 4 Aug. 1860 in Washington Twp., Muskingum Co., Ohio. Married (1) in Licking Co., Ohio, to Lucy Reeder; Lucy died in 1909. Married (2) on 7 Oct. 1911 in Muskingum Co., Ohio, to Bertha May LaMay, a divorcee, dau. of T. A. Williamson and wife Isabel (Ruder). The record designates this marriage as a second marriage, and shows George's parents as Spencer Lehew and Rose A. (Christie), and George's occupation as coal operator. Both he and Bertha were residents of Zanesville at the time of their marriage. George M. Lehew died in 1933.

On 13 Sept. 1865, Rose A. Lehew was appointed guardian of George M. Lehew, minor child of Spencer Lehew, deceased. His age is shown on the guardianship record (Muskingum Co.) as 5 years on the 4th day of August 1865. George Christie and Wm. Fitz were securities for the guardianship.

George Lehew is listed with his mother and step-father (Lewis Harper) on the 1870 and 1880 Census of Muskingum Co., Ohio.

SAMUEL[6] LEHEW (John[5], William[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of John Lehew and wife Eliza (Smith). Born about 1841 in Muskingum Co., Ohio. Married 1 May 1860 in Perry Co., Ohio, to Marinda King. Died 26 April 1866 as a result of disease contracted while serving in the Union Army.

Listed with his parents on the 1850 Census of Highland Twp., Muskingum Co., Ohio. His father died in 1858, and Samuel and his wife, Marinda, are listed with Samuel's mother on the 1860 Census of New Lexington, Perry Co., Ohio. Samuel's wife and daughter Mary, age 5, are listed with the family of Edward and Alice Hillis on the 1870 Census of New Lexington. Marinda (or Marelender) was sewing for the Hillis family. M. A. "Layhue" was also with the Hillis family at the time of the 1880

Census. Her daughter Mary seems to be the Mary Lehew listed nearby at St. Aloysius Academy, as a student. Marelender Lehew married Edward Hillis on 17 Sept. 1893.

Samuel Lehew volunteered for service in the Union Army at New Lexington (Perry Co.), Ohio, on 25 Sept. 1861. He served as a private in Co. D, 30th Regt. Ohio Vol., and was honorably discharged at Louisville, Ky. on 5 Dec. 1863 because of disability. His application for pension (dated Oct. 1864) states that while in service he contracted permanent consumption, and had been unable to earn a living as a result of this. The pension was granted, and was paid to his wife after his death. His pension file contains an application dated 4 Oct. 1916 by Marelender A. Hillis, age 75, resident of Columbus, O., stating that she was formerly the widow of Samuel Lehew, that she had remained his lawful wife to the date of his death, and had formerly been pensioned on account of his death; that her pension or right to pension had terminated because of her marriage to Edward Hillis in 1893. That said husband died 27 Dec. 1915, for which reason she was asking to have her name placed on the pension roll under the provisions of the Act of Sept. 8, 1916. This was done, and she was paid $30 a month until her death on 17 March 1924.

DAVID[6] LEHEW (John[5], William[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1]) --son of John Lehew and wife Eliza (Smith). Born in Muskingum Co., Ohio 11 March 1846 (date calculated from death record--1850 and 1860 Census indicate he was born in 1843 or 1844). Married 5 March 1868 in Perry Co., Ohio, to Kate Fickel. Died 11 Sept. 1871 at New Lexington, Ohio.

David is listed with his parents on the 1850 Census of Muskingum County, Ohio, and with his mother (his father d.1858) on the 1860 Census of Perry Co., Ohio.

David Lehew enlisted in the Union Army in Sept. 1861 at New Lexington, Ohio, as a private in Co. D, 30 Regt. Ohio Infantry. He served in that Company until Jan. 31, 1864, when he was discharged by reason of re-enlistment as Veteran Volunteer. He re-enlisted at Larkinsville, Ala. for a period of 3 years. From Feb. 29, 1864 to the time his Co. was mustered out at Little Rock, Ark. on Aug. 13, 1865, David was absent because of sickness. Part of this time was spent in hospitals in Rome, Ga., and Jeffersonville, Ind., and part at home on sick furlough. David filed for an invalid pension in 1870; his widow filed for widow's pension in 1872, and a petition for pension for his minor children was filed in 1880. After David's death, James S. Brown was appointed guardian of Caroline, Edwin, and Edgar Lehew (Perry Co. records).

David's widow remarried in 1880--to David Gatchel (or Patchel?). She and three Lehew children designated as her children are listed with David Gatchel on the 1880 Census of Perry Co., O. Catharine died 1 March 1919 in Moxahala, Perry Co., O. There is a 1934 record in Perry Co. concerning a transfer of land inherited from "David and Catharine Lehew who were husband and wife"--the grantors being Edwin Lehew and Alta L., his wife; Carrie Smith and Walter Smith, her husband--the said Edwin and Carrie being the sole and only living children and heirs at law of David and Catharine Lehew, long since dead. Edwin was a twin, his brother having died in 1882.

Children:

i. Caroline Lehew, b. abt. 1870; m. 29 Mar. 1894 in Perry Co., O. to Walter Smith; d. in Columbus, O., after 1934? - at least one child, Helen

ii. James Edgar Lehew, twin, b. 2 May 1871 at Moxahala, Ohio.; d. 9 Apr. 1882 in Perry Co., O.

iii. Thomas Edwin Lehew, twin, b. 2 May 1871; m. in 1900 to Alta Lillian Brown; lived in Columbus and Oakfield, Ohio--then moved (abt. 1915?) to River Rouge, Mich.; 1 son, Wm. E. LeHew, lived in Coloma, Mich. (Wm. b. abt. 1901)

Probably the same William Lehew who appears with William and Mary Lehew (his grandparents) as a 14-yr.-old on 1860 Census of Morgan Co., Ohio.

William Lehew enlisted 2 May 1864 at New Lexington, Ohio for service in the Union Army. He served in Co. F, 160 Ohio Regt. National Guard, as a private, and was mustered out on 7 Sept. 1864. On 29 June 1880, William's mother, Eliza Lehew, filed for pension on the basis of his service, and the pension was granted her. Evidently he had died as a result of sickness or injuries sustained in the service.

JEFFERSON OSBORN[6] LEHEW (Samuel O.[5], William[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Samuel O. Lehew and wife Temperance (Beal). Born 30 Oct. 1850. On 8 Apr. 1872, in Hocking Co., Ohio, Jefferson Lehew married Hannah Susan Martin, a resident of Hocking Co. at the time of her marriage. Hannah was born in 1850 and died in 1920 in Glouster, Ohio. Jefferson Lehew died sometime in the 1920's in Glouster.

Jefferson is listed with his parents on the 1860 and 1870 Census of Trimble Twp., Athens Co., Ohio. His son Charles D. Lehew told us that the family moved to Mineral Wells, W. Va. for a while, and that he (C.D.) was born there in 1874. Samuel Lehew's purchase of 200 acres on Tygart's Creek in 1872 is on record in Wood Co., W. Va. Athens Co. birth records indicate that Jefferson Lehew and his wife (who evidently were with Samuel in W.Va.) were back in Trimble Twp., Athens Co., Ohio, in 1877 and 1878, and the 1880 Census shows them there with their three children.

Jefferson Lehew owned property in Glouster, Ohio (formerly called Sedalia) from at least 1887 through 1901. His son Charles Doster Lehew told us that his father quit farming in 1881 and moved to Shawnee in Perry Co., Ohio, where he used his horses in a hauling business. Later an undertaker in Shawnee engaged Jefferson O. Lehew to furnish his teams for his hearse and carriages. When (about 1888) the undertaker sold his business in Shawnee and built a new business in a new mining town in Athens Co. (Glouster--formerly called Sedalia), Jefferson O. Lehew went along. Jefferson Lehew was a resident of Nelsonville, Athens Co., Ohio, in 1907 when his mother died.

Children:

i. Charles Doster Lehew, b. 16 Aug. 1874 in Mineral Wells, W.Va.; m. (1) Elizabeth MacCauly; (2) Anna Huskley; (3) Marion Roush; lived in San Diego, Calif. in 1967; children: Charles Jefferson Lehew of LaMesa, Calif.; Eva Belle Lehew; also an adopted daughter, Patsy, child of his wife Marion by a former marriage.

ii. Samuel M. Lehew, b. 22 May 1877 in Athens Co., Ohio; m. Maud Armstrong; one dau., Thelma Pauline, now Mrs. Risley of Athens, Ohio.

iii. John W. Lehew, b. 30 July 1878 in Hartleyville, Ohio; m. Mary Tinker; no children; they lived in Mansfield, Ohio, for a time.

WILLIAM HENRY[6] LEHEW (Samuel O.[5], William[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Samuel O. Lehew and wife Temperance (Beal). Born about 1853 in Morgan Co., Ohio. Married (1) on 1 Oct. 1877 in Wood Co., W. Va. to Sarah Stephens; William was a resident of Athens Co., Ohio, and Sarah a resident of Wood Co., W. Va. at the time of the marriage; (2) on 13 July 1890 in Athens Co., Ohio, to Miss Laura A. Mercer. William was killed by a train at age 39.

William H. Lehew appears with his parents on the 1860 and 1870 Census of Trimble Twp., Athens Co., Ohio. County records indicate that he lived in or owned property in Athens Co., Hocking Co., and Perry Co., Ohio, at various times during the 1880's and early 1890's, probably never very far from Glouster, Ohio.

One child:

i. Bertha Lehew, b. 24 July 1878; m. Mr. Wareheim before 1907

After her father's death, Bertha chose Samuel O. Lehew as her guardian. Sureties were William Harrison and Temperance Lehew, her grandmother. Bertha was named (as Bertha Wareheim) in her grandmother's 1907 will, Bertha's residence, Hollister, Ohio.

SAMUEL BEAL[6] LEHEW (Samuel O.[5] Lehew, William[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Samuel O. Lehew and wife Temperance (Beal). Born 29 Dec. 1860. Married 24 Oct. 1883 in Athens Co., Ohio, to Hannah McElroy. Hannah was 16 at the time--her guardian's consent is on file. Samuel B. Lehew died in March of 1937 in Glouster, Ohio. His widow lived on in Glouster after his death.

Samuel Lehew is listed with his parents on the 1870 and 1880 Census of Trimble Twp., Athens Co., Ohio.

Samuel B. Lehew is named as one of the sons of Samuel and Temperance Lehew on the list of next of kin of Temperance Lehew in 1907 probate records in Athens Co., Chio.

Children: (possibly not a complete list)

i. Della Lehew, b. 15 Sept. 1892 in Trimble Twp., Athens Co.; d. at Ringgold, Ohio of tubercular meningitis on 11 May 1900.

JOHN DOSTER[6] LEHEW (Samuel O.[5], William[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Samuel O. Lehew and wife Temperance W. (Beal). Born 20 June 1867 in Trimble Twp., Athens Co., Ohio. Married 16 Oct. 1895 in Morgan Co., Ohio to Mary Agnes Newberry. John Doster Lehew died April 3, 1951 at age 83 in the rural area near Glouster, Ohio.

Listed with his parents on the 1870 and 1880 Census of Trimble Twp.,Athens Co., Ohio. He is also identified as a son of Samuel and Temperance Lehew on the list of next of kin of Temperance Lehew when her will was probated in 1907, his address then Crooksville, Ohio.

John Doster Lehew furnished us with much of the material on his own, his father's, and his grandfather's families in letters and charts sent in the 1940's. Additional information has been gleaned from county records and from the census. These sources show periods of residence in Athens, Morgan, and Perry Counties in Ohio--probably at no great distance from each other. He was working as a blacksmith in 1900, but in his later letters he describes himself as a house carpenter, working on centralized schools all over the state of Ohio as a professional door hanger.

Children:

i. Wm. Garrett Lehew, b. 13 Mar.1897, Meigsville, Ohio
d. 5 Aug. 1897 in Ringgold, Ohio
ii. Jefferson Eden Lehew, b. 14 Sept. 1900 in Ringgold;

Jefferson Eden Lehew m. Mary Alberta Canon; lived in Newark, Ohio; children: Ruth E. Lehew and Wm. E. Lehew, and possibly 2 other girls whose names we do not have.

There were also several stillborn children in John D. Lehew's family.

AUSTIN W.[6] LEHEW (George W.[5] Lehew, Moses[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of George W. Lehew and wife Margaret (McMillen). Born in Salem Twp., Muskingum Co., Ohio, in Sept. 1852 (computed from death record). Married 17 Oct.1888 in Muskingum Co., Ohio, to Jennie Radcliff. Died in Union Twp., Muskingum Co. on 15 Nov. 1903, of consumption.

Appears with his mother (his father d. about 1857) on the 1870 and 1880 Census of Union Twp., Muskingum Co., Ohio.

Austin W. Lehew is named as a son and heir in the will of Margaret Lehew (dated 4 Apr. 1885). His own will, dated Oct. 1898, was probated in Muskingum Co., Ohio on 24 Dec.1903. His only heir was his wife Jane, from which we assume there were no children.

JAMES CLARK[6] LEHEW (Benjamin Franklin[5] LeHew, Moses[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Benjamin Franklin LeHew and wife Sarah Catherine (Comstock). Born 16 May 1870 near Fort Wayne, Indiana. Moved with his parents to Grundy Co., Mo. in 1873. Married 24 Dec. 1901 to Ella May Crawford, daughter of Wm. C. Crawford. Died 2 Sept. 1944. James LeHew's widow and daughter Kassie were living in or near Trenton, Mo. in 1965.

After James Clark LeHew's marriage, he bought a farm near Edinburg, Mo., where they lived for three years before moving two miles northeast of Trenton. In 1908, when Ford's History of Grundy Co. was published, J. C. LeHew had a well improved 100 acre farm, with electric lights in his house. Mr. and Mrs. LeHew were members of the Baptist Church.

FRANKLIN GREELEY[6] LEHEW (Benjamin Franklin[5] LeHew, Moses[4] John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Benjamin Franklin LeHew and wife Sarah Catherine (Comstock). Born 20 March 1872 near Ft. Wayne, Ind. Married 2 Sept. 1893 to Emma Elizabeth Tracy (she died 27 July 1946). Franklin Greeley LeHew died at the home of his daughter Lorraine in Centerville, Iowa on 24 March 1963, age 91.

Franklin Greeley LeHew moved to Grundy Co., Mo. with his parents in 1873. He told his daughters about the log cabin they first lived in east of Trenton (his parents and older brothers and sisters doubtless kept the memories alive). The house they later built still stands.

Franklin Greeley LeHew was a farmer. When he retired, he moved to the village of Tindall, Mo., not far from the old home near Trenton.

Franklin G. LeHew wrote in a 1931 letter (in answer to inquiries about LeHew history): "My aunts Mary and Liza LeHew were staunch Presbyterians". He was probably referring to his father's sisters, both of whom married members of the Pyle family back in Ohio. Evidently they kept in touch. We do not know whether the Pyle families remained in Ohio. They were in Ohio at the time of the 1880 Census, however.

Children:

i. Clelle Tracy LeHew, b. 27 July 1898. Lived in Alameda, Calif.; d. after 1964.
ii. Lucille Mildred LeHew, b. 13 Aug. 1901; m. John Horton; lives near Trenton, Mo.; they have one living son, John Franklin Horton, of Trenton, Mo.

THOMAS H.[6] LEHEW (William Fletcher[5] Lehew, Thomas[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of William Fletcher Lehew and wife Mary (Roberts). Born in Ohio in 1843. Married 14 Apr. 1864 in Henry Co., Iowa, to Jane L. Courtney (b. 28 Oct. 1842 in Sinking Springs, Ohio). Thomas H. Lehew died between census time in 1880, and January, 1883, when his widow applied for widow's pension. He probably died in Mt. Pleasant, Iowa.

Listed with his parents on the 1850 Census of Uniontown, Newton Twp., Muskingum Co., Ohio. Moved with them to Iowa in 1857. Listed with his wife and three daughters on the 1880 Census of Mt. Pleasant, Henry Co., Iowa. Thomas was a clerk

Thomas H. Lehew served in the Union Army during the Civil War. He enlisted on 20 Sept. 1861 and was enrolled in Co. G, 11 Regt. Iowa Inftry. at Davenport, Iowa. He served until 15 July 1865. His widow, Jane L. Lehew, applied for widow's pension in Jan. 1883, stating that her husband had died of disease contracted while in service of the U.S. (date of death not on application). She and her children were residents of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa in 1883. In 1917, when Jane applied for a pension increase under the Act of 1916, she was a resident of Los Angeles, Calif. She died 26 Sept. 1939.

ROBERT MILTON[6] LEHEW (William Fletcher[5] Lehew, Thomas[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of William Fletcher Lehew and wife Mary (Roberts). Born 6 Feb. 1845 in Uniontown, Muskingum Co., Ohio. Married 2 Nov. 1865 to Anna Phebe Hagenbuch (b. in Penna.). Robert Milton Lehew died in 1928 in San Diego, California.

Listed with his parents on the 1850 Census of Uniontown, Newton Twp., Muskingum Co., Ohio. A write-up of R.M.Lehew in History of Henry Co., Iowa (Chicago, Western Hist. Co.,1879) gives 20 March 1857 as the date of location in Henry Co., Ia. Robert M. Lehew and wife Annie and five children are listed on the 1880 Census of Henry Co. (in Mt. Pleasant).

When the Civil War broke out, Robert Milton Lehew enlisted in the Union Army (Co. G, 11th I.V.I.); he was wounded at Kenesaw Mt. during the siege of Atlanta. After the war he returned to Mount Pleasant and worked as a salesman in a hardware store for a while. In 1875 he was elected County Auditor and in 1877 re-elected.

The Robert Milton Lehew family moved to Baldwin, Kansas so that their sons could attend college there. They were in Kansas in 1889 when Robert M. Lehew filed for and was granted an invalid pension for his war service. Mrs. Lehew died there when the family was about all grown.

Thomas M. LeHew is listed with his parents on the 1850 Census of Jersey Twp., Licking Co., Ohio, and with his father and step-mother on the 1860 Census--same place. He is said to have moved first to Van Wert, Ohio, then to Warsaw, Ind. The 1880 Census shows him in Kosciusko Co., Ind., close to Warsaw, with his wife Rose L., and four children, all born in Ohio. It would seem that the move to Indiana took place between 1878 and census time in 1880. Thomas was working in a brickyard in 1880. (Note that a group of Lehew relatives --perhaps Thomas among them?--had a brickyard in Van Wert, Ohio.) The first deed record we could find for Thomas and Rose in Kosciusko Co. was in 1888.

WILLIAM THOMAS[6] LEHEW (James[5], Thomas[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of James Lehew and wife Catharine (Addy). Born 23 July 1853 in Ohio. Moved to Iowa with his parents, probably about 1856. Married in January 1874 in Benton Co., Ia. to Rebecca Croghan. Died 12 Jan. 1916 in Rockford, Ill. Buried in Barron, Wisconsin.

William Thomas LeHew (known as Thomas by descendants) followed in his father's footsteps as a sawmill owner, cutting railroad ties and barn timber in many places throughout Iowa. He was fond of his fast trotters and pacers. Thomas was a large man--again like his father--six feet one inch tall and weighed 280 to 310 pounds. Beside his sawmill work, he worked as a farmer, steam engineer and Methodist preacher.

Listed as William Thomas Lehew on the 1870 Census of Benton Co., Iowa (with his parents), and as Thomas "Lehu", with his wife and three children, on the 1880 Census of Benton Co. He was William Thomas on his marriage license, but Thomas on the marriage record.

WELLS W.[6] LEHEW (Robert Davis[5] Lehew, Thomas[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--son of Robert Davis Lehew and wife Minerva (Wickizer or Wells?). Born 31 Aug. 1879 in Van Wert, Ohio. Married (1) 14 Sept. 1902 in Ohio to Flora Shaver, dau. of John Shaver (also spelled Shawver). Wells and Flora were separated in 1907. Wells was married (2) about 1938 to Mrs.Alice Franks Mohn of Clyde, Ohio. Wells W. LeHew died 13 Nov. 1946 in Sandusky, Ohio, which had been his residence. His death certificate indicates that he had been a widower, and that he had been a veterinarian. It would seem, however, that the word should have been "veteran", since the Ohio Veterinary Medical Board can find no record of a Wells LeHew licensed as a veterinarian in Ohio. Wells W. LeHew was buried in Clyde, Ohio.

Listed with his parents on the 1880 Census of Van Wert,O.

Wells LeHew served in the Spanish-American War as a private in Co. D, 2 Regt. Ohio Inf. He was mustered out with his Company at Macon, Georgia on 10 Feb. 1899, having been enrolled as an enlistee in May 1898. He applied for an invalid pension under the Act of 1920, and in his declaration for pension states that he also served with a special Veterans' Corps, mustered in on 6 June 1899, discharged in 1920. Since leaving the service he had resided in Van Wert, Ohio; Springfield, Ohio; and Columbus, Ohio; and his occupation had been streetcar conductor--according to these pension papers. This pension application also lists his children.

ELEANORE[6] LEHEW (Joseph Snyder[5] LeHew, Thomas[4], John[3], Spencer[2], Peter[1])--daughter of Joseph Snyder LeHew and wife Eleanora (Pier). Born 2 September 1886 in Sutton, Nebraska. Did not marry. Richland Center, Wisconsin had been Eleanore LeHew's home from 1906, when her Uncle, W. H. Pier, who was in banking there, persuaded his niece, then visiting him and her sister Lora in Richland Center, to remain and learn banking. She took a banking course, and did so well in her banking career that she progressed to the position of Vice-President of the Richland County Bank, a position she held for twenty-five years. In 1958, she was given recognition for fifty years of service, and she remained at her post for another five years, retiring 29 January 1963.

Miss LeHew was a lifelong Episcopalian and active in the Richland Center Church. She was also active in Eastern Star and the American Legion Auxiliary.

One of her hobbies was family history, and she was very generous in sharing the results of her researches. The compilers of this book are very grateful to her for her help.

Miss LeHew died 18 Feb. 1966 in Richland Center. She was buried in Richland Center Cemetery.

WILLIAM H.[6] LEHEW (Jackson[5], Abner[4], John[3], Francis[2], Peter[1])--son of Jackson Lehew and wife Rebecca (Moreland).

Born 18 March 1858 at Caroline Furnace, Powell's Fort Valley, Shenandoah Co., Va. Married 16 June 1910 (his 1st marriage) in Browntown, Warren Co., Va., to Miss Mary E. Compton, dau. of George and Elizabeth Compton. Wm. H. Lehew was connected with the Internal Revenue Service at the time of his marriage. His residence at the time was Page Co. His will, dated 8 Mar. 1916, was probated 24 July 1917 in Page Co., Va. His heirs were his wife Mary E., his brother A. J. Lehew, and his half-sister Virgie Duncan. No children are mentioned in the will, and it is presumed from this that he had none. The will includes a request that his heirs have an iron fence placed around the graves of "our father and mothers on the Fort." It was probably this Wm. H. Lehew who bought property at Powell's Fort in 1888.

ANDREW J.^{6} LEHEW (Jackson^{5}, Abner^{4}, John^{3}, Francis^{2}, Peter^{1})--son of Jackson Lehew and wife Rebecca (Moreland). Born 12 Nov. 1867 at River Hills in Page Co., Va. Married on 13 April 1897 in Shenandoah Co., Va. to Annie C. Plauger. Mentioned as her brother in the will of Lova A. Lehew of Luray, Va. Deed records of Page Co., Va. in 1939 name the heirs of A. J. Lehew as follows: (Virgil has identified himself as a son of Andrew J., and it is assumed the other two are also Andrew's children:

i. Dora Lehew, wife of James F. Morgan of Page Co.,Va.
ii. Virgil R. Lehew (wife Lucile), of York, Penna.
iii. Cecil M. Lehew (wife Linda), of Parkesburg, Chester County, Penna.

JAMES H.^{6} LEHEW (Jackson^{5}, Abner^{4}, John^{3}, Francis^{2}, Peter^{1})--son of Jackson Lehew and wife Rebecca (Moreland).

Born 3 June 1871 at Fort Mountain, Page Co., Va. Died in 1903. His will, dated 26 March 1903, was probated in Page Co., Va., 27 April 1903. He named his sister Louisa J. Holmes as heir to all his real and personal property, except a trunk which he bequeathed to his half-sister Virgie Lehew. From this, and from the fact that our search turned up no record of marriage for him, it is assumed that he had never married.

She died in October of 1898. Her will names her sister Louisa J. Holmes and two daughters of Louisa as heirs, and authorizes the executor to collect debts owed her estate by her brothers Wm. H. and Andrew J. Lehew. Note the similarity between the name Lova A., and the Loveray or Lavary who seems to have been a sister of Lova A.'s father.

Moffett (maiden name Mary E. Carroll); this marriage ended in divorce; (4) on 1 Jan. 1896 in Pekin, Ill., John A. married Laura A. Dudley; divorced in Peoria in 1900; (5) we do not have the name of this wife, but she died during their Wichita, Kansas residence; and (6) Marie Conklin, who died in Peoria County shortly before John died. John A. LeHew died 30 Jan. 1933 in Peoria Co., Ill. He is buried in Rozetta Cemetery, Henderson Co., Illinois.

John A. LeHew spent his early days in Henderson Co.,Ill. He spent the first year of his married life farming in Nebraska, then returned to Henderson Co. After his first wife's death, he and the children moved to Burlington, Iowa. He was a Burlington resident at the time of his second marriage in 1888. They moved to Peoria, Illinois around 1890 or a little earlier. An 1891 Peoria Directory lists John A. LeHew as President and Manager of the Peoria Pickling Works. His brothers Charles and William worked with him in this business. Later John gave up the pickling business and traveled for Keystone Steel and Wire Co. He lived in Wichita, Kansas for a time.

CHARLES RUTLEDGE[6] LEHEW (Abraham W.[5], John[4], Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--son of Abraham W. Lehew and wife Naomi Susannah (Hanes). Born 21 June 1863 in Oquawka, Henderson Co., Ill. Married 27 Nov. 1884 in Macomb, McDonough Co., Ill. to Elizabeth Melvina Inman, dau. of James Thomas Inman and wife Mary Eliza (Dorman). Charles died 15 May 1909 in Henderson Co., Ill. and is buried in Rozetta Cemetery. After Charles' death, his widow married William Hayes. She died in 1952.

Charles spent most of his early years in Henderson Co., Ill. After his marriage he and Melvina lived in McDonough Co., Ill. for a while, then moved back to Henderson Co. In 1891, Charles was associated with his brother John in a pickle business in Peoria, Ill. He seems to have gone back to farming after that, and as he worked on a share basis, there were many moves, never too far from the old home in Oquawka, however. Times were often hard, what with floods, droughts, gophers, etc., but especially hard for the family after Charles died. They tried farming in South Dakota, but bad luck there drove them back to Henderson Co., Ill. to start all over again.

WILLIAM ELLERY[6] LEHEW (Abraham W.[5], John[4], Peter[3], David[2], Peter[1])--son of Abraham W. Lehew and wife Naomi Susannah (Hanes). Born 5 Feb. 1865 in Oquawka, Henderson Co., Ill. Married 2 July 1890 in Burlington, Iowa to Mattie Cora Courts, (b. 1872-d. 1961), dau. of Herman Courts and wife Rose (Shingler). Died 23 Oct. 1941. Buried in Memorial Park, Burlington, Iowa. His widow died in Burlington 17 Apr. 1961.

William Ellery LeHew spent his early years in Henderson Co., Ill., probably moving from there to Burlington, Iowa about the same time (late 1880's) as his brother John. When John moved on to Peoria, William also went there, and the three brothers--John, Charles, and William--worked together there in a pickling business. Later William and family moved back to Burlington. They were there in 1899 when William's signature was required as heir of A. W. Lehew, deceased. For many years, Uncle Will was a streetcar conductor in Burlington, beloved by all his "regulars."

MARY E.^{6} LEHEW (William^{5}, John^{4}, Peter^{3}, David^{2}, Peter^{1}) --daughter of William Lehew and wife Dorcas Emiline (Michaels). Born in Illinois about 1854-56. Married (1) 26 Aug. 1876 in Henderson Co., Ill. to Frederick Shuck; (2) 18 Feb. 1878 in Henderson Co. to Allen Edwards, son of Collins Edwards. Mary's residence in 1878 was Oquawka, and Allen Edwards and wife Mary E. were living in Henderson Co. at the time of the 1880 Census. We have no knowledge of Mary's children, if she had any.

Mary's name appears on the list of heirs of John Lehew (her grandfather) in the Wetzel Co., W. Va. records--to inherit her father's share. Evidently her father had died before 1883.

Note that there were two Mary E. LeHews--first cousins who were evidently closely associated as children, for they came to be distinguished by their hair coloring. Mary, dau. of Abraham, was "light Mary", and Mary, dau. of William, was "dark Mary - or "black Mary".

CHARLES H.^{6} LEHEW (John Cotton^{5} Lehew, John^{4}, Peter^{3}, David^{2}, Peter^{1})--son of John Cotton Lehew and wife Catharine (Butler). Born in March 1860 near the mouth of Proctor Creek in Wetzel Co., Va. (now W.Va.). Married Mary Linda Litman (b.1855;d.1920), dau. of Edward Litman and wife Dorilla (Kaufman). Died 21 Feb. 1937, after suffering from a paralytic stroke for four years.

Charles H. Lehew had a great interest in family history, and we (the compilers) owe much of our knowledge of our own line--Peter Lehew (28) and his descendants--to records which Charles H. Lehew kept.

Charles H. Lehew is listed as a baby with his parents on the 1860 Census of Wetzel Co. An article which Charles wrote in 1934 for the Wheeling Intelligencer gives us some interesting details of his life. When Charles was eight, his parents moved from their West Virginia home to Oquawka, Ill., where, it will be remembered, two of his father's brothers had gone during the 1850's. This 1868 journey started in a houseboat which Charles' father built from timber cut on Charles' grandfather's land. They lived on the houseboat for a while at Proctor, then floated on down the Ohio to a spot near Sistersville, spending some time there before going on to Pomeroy, where they sold the boat which had provided such wonderful adventure for young Charles. The balance of the journey to western Illinois--by the steamboat St. Charles--is described as long and tedious. They stayed in Oquawka for two years (the 1870 Census lists them there), and then returned to Proctor because Charles' mother yearned so for the W. Va. hills.

Later Charles engaged in timbering and sawmill work. As a carpenter, he helped complete the buildings of the Paden City Glass Mfg. Co. in Paden City, W. Va., then entered the factory as carpenter and pattern worker. He worked at this until he suffered a stroke in 1932.

SIXTH, SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GENERATIONS

Some Lines with Missing Links

These are lines which we believe are connected with Peter Lehew of Front Royal, but since we do not know that they are, and can only guess what the connection might be, we have had to make up a special section of them. This section is arranged differently and numbered differently to avoid confusion with the main part of the book. Under the heading of the earliest known ancestor in each case, the descendants whose names we have are listed in outline form--children of the earliest known ancestor designated by Roman numerals I, II, III, etc.; grandchildren by A, B, C, etc.; greatgrandchildren 1, 2, 3, etc.; and great-great-grandchildren by a, b, c, d. In some cases, we have dared to advance theories about connections with Peter of Front Royal. It should be remembered that that is all they are, however. If anyone should succeed in proving or disproving any of these theories, we would like to have the proofs.

JOHN LAHUE OF GRAYSON CO., KENTUCKY, and Some Descendants --Miss Maude LaHue of Leitchfield, Ky. compiled most of the following records of her family for us. She was able to trace the family back to John LaHue and wife Sally (Brooks), and to tell us that the family came from Virginia. By a careful study of tax records and census listings, we were able to establish that John LaHue was in what is now Grayson Co., Ky., as early as 1807. Grayson Co. was a part of Ohio Co., Ky. at that time, and the name John "Lahugh" appears on the Ohio Co. tax list for the first time in 1807. He had 50 acres on Cave Creek. The 1810 Census of Grayson Co. lists him with three children, and the 1820 Census lists him with only 2 children, 1 male, 1 female. From the 1810 and 1820 Census, we can estimate John's birthdate as between 1765 and 1775. He does not show up on the 1830 Census of Grayson Co., and it is presumed that he died between 1820 and 1830. The 1850 Census lists Sarah Lahue, 81, in the household of William Lahue. This is presumably William's mother, John's widow, so we can estimate her birthyear as around 1769.

We shall go on to John's descendants after attempting to reason out where John came from and who might have been his ancestors. On the 1850 and 1860 Census of Grayson Co., John's son William's birthplace is listed as Virginia (abt. 1805). Miss Maude LaHue also gave Virginia as their former residence, and she said that John had a daughter Mary (the 1810 Census shows two female children in the household) who married one of the Indiana Lahues, and had a son Isaac. This suggests a possible connection with the Harrison Co., Indiana, LaHues, who had moved there from Wythe Co., Virginia. On the same page with William "Lehew" on the 1830 Census of Grayson Co., Ky., are listed families by the name of Van Metre, Craig (next to Lehew), and Harrel. The presence in Grayson Co. of these families which we recognized as Wythe Co., Va. and Frederick Co., Virginia names, bolstered our theory that John Lahue of Grayson Co. might have been one of the Lahues who migrated from Frederick Co., Virginia to Wythe Co., Virginia and then to Indiana and Kentucky. Our theory is that John Lahue of Grayson Co., Kentucky, was a son of the William Lahue (William was a son of Peter of Front Royal) who made his will in Wythe Co., Va. in 1811. In this will, William named a son John, and it is interesting to note that he also named a daughter Rachel Craig, and that a family of Craigs lived next to William Lahue in Grayson Co. at the time of the 1830 Census.

Children of John Lahue and wife Sally (Brooks) (we do not know the order)

I. Mary Lahue - m. a Lahue relative from Indiana

II. Possibly another daughter

III. William Lahue, b. 17 Oct. 1805 in Va.; m. (1) Mary Litsey; and after her death (2) Margaret Sebastian (1807-1869). Died 14 Aug. 1863. Buried in Lahue Cem. in Grayson Co.

The first census on which Wm. shows up as head of a family is the 1830 Census. On the 1850 Census of Grayson Co., he and wife Margaret are listed with 10 children, plus William's mother. Note from what follows that many of Wm.'s family migrated to Texas. The first of these migrations may have been before 1850, since Wm.'s oldest son does not seem to have been in Grayson Co. in 1850. The others who went to Texas went after 1860--they were in Grayson Co., Ky. at 1860 Census time. We have no exact addresses in Texas, but Caviness, Paris, and Honey Grove have been mentioned.

End of Grayson Co., Ky., Lahues

FRANCIS MARION LAHUGH AND JAMES LAHUGH OF ATHENS COUNTY, OHIO and some descendants of Francis Marion Lahugh--In the Courthouse at Athens, in Athens Co., Ohio, there are records of two separate groups of Lehews. It has been definitely established that members of the one group were (and are--some are still in the area) descendants of Peter Lehew of Front Royal, Va., through Peter's son Spencer and grandson John. These descendants moved to Athens Co. from Muskingum and Morgan Counties in Ohio. Most of these spelled their name Lehew, and are included in the main section of this book. The others, including present-day descendants, have used the spelling Lahugh or La Hugh, and we have not been able to find records which would enable us to trace them back to Peter of Front Royal, although there are several indications that he was their ancestor. See page 33 for some "speculations" as to how Francis and his brother James might have been connected with Peter of Front Royal through his son Francis and grandson John.

John Doster Lehew, one of the descendants of Spencer Lehew referred to in the preceding paragraph, in a letter written in 1940, stated that "Frank" (Francis) Lahugh of Athens Co. was known to have been a cousin of his grandfather--the difference in spelling being accounted for by the fact that (as was so often the case in frontier days) many early Lehew-Lahughs could not write or spell, and therefore had to depend on others for the written form of the name.

Virgil C. LaHugh, of Columbus, Ohio, and others of his line have sent us family records going back to Francis Lahugh, born in Virginia in 1812--our notes indicate near Moorefield, which is in Hardy Co., in present-day West Virginia. Since Francis Marion Lahugh lived near Millfield in Ohio, one cannot help wondering whether the two places--Moorefield and Millfield--could have been confused over the years or in someone's notes, and whether this might help explain why our study of Hardy County records, census, etc. yielded no results. We searched for some trace of these Lahughs at the Courthouse in Moorefield, and also searched through the tax records for Hardy Co. (at the State Library in Richmond, Va.) for the years 1810 through 1823, without success. And we could find no Lehews listed on the 1820 or 1830 Census of Hardy Co.

Descendants of Francis Marion Lahugh of Athens Co. have indicated that Francis had an older brother, James, who also moved to Athens Co., and that there was at least one other brother Absalom (as the name appears in the old notes which have come down to us--is it possible that Abner could have been meant?), who remained in Virginia. James (wife Ruth) and Francis Lahugh had real estate transactions in Athens Co. starting in 1836, and Francis' marriage to Catherine Chadwell in 1834 is recorded in the Courthouse at Athens. Francis and family are included on the 1850, 1860, 1870, and 1880 Census listings for Athens Co., and from these several sources mentioned, we have been able to list many of Francis' descendants. James does not appear on any of these census listings, and we have no further trace of him--unless he could have been the James Lahugh whose name appears in a St. John genealogy as the husband of Ruth St. John--a member of a family which lived for a time in Marietta, Ohio, which, of course, is close to Athens Co. We have not had the opportunity to search the records at Marietta.

FRANCIS MARION LAHUGH--b. 12 Jan. 1812 in Va.; m. 27 Mar. 1834 in Athens Co., Ohio to Katherine Chadwell (she d. 1890, age 78); d. 4 July 1885 in Athens Co., Ohio.

Children of Francis Marion Lahugh (I through IV):

I. Samuel W. Lahugh, b. 5 Jan. 1837 in Athens Co.; listed with parents on 1850 Census; d. July 1860.

II. Mary Catharine Lahugh, b. 16 Mar. 1841 in Athens Co.; m. 18 July 1861 in Athens Co. to James Cradlebaugh; Katherine Cradlebaugh and Charles Cradlebaugh, age 7, are included among the family of Francis and Katharine Lahugh on the 1870 Census of Athens Co.

III. John Wesley Lahugh, b. 5 May 1842 in Athens Co.; m. on 25 Aug. 1864 in Athens Co. to Mary Ann Brown, dau. of Nelson Brown; d. 16 Feb. 1913 in Athens Co.; left a will naming his two sons as heirs:

(A) John Manfred Lahugh, b. 22 July 1866, Athens Co. m. 24 June 1889 in Athens Co. to Ida M. Brawley

END OF ATHENS CO. LAHUGHS

SOME MORE PENNSYLVANIA LEHEWS--possibly descendants of David (9)--It seems logical to theorize that all the Lehews one finds on census listings, in county records, recent phone books, etc. in Fayette and Westmoreland Counties in Pennsylvania could be descendants of Peter of Front Royal through his son David (see the section on David (9) in the main part of the book). We have included in the main section those whom we felt sure we could connect, link by link. This still leaves a great many southwestern Pennsylvania Lehews, whose earlier connections we have not been able to find. Pennsylvania records are not too helpful in the years before about 1885, which is too late for our purposes, and we have not had access to as many census records for this area as we would like. The Lehews from this area who have very kindly answered our letters have been a great help. Few knew their ancestry earlier than their grandparents, however, and there were many who did not answer at all. We find ourselves with odds and ends of information which we cannot group by families and must therefore omit. However, there are some interesting lines (evidently stemming from David) which we can trace for several generations, and we shall attempt that here. We found many different spellings of the name in this area, both in records and in recent telephone directories.

The National Archives Index to Union Army Records furnished us with the names of two Lahues, born in Fayette Co., Penna., who served in the Union Army during the Civil War, plus the name of the son of one of these, who also served, but who was born in Ohio. These were Joseph Lahue, Edward Lahue, and Edward's son Giles.

Joseph Lahue, born in Fayette Co. on 20 June 1826, was drafted into Co. K, 102nd Regt. Penna. Inftry., at Greensburg, Penna. in 1864. His pension record shows that he was a shoemaker and that he was married 17 Sept. 1858 in Fayette Co. to Emily Hess, who died in 1907. His 1898 pension report says there were no children. His nephew William Lahue and Wm.'s wife Hannah cared for him in his last illness. Joseph died 29 May 1920.

Unfortunately, the 1850 Census of Fayette Co. does not list a 24 yr. old Joseph Lahue, and we could find no records that would help us pursue this further.

EDWARD LAHUE, born about 1823 in Fayette Co., Penna., enlisted in the Union Army and was enrolled at Camp Marietta, Ohio in 1862, to serve in Co. K, 92 Reg't Ohio Inftry. He also served in the 31st Reg't Ohio Inftry. This Edward Lahue lived in Noble Co. and Monroe Co. in Ohio after the Civil War, and died in Noble Co. on 5 Sept. 1880. He was a coalminer before going into the Union Army. Some of his descendants have lived in Benton and Linn Counties in Iowa for a long time, and we learned much about this group of Lahues from these descendants, as well as from census records, county records, etc.; and we have found the name spelled Lehew, Lahue, LaHue, Lahugh and Layhew. But we have not learned how to fit Edward into the Fayette Co., Penna. picture. Edward seems to have left Fayette Co. too early to be listed on the census there in 1850, and we have not been able to locate him in 1850. We can make some guesses as to his father's name--assuming his father was still in Fayette or Westmoreland Co., Penna. at 1830 Census time. Only two Lehew names appear as heads of families in Fayette Co. in 1830: Henry and French Lehew. And in Westmoreland Co. in 1830 only John and David Lehew are listed. Edward's parents could have left these counties before 1830, however. One Joseph Lehew who appeared on the 1820 Census in Fayette Co. disappeared before 1830 (or appeared under a different name, such as Henry?). And our own Peter Lehew, in Fayette Co. earlier, was in Greene Co., Penna. at the time of the 1830 Census. Edward was not far from the Wetzel Co.-Marshall Co., W. Va. residence of this group of Lehews when he was in Monroe Co., Ohio (Stafford area); and age-wise he could be fitted into the family of Peter (in Greene Co., 1830 --buried on Proctor Ridge). But we have no evidence that he was Peter's son.

It seems likely that Edward was a descendant of Peter Lehew of Front Royal through his son David, but since we do not know how to connect them, we shall try to trace some of Edward's descendants instead. We found many Lahue names in Monroe and Noble Counties in Ohio which we could not fit into place, however.

Edward Lahue is buried in Stafford Cemetery in Franklin Twp., in Monroe Co., Ohio. His death record lists him as a widower, residence Stock Twp., Noble Co., Ohio.

Edward's first marriage was evidently to Elizabeth Downs, for his son William S. Lahue's marriage record gives William's parents as Edward Lahue and wife Elizabeth (Downs). He may have married a second time--there is a Mariann listed with him on the 1860 Census (Noble Co., O.) who might have been his wife.

Edward's family as listed on the 1860 Census of Noble Co., Ohio (P.O.--Stafford) agrees with the information his granddaughter, Alice LaHue Gordon, sent us. Edward and family were still in this same area in 1870. Although they appear on the Monroe Co. list in 1870, the Postoffice shown is again Stafford--and Stafford is practically on the line between Noble and Monroe Counties. His son Giles and wife Isabella and six children were in Edward's household in 1870. By 1880, Giles and his brother Alexander had gone to Iowa, and Edward's household in Noble Co., Ohio included ten grandchildren--some belonging to his son Giles, one to his daughter Nancy McBride, and some to his daughter Matilda Dotson.

Children of Edward Lahue (I through VI):

I. Giles Lahue, b. abt. 1842 in Ohio; m. (1) Isabella ___; (2) Miss Margaret Ann Rucker. The second marriage was performed in Vinton, Iowa. Giles died 26 Sept. 1902 in Garrison, Iowa. On the 1860 Census of Noble Co., Ohio, Giles is listed in his father's family group. At census time in 1870, Giles, his wife Isabel, and the six children listed below were living with Giles' father, and Giles was working as a brakeman. By 1880, Giles had gone to Iowa (he was listed without his family on the 1880 Census of Benton Co., Iowa). Some of his and Isabella's children were with Giles' father in 1880. Some of these children seem to have followed on to Iowa later.

Giles Lahue served in the Union Army during the Civil War. He enlisted at Stafford, Ohio in 1862 in the same company as his father (Co. K, 92 Reg't Ohio Inftry.) Giles had been working as a miner at the time of his enlistment. An invalid pension was granted Giles in 1865. After his discharge from the Army, he lived at Somerfield and Stafford in Ohio, before moving to Iowa. He worked as a carpenter at least part of the time in Iowa. After Giles' death in 1902, his widow, Margaret, applied for a widow's pension. In 1907, she remarried--to Robert Pullman (or Pollman).

Children of Giles Lahue and Isabella (A through F):

(A) Alexander Lahue, b. abt. 1861 in Ohio. Listed on 1870 Census of Monroe Co., O. with his parents, who were living with Edward Lahue (g.f. of Alex) at the time. Alexander's father had gone to Iowa by 1880, and Alexander shows up in his grandfather's household on the 1880 Census of Noble Co., Ohio. Later Alexander also moved to Iowa, and died there in 1936 (Benton Co.). The records of his estate show that Alexander had been married to Cornelia Ann Rucker (her name by a previous marriage) and that she had also died by 1936. The list of heirs includes only her children by her previous marriage. Perhaps there were none by her marriage to Alexander Lahue. Among these children (listed as stepchildren of Alexander) was Mrs. C. N. Tyler. Before her marriage to C. N. Tyler, Mrs. Tyler was Mary T. Lahue, widow of another Alexander Lahue, who was the uncle of the subject of this sketch. Mary T. Lahue was Mary T. Rucker (dau. of Cornelia Rucker) before her marriage to her mother's husband's uncle.

(B) Edward Lahue, b. abt. 1865. Probably the same Edw. Lahue who appears on the 1880 Census of Noble Co., O. as a farm laborer with the family of Friendly Mallett. He is listed with his parents on the 1870 Census of Monroe Co., O., in his grandfather's household. The ages shown on the 1870 Census seem to indicate that he was a twin of Sarah. This seems to be the same Edward Lahue who was married in 1885 in Benton Co., Iowa to Fannie Place. He is said to have moved on to California from Iowa.

(C) Sarah Lahue, b. abt. 1865, probably a twin of Edw. Listed with her parents on 1870 Census of Monroe Co., Ohio, and in her grandfather's household in 1880.

(D) Joseph Lahue, b. abt. 1867 at Stafford, Ohio. Listed with his parents on the 1870 Census of Monroe Co., Ohio, in his grandfather's household. Also with his grandfather in 1880. He died in Iowa, and is buried in Garrison Cemetery. We have nothing further on him.

(E) Giles W. Lahue, b. abt. 1868 in Ohio. Listed with his parents on 1870 Census of Monroe Co., Ohio, in his grandfather's household. Still in his grandfather's household in 1880. This may be the same Giles Lahue who married either Mary Bennett or Mary McBride. There are several births registered for Giles and Mary Lahue in Noble Co., O., from 1892 to 1907. The records are not clear as to whether there was more than one Giles and more than one Mary; we have therefore not listed the children. Giles W. Lahue d. in Stock Twp., Noble Co., Ohio on 13 Dec. 1928.

(F) Charles Lahue, b. abt. 1870 in Ohio. Listed with his parents on 1870 Census of Monroe Co., Ohio in his grandfather's household. Also with his grandfather in 1880. Married in 1898 in Benton Co., Ia. to Jennie Page.

It is possible that there was also a son Emmett Austin Lahue and a dau. Mary in Giles' first family.

The following are presumed children of Giles and wife Margaret--they are the ones recorded in Benton Co., Ia. as Giles' heirs in 1902 (G through N):

(G) William A. Lahue, a resident of Garrison, Iowa in 1902; m. (1) in 1900 in Benton Co., Ia. to Hattie Troxel; (2) in 1902 in Benton Co. to Rebecca K. Schleuter.

(H) John Lahue, res. of Garrison, Ia. in 1902; m. in 1906 in Benton Co., Ia. to Nina Brody.

(I) Harry Lahue, res. of Garrison, Ia. in 1902; m. in 1905 in Vinton, Ia. to Nellie Maud Floyd; they had a son, George Arland LaHue, b. July 1906 in Vinton, who at one time lived in Waterloo, Iowa.

(J) Oscar Lahue, res. of Garrison, Iowa in 1902.

(K) Chester Lahue, b. 15 July 1889 in Garrison, Iowa. A resident of Vinton, Iowa in 1915 when he married (in Linn Co., Ia.) Olive Quillen.

(L) Benjamin Lahue, b. 25 Sept. 1891 at Garrison, Ia.

(M) Glenn Lahue, b. 22 Sept. 1898 at Garrison, Ia.

(N) Dewey R. Lahue, b. 7 Nov. 1900 at Garrison, Ia.

II. Nancy Lahue, b. abt. 1845 in Ohio; Nancy "Lahugh" was married in 1879 in Noble Co., O., to Geo. W. McBride. One Samuel O. McBride, presumably their son, is listed with Nancy McBride in her father's family group on the 1880 Census of Noble Co., Ohio. Nancy is also listed in her father's household on the 1860 and 1870 Census.

III. Alexander Lahue, b. 13 April 1849 in Ohio; m. (1) 27 Mar. 1870 in Monroe Co., Ohio, to Elizabeth Milligan; (2) on 11 Sept. 1882 in Garrison, Iowa to Mary T. Rucker, dau. of _____ Rucker and wife Cornelia Ann. Cornelia Ann Rucker became the wife of another Alexander Lahue (nephew of the Alexander of this sketch). Alexander Lahue, son of Edward, died 31 July 1895 in Vinton, Iowa. Alexander's widow, Mary T. Lahue, remarried in 1908 in Vinton, Iowa--to C. N. Tyler. Mrs. C. N. Tyler is designated as a stepdaughter of the other Alexander Lahue in the Benton Co., Iowa list of heirs of the Alexander Lahue who married Cornelia Rucker.

Alexander Lahue (b. 1849) is listed with his father on the 1860 Census of Noble Co., Ohio. By census time in 1880, both Alexander and his brother Giles were in Benton Co., Iowa.

Children of Alexander Lahue and wife Eliz. (A & B):

(A) William Sherman Lahue, b. 6 Sept. 1871. Listed with his mother on the 1880 Census of Noble Co., Ohio. Married (1) in 1890 to Kate Rucker, dau. of _____ Rucker and wife Cornelia Ann; (2) Clara _____. William Sherman Lahue d. 26 May 1920 in Benton Co., Iowa. His heirs are listed in Benton Co. records as his wife Clara and his sons Lester, Walter, and W. R. Lahue.

(B) Wilbert J. Lahue, b. abt. 1877 in Marion Twp., Noble Co., Ohio. Listed with his mother on the 1880 Census of Noble Co. Married 27 Sept. 1900 in Noble Co. to Rosa A. Vandine, dau. of A. J. Vandine. Residence Whigville, O. in 1900. At least one child: Harry Lahue, b. 6 May 1902 in Madison Twp., Clark Co.; res. of parents at the time was Marion Twp., Noble Co.

Children of Alexander Lahue and wife Mary T.(C thru H):

(C) Myrtle May LaHue, b. 20 July 1883; m. in 1903 in Benton Co., Ia. to Alfred Statler.

(D) Alice Gertrude LaHue, b. 12 Jan. 1886 in Garrison, Iowa; m. 18 Oct. 1905 in Garrison (Benton Co.) to C. C. Gordon. They had five children, one of whom died at 3 weeks. The Gordons are now divorced, and Alice lives in Garrison. She has been an immense help to us in straightening out relationships among this group of Lahues.

(E) Frank Leslie LaHue, b. 15 Mar. 1888 in Columbus, O.; m. in 1910 in Benton Co., Ia. to Anna Halaway; this ended in divorce; m. (2) on 14 July 1917 in Linn Co., Ia. to Miss Elizabeth Agatha Maloney, dau. of James Maloney and wife Mary Ann (Fogarty). This marriage also ended in divorce, and Franklin L. Lahue m. (3) Margaret _____, who lives in Cedar Rapids, Ia. (1965). Franklin LaHue d. in 1963. Franklin Leslie LaHue had a son Russell who d. several years ago; Russell's two sons, Clarence and Bill, live in Knoxville, Iowa.

III. Alexander Lahue, contd.
Children, contd.
(F) Estella Ann LaHue, b. 28 March 1893 in Iowa; m. a Mr. Swartout
(G) Blanche LaHue, b. 4 Dec. 1890; d. 1904
(H) Elizabeth LaHue, b. 12 Oct. 1895; m. a Mr. Gordon; d. in 1932.

IV. Mary E. Lahue, b. abt. 1851 in Ohio. Listed in her father's household on 1860 and 1870 Census. Presumed to have been the same Mary Lahue who married John McBride in 1878 in Noble Co., O. She was a Noble Co. resident at the time of her marriage, and Vermont Dotson gave oath as to ages, etc.

V. Matilda Lahue, b. abt. 1852 in Ohio; m. Vermont Dotson. Listed with her husband and two children on the 1880 Census of Noble Co., O., in her father's household.

Children of Vermont Dotson and Matilda (Lahue):
(A) Ellen Dotson, b. abt. 1876
(B) Millfred Dotson, b. abt. 1878
(C) Lula Dotson - m. Mr. Erickson - lives in Garrison,Ia.
Others?

VI. William Sherman Lahue, b. abt. 1858 in Barnesville, Ohio. Married (1) Mary Fleckinger? (Mary Fleckinger Lahue, wife of one Wm. Lahue born abt. 1858 in Ohio, had her 4th child in Garrison, Iowa in 1884--a male registered by surname and parents' names only); (2) in 1896 in Marion, Linn Co., Iowa, to Addie Price, widow, dau. of Wm. Butler and Mary (Soule). This was designated in the record as a 2nd marriage for Wm. S. Lahue. A son, Wilbert Ray Lahue, was born to Wm. S. Lahue and his 1st wife. Wilbert had a son Forrest LaHue, a resident of Cedar Rapids, Iowa in the 1960's. We do not have the names of other children of William. There seem to have been none by the 2nd marriage. William LaHue was a brickmason at the time of his marriage to Addie Price.

SOME MORE BELLE VERNON, PENNA. LEHEW FAMILIES--possibly connected with David (9) Lehew. This, of course, is the area to which we have traced David Lehew of Front Royal as early as 1805. In addition to those Lehews from Belle Vernon and area whose lineages we have been able to set out in the main section of the book, there are others whom we can trace only part way back--and, as usual, many more whom we must omit altogether for lack of sufficient information.

It is interesting to note that Belle Vernon was of importance in the making of window glass at an early date. This being the case, it is not surprising to find some Lehews connected with glass making, and to find some of these moving on to other glassmaking towns (perhaps as opportunities in this field became more attractive elsewhere). We first ran across glassmaking Lehews in Lancaster, Ohio--a glassmaking center in Fairfield County. We were searching for records of descendants of Spencer[2] and John[3] Lehew whom we had traced to the Lancaster area from the Zanesville area. In the period just after 1900, we found that we were dealing with records of two distinct groups of Lehews--those from the Spencer-John group, and another group who were glassworkers, and who had come to Lancaster from Belle Vernon, Penna. by way of Newcastle, Penna.--another glassmaking town. Some of this group undoubtedly have family records which will enable them to trace themselves on back to David (9)--if, as we believe, David was their ancestor. We did not have access to enough records to make the connections ourselves.

DAVID LEHEW - glass gatherer.--Born 11 June 1872 in Belle Vernon, Penna. We do not have the names of his parents. David was a resident of Newcastle, Penna., and was working as a glass gatherer at the time of his marriage on 24 Dec. 1895 in Newcastle, to Nancy Lynn (b. in Newcastle in 1874). A study of the records at Newcastle (Lawrence Co., Penna.) and at Lancaster (Fairfield Co., O.) provided this list of children of David and Nancy: (there may have been others as well)

I. Margaret Lehew, b. 26 Nov. 1897 in Newcastle, Penn. Father a glassblower. Married 19 Apr. 1919 in Fairfield Co., Ohio, to David Pence, also a glassworker, b. in Greensburg, Penna. in 1896, son of Jacob Pence and Arabella Lynn.
II. Lillia Mae Lehew, b. 4 June 1899 in Newcastle, Penna. Married (1) on 30 June 1917 in Fairfield Co., Ohio to Joseph E. Floyd. They were divorced, and Lillia was married (2) to Edson Jenkins.
III. Arthur Lehew, b. 1902 in Newcastle, Penna.; d. 11 July 1902 in Newcastle.
IV. Gladys Lehew, b. 12 May 1906 in Lancaster, Ohio. Married on 10 Sept. 1927 in Fairfield, Ohio, to Jerry Edwards.
V. Carl A. Lehew, b. in 1911 in Lancaster, Ohio. Married in 1934 in Fairfield Co., Ohio to Dorothy Emma Unks. They had a daughter Susan Estella Lehew born in Lancaster about 1940.

BERT (ALBERT) LEHEW - glass gatherer.--Born 16 Jan. 1877 in Belle Vernon, Penna. Son of Louis Lehew and wife Mary (Behanna). This Bert (or Albert) seems to have been married twice: (1) on 24 April 1900 in Newcastle, Penna. to Alice St. Clair; (2) on 15 October 1921 in Lancaster, Ohio, to Lena Steinmetz, dau. of Wm. Steinmetz and wife Ada (Holsman). Both Bert and Lena were glassworkers at the time of their marriage. Bert was a foreman at Hocking Glass Co.

Children of Bert Lehew:

I. David O. Lehew, b. 2 Jan. 1902 in Newcastle, Penna. Father a glass gatherer.
II. Fraulein Mae Lehew, b. 23 Nov. 1923 in Lancaster, Ohio. Married in 1940 in Fairfield Co., Ohio, to Daniel Jackson, a glassworker.

CLARENCE LEHEW - glassworker.--Born 19 March 1885 in Belle Vernon, Penna. Married 8 May 1911 in Lawrence Co., Penna. to Lily B. Davis (b. 3 Apr. 1894 in Newcastle, Penna., dau. of D. W. Davis). Clarence was a glassworker at the time of his marriage. Nothing further on him.

GEORGE LEHEW OF BELLE VERNON AND AKRON - Born in Belle Vernon. George had a sister Kathryn who may still live in Belle Vernon. There were two marriages for this George Lehew. The first wife died. There was a daughter by this marriage who lives in Ohio. The second marriage--about 1916 in Belle Vernon--was to Rachael Fischer. George died in 1947 in Belle Vernon.

Child of George and Rachael:
I. George Aldin LeHew, b. 31 May 1918 in Akron, Ohio; married 7 Oct. 1944 in Chicago to Lily Kerry. They were divorced about 1960. George remarried and is now living in the Detroit area. Several cousins of George Aldin LeHew also live in the Detroit area (we do not have their names).

Child of George Aldin LeHew:
A. George Aldin LeHew, Jr., b. 2 Aug. 1945 in Chicago. He and his mother lived in Chicago in 1965.

ANDREW JACKSON LEHEW and some descendants--Penna. and W. Va.--we have numerous records involving the name Andrew Jackson Lehew, mostly in W. Va. Panhandle Counties. Several Lehews now living in Greene Co. and Washington Co., Penna. have traced themselves back to Andrew J. Lehew. We also have a Civil War record for one Andrew J. Lehew who served briefly in the Confederate Army from Jackson Co., Va. (now W.Va.). At first, these records seemed to us to refer to several different Andrew J. Lehews, but the results of our studies of census and county records in the places where the clues led us have forced us to think in terms of one Andrew Jackson Lehew, born about 1837, and listed on the 1850 Census as a thirteen-year-old boy living with Peter and Louisa Lehew in Marshall Co., Va. (now W. Va.). There were other Andrew Jackson Lehews (see the index to this book for some of them), but we are thinking here of an Andrew Jackson Lehew born about 1837 and the subject of the records which follow. We do not know what Andrew's connection with the Peter he was with at the time of the 1850 Census might have been (perhaps a grandson?), but we do know this Peter as an ancestor of the compilers.

Indications are (please correct us if you have family records which contradict any of the following) that Andrew J. Lehew was married three times--(1) on 29 Oct. 1856 in Ohio Co., Va. (now W. Va.) to Lucinda Wharton; (2) to Mary E. Brannon, dau. of John Brannon; (3) to Mary A. Stewart (b. abt. 1847 in Greene Co., Penna.).

It would seem to be this same Andrew J. Lehew who enlisted in the Confederate Army at Pocahontas, Va. (Tazewell County) on 1 April 1863, to serve as Private in the 19th Va. Cav. Andrew deserted the Confederates in Bath County, Va. in January of 1864, and was arrested by Union officials at Beverly, W. Va. on March 21, 1864. His name appears on a list of prisoners confined in a Union Military Prison at Wheeling (known as Atheneum Prison)--the list dated 24 March 1864. Andrew J. Lehew was released on 25 March 1864 on taking the oath of allegiance to the U.S. On the prison list, his residence appears as Jackson Co., W. Va. Note that this was the county of residence for Peter and Louisa at an earlier period.

Now--if this was the same Andrew who appeared with Peter and Louisa Lehew on the 1850 Census of Marshall Co., Va. (now W.Va.), where was Andrew in 1860 and 1870? Although we have examined a number of census listings for counties in the W.Va. Panhandle (and Greene Co., Penna.), we have not located Andrew J. Lehew at either of these census dates. He was not on the Jackson Co. 1860 Census list, although he gave Jackson Co. as a residence at the time he was a prisoner in Wheeling. We found indications (r.est. records, etc.) that Andrew J. Lehew lived in Wetzel Co., W. Va. in the late 1860's and in Marion Co., W. Va. in the 1870's. There is also some indication of a Greene Co., Penna. residence around this time. Some of his children by his second marriage show up with their Brannon grandfather on the 1870 and 1880 Census of Marion Co. Andrew J. Lehew and wife Mary A. and six children (the oldest born abt. 1870 in Penna.) are listed on the 1880 Census of Monongalia Co., W. Va.

Andrew J. Lehew died about 1909, probably near Mannington, W. Va. Mary, his wife, died 11 July 1905 in Mannington.

Children of Andrew J. Lehew: (we have no record of any by 1st wife)
By 2nd wife (I through III)

I. John Wesley Lehew, b. abt. 1864 in W. Va.; m.(1) Hannah Hawkins? (2) Priscilla Stottlemair. John W. Lehew died 18 Dec. 1935 in Union District, Marion Co., W.Va. Priscilla died in Fairmont, W.Va. in 1942. John and Priscilla seem to have lived mainly in Marion Co., but they were also in Marshall Co., W.Va. for a time, and their son Charles was born in Bellaire, Ohio.

John Wesley Lehew seems to have had one child by Hannah:

(A) Nora B. Lehew, b. 1 Sept. 1883 in Marion Co., W.Va. she died 20 Feb. 1901 near Metz, W. Va.

End of Section on Penna. Lehews

SOME TENNESSEE - TEXAS LEHEWS--We have used this title because correspondence with several Lehew families in Texas has revealed that their parents once lived in and around Murfreesboro, Tenn. Correspondence with Tennessee Lehews whose names we found in recent telephone directories turned up some of the same names the Texas group had given us (in fact, one letter which we wrote to Tennessee was answered from Texas--after a "cousinly" conference). Both groups are very much interested in their family history, and they have good lists of those family members with whom they have had close connections. The information gleaned from this correspondence sparked our interest in the possibility of proving a connection with Peter Lehew of Front Royal, and prompted a good deal of census searching, plus a trip to Tennessee, where, in several county courthouses in and around Murfreesboro, and in the State Library in Nashville, we managed to find some sketchy records of Lehew families. The records in some of these counties are not well preserved and probably were not complete to start with. We shall attempt, in so far as it seems possible, to trace some relationships from these and other data. Civil War records tell a bit more of the story, as do census listings and family records from descendants.

We are inclined to believe that these Lehews are descendants of Peter Lehew of Front Royal. We present here a THEORY that their earliest Tennessee ancestor might have been one Jeremiah Lehew who arrived in Tennessee about 1837, perhaps having spent some years in Ohio after he left Virginia. It would seem logical to suppose that most--if not all--of the Lehews now in the Rutherford and Wilson County area in Tennessee must be descendants of the families we find listed in this area on the 1850 Census, and that these 1850 Census Heads of Families might claim Jeremiah as their next earlier ancestor. However, when it comes to trying to complete the links between the later Tennessee Lehews and the ones who show up in the early Tennessee records, we find that we can be sure of only a relatively few lines. We are left with much material which we cannot organize or interpret, because the records are too scattered. It is hoped that the material which is presented here will make it possible for others to fit themselves into the picture, with the help of their own family records. We shall be glad to share our "left-over" pieces with anyone having specific questions to ask.

We shall now present the steps by which we arrived at our THEORETICAL CONCLUSIONS, with the urgent request that readers consider all this very critically, and send us any conflicting (or confirming) information they may have--giving the sources of the information in each case, as we have tried to do here.

Census lists for Rutherford Co., Tenn. (in which Murfreesboro is located) for 1810, 1820, and 1830 were examined. We found no Lehew names on any of these, but an examination of old tax lists preserved at the State Library in Nashville revealed a "Jerry Lehu" paying personal property tax in Rutherford Co. in 1837. He owned no real estate, and his name did not appear on the 1836 list. So we proceeded to read the 1840 Census of Rutherford Co.--and we found one Jeremiah "Lehu" listed. The family consisted of one male between 50 and 60; a female between 50 and 60, and 2 boys in the age group 10-15. Next door was a family named Adams, headed by a man whose name was -isby Adams (we could not make out the first letter). The significance of this information about Adamses will become apparent as we present the information we gathered from county records and from the 1850 and 1860 Census listings.

In order to keep the time sequence clear, we shall present some early marriage records next. These are Rutherford Co. marriage records, and show (1) the marriage on 12 Oct. 1840 between James "Leehu" and Ellen Carpenter, and (2) on 11 March 1841 between William "Lahu" and Delila J. Adams. It looks very much as though one Jeremiah Lehew arrived in Rutherford Co., Tenn. about 1837, and as though one of his sons married "the girl next door", and another of his sons married Ellen Carpenter. That it was his son who married Delilah Adams looks less like guesswork when we examine the 1850 and 1860 Census of Rutherford Co., which follow:

1850 CENSUS - Milton District, Rutherford Co., Tenn.

William Lahugh	age	29	born in Virginia
Delilah "		27	Tennessee
Jeremiah "		8	"
Charles F. "		6	"
Sarah A. "		3	"
Abner J. "		1	"
Riss or Risp? Adams		57

James Lahugh	35	Virginia
Ellen "	24	Tennessee
John "	9	"
Betsy? "	6	"
Sarah	5	"
Milly F.	4	"
Martha	1	"

---

3 houses away from James:

Sarah A. Menifee???	34	Virginia
four Menifee children
Millie A. Lahugh (female)	63

In 1860 in the Jordan District, Milton P.O., Rutherford Co., Tenn. were William Lahugh and family (see below) and J. "Lighue" and wife "Elin" and 9 children. Even with the queer spelling, James' family is recognisable as the same as James and Ellen Lahugh of the 1850 Census, so we shall not list it. We did not find Millie Lahugh on the 1860 Census. She would have been 73, and had probably died before 1860.

1860 CENSUS - Jordan District, Milton P.O., Rutherford Co., Tenn.

William Lahugh	age	38
Delila		37
J. G.		19 male
C. F.		17 male
Sarah		15
Joseph		12
R. T.		5? male
G. W.		4 male
M. J.		4 female
Martha		2
Rispey Adams		66

Note that in 1850 the family of William and Delilah Lahugh included one Riss or Risp Adams, a male, age 57, and that in 1860 Mr. Adams was still with William and Delilah, but the first name is spelled out a little more--Rispey Adams. Surely this is Delilah's father, the same -isby Adams who lived in the house next to Jeremiah "Lehu" in 1840. This helps to confirm our theory that Jeremiah was the father of William Lahugh or Lehu (the way the censustakers and record keepers chose to spell the name is interesting, but of no real importance).

Since Civil War records point to the presence of Lehews in Wilson Co., Tenn. as well, we read the 1836 and 1838 tax lists for Wilson Co. (there were no Lehews on them) and the 1850 and 1860 Census of Wilson Co., with the following results:

1850 CENSUS - Wilson County, Tennessee - District 17

Abner Lahue	25		born in Ohio
Susan "	30
John "	1		Ohio
James "	6		Ohio
Caswell? Lahue	5	male	Ohio
Franklin Lahue	22		Ohio
France. Lahue	30		Virginia

1860 CENSUS - Wilson Co., P.O.Rural Hill - District 25

Abner Layhew	37
Susanah Layhew	40
James Briant Layhew	17
Connell? Layhew	13
John Layhew	9
Elizabeth Layhew	4

1860 CENSUS - Wilson Co., Tennessee - Cainesville P. O.

Franklin Lahue	36?	Overseer	born in Ohio
Frances Lahue	45		Virginia

The fact that no Jeremiah Lehew shows up on the 1850 or 1860 Census of either of these counties may indicate that he was dead before 1850. Whether James and William were the young males in Jeremiah's family on the 1840 Census, we cannot say. If so, surely the censustaker checked the wrong age grouping. It could be that James and William were in some other county in 1840 and that these two young men on the 1840 Census were younger brothers of William and James, which would help explain some of the other Lehew names which keep turning up in this area. We do not know in which, if any, other Tennessee counties we might also find Lehews listed on the 1850 Census. Taking just these two counties--Rutherford and Wilson--and taking into consideration that the Milton District in Rutherford Co. and the Cainsville area in Wilson Co.

are only a few miles apart--we have theorized that we have on this 1850 Census four Lehew men who might well be four sons of the Jeremiah Lehew who appeared on the 1840 Census. You will note that we have two Lehews who gave Virginia as birthplace, and two who give Ohio as birthplace. Let us see what might be behind all this: We seem to have a James Lahugh, born in Virginia about 1815, a William born in Virginia about 1821, an Abner born in Ohio about 1825, and a Franklin born in Ohio about 1828. To be considered all one family, they would have to have moved from Virginia to Ohio between 1821 and 1825, and then on to Tenn. Do we have any data that would support such a theory? Let us go at it this way--If Jeremiah Lehu of the 1840 residence in Rutherford Co., Tenn. had two sons born in Ohio between 1820 and 1830, can we find the family anywhere in Ohio in 1830? The 1830 Census of Ohio has been indexed on a statewide basis, so we consulted this index. In addition to Lehew families which we recognized as belonging definitely to lines which we have already recorded in the main section of this book, there was one other Lehew family--in Licking County, Ohio--headed by one Jeremiah "Layhugh"! We checked the statewide index to the 1820 Census of Ohio, and found no Jeremiah Layhugh--only those descendants of Spencer and John who have been identified and classified in the main section of this book. The next step was to see whether the 1840 Census of Licking Co., Ohio still showed a Jeremiah Lehew. We made this check, and there was no Jeremiah there! Unfortunately, there is no statewide index for the 1840 Census, so we cannot say definitely that in all of Ohio in 1840 there was no Jeremiah Lehew. But it certainly seems that we should consider the possibility of this Licking Co. Jeremiah being the same Jeremiah who was in Rutherford Co., Tenn. in 1840.

Now, remembering that we are looking for a Jeremiah who was in Virginia in 1821 and earlier, what facts can we point to that might be connected with the Tennessee Jeremiah? If you will turn to page 7 in the main section, you will see how the statewide index to the 1810 Census of Virginia pinpoints the Lehews in Virginia after that date. And note (page 32) that one Jeremiah Lehew, presumed to have been the son of John and grandson of Francis Lehew, married one Milly Rudiciller in Shenandoah Co., Va. in 1816. Also that one Jeremiah Lehew, surely this same Jeremiah, appeared on the 1820 Census of Shenandoah Co., Va. but was not there in 1830--nor in any of the nearby counties. Now, let us consider the Millie Lahugh who shows up in Rutherford Co., Tenn. in 1850--very close to James Lahugh, according to our theory possibly a son of Jeremiah. Wouldn't it be logical to guess that this is the widow of Jeremiah--that they left Shenandoah Co. after 1821, lived in Licking Co., Ohio in 1830, were in Rutherford Co., Tenn. by 1837, were listed there on the 1840 Census, and that Jeremiah died before 1850? This, then, would be the theoretical family of Jeremiah and Millie:

Theoretical family of Jeremiah and Millie:

James Lahugh, b. in Va. abt. 1815
William Lahugh, b. in Va. abt. 1821
Abner Lahugh, b. in Ohio abt. 1825
Franklin Lahugh, b. abt. 1828 in Ohio

As usual we must allow for the possibility of ages on the census being off a year or so either way--or perhaps consider James as a brother rather than a son of Jeremiah, since we have a birthdate for him which is a year earlier than the marriage date for Jeremiah and Millie. If the two young males in Jeremiah's household in 1840 were actually between 10 and 15 years of age, then we suggest that they might have been Abner and Franklin. The 1830 Census of Licking Co., Ohio shows five males in that Jeremiah's family in addition to himself. We also suggest that Jeremiah had a son John--descendants of William and Delilah indicate that William had a brother John, and there seem to have been more Johns in this area than we can account for in any other way. One John Lehew appears in Rutherford Co. Deed records in 1857 and 1860. To complete this THEORETICAL PICTURE, we would give the descent of these Tennessee Lehew families from Peter Lehew of Front Royal as follows:

Peter[1] Lehew of Front Royal and wife Frances (Allen)
Francis[2] Lehew and wife Leannah (Taylor?)
John[3] Lehew, and wife Nancy (Conner or Comer)
Jeremiah[4] Lehew and wife Milly (Rudiciller)

James	William	Abner	Franklin	John

After comparing the 1850 and 1860 Census data with information sent by the Texas Lehews, we recognized the family of William and Delilah "Lahugh" as that to which the two Texas brothers, Jeremiah Green Lehew and Richard Pinkney Lehew, belonged. Richard Pinkney Lehew, born in 1853, naturally does not show up until the 1860 Census, and then is listed under the initials "R.T.", which we took to be a censustaker's misunderstanding, since Richard is named as Richard on the 1870 Census of Rutherford Co., and since other names remembered by Jeremiah's and Richard's descendants also show up in this family listing.

We shall try to trace some of the descendants of William and Delilah, drawing upon information from descendants, county records in Rutherford, Cannon, and Wilson Counties in Tenn. (indications are that Cannon Co. came into the picture later--as a result of moves from Rutherford and Wilson Counties), census records of these counties from 1840 through 1880, and Confederate records.

APPENDIX I

We have not been able to contact any known descendants of James, Abner, Franklin, or John, but we hope that the family lists (taken from 1850 through 1880 Census lists) given here for James and Abner following the section on William's descendants will help some of their descendants to fit themselves in. We do know that Roscoe Nathaniel Lehew, who died in Whitefish, Montana in 1958, was a descendant of one of the Cainsville, Tennessee Lehews (he was born in Cainsville, Tenn. on 22 Sept. 1885). However, since they were able to give us only the nickname ("Bud") of Roscoe's father, we cannot tell which family he belonged to. Bud died in Cainsville in 1887. Roscoe's widow, Charlotte or Lottie Lehew, told us that Roscoe's mother was Mary Jane Kindred Murphy, and that Mary Jane and "Bud" were married in Cainsville, Tenn. about 1881. We have a Wilson Co., Tenn. record of a marriage between one F. L. Lehew and Mary Jane Murphy in 1882. Who F. L. Lehew was we do not know, but surely this is Bud. The only F. Lehew on Rutherford and Wilson Co. census lists 1850 through 1870 is Franklin, whose middle initial is never shown. We have no way of telling whether Franklin could have married a second time in 1882. We could not find him on the 1880 Census. There were no children listed with Franklin in 1850, 1860, or 1870.

Another family of Lehews which seems to belong to the Tennessee group, but which we cannot definitely fit in because the information from descendants doesn't go back far enough, is the Isom Green Lehew family. Texas descendants of William and Delilah Lehew consider the Isom Green Lehew group to be somehow related, and the middle name "Green" is almost enough in itself to identify Isom with this group. Isom died in 1933 in Chickasha, Okla., age about 61. He is said to have been born in Kentucky, and there might be a possibility of learning more about him if the exact place in Kentucky were known. Isom Green Lehew married Willie Ann White, and the following is at least a partial list of their family: Floyd G. Lehew, b. 1899 in Texas; Haskell Lehew, b. 1907 in Okla.; Mary Lehew Sparks; and Lewis Lehew.

The Confederate records referred to above cause us to wonder whether there were other Tennessee counties involved in addition to the ones we studied, since they indicate either that there were more individuals serving than we have found on 1850 and 1860 Census listings, or that numerous records for the same individual were kept under so many different spellings, initials, etc. that they only seem like different individuals. The Confederate records are sketchy, and we were no more certain from them how many Lehews served in Tennessee's Confederate Army than were those who attempted the job of indexing these records for the National Archives! However, it is certain that the following Lehews who show up on the census of Rutherford or Wilson Co. in 1850 and 1860 served in Tennessee units of the Confederate Army (mostly 18th Reg't): Jeremiah Green Lehew, Charles Francis Lehew, and Abner Lehew. In addition, there seem to have been two Johns who served. One of the Johns was John Green Lehew. And one of the John Lehews died from wounds received at Chickamauga 20 Sept. 1863. One John Lehew was listed as 22 on an 1864 muster roll. This could be John, son of James and Ellen, since a nine-year-old John appears with them on the 1850 Census. Our Texas correspondents have indicated that an "Uncle John" Lehew (uncle to Jeremiah Green Lehew, b. 1841, and Richard Pinkney Lehew, b. 1853) visited at Richard's house in Texas in the 1890's, and died there in Texas (buried in Van Zandt Co.). This could possibly have been the second John who served in the 18th Reg't of Tennessee's Confederate Army. One John Lehew signed the oath of allegiance to the U.S. at Louisville on 27 Nov. 1863 and was sent north of the Ohio River. His residence had been Wilson Co., Tennessee.

WILLIAM AND DELILAH LEHEW and some of their descendants --William Lehew was born about 1821 in Virginia. He was married in Rutherford Co., Tenn. to Delilah Adams. He evidently died between 1870 and 1880, since he is listed on the 1870 Census, and his wife and family appear without him on the 1880 Census (Rutherford Co.).

Children of William Lehew and wife Delilah (I thru X):

I. Jeremiah Green Lehew, b. 31 Aug. 1841 in Murfreesboro, Tenn. area; m. (1) on 19 Dec. 1866 in Cannon Co., Tenn. to Amanda M. Herndon; she d. 29 May 1873; (2) in November 1874 to Elizabeth Saunders; she d. 11 March 1878; (3) on 4 May 1879 to Rachel Susan Scott; Rachel died 28 Nov.1927 in Fort Worth, Texas. Jeremiah Green Lehew d. 3 Mar.1906 at Smithfield, Texas, and is buried in Tarrant Co. near Fort Worth.

On the 1870 Census of Rutherford Co., Tenn., Jeremiah and wife Amanda and two daughters appear in the same district (Milton) as Jeremiah's parents. By 1880 Census time they were in Stoddard Co., Missouri. Since the youngest of the children listed with them in Stoddard Co. in 1880 is shown with a Tenn. birthplace (Francis M., b. 1876 in Tenn.), it would seem that the move from Tennessee took place between 1876 and 1880. Descendants estimate the date of arrival in Texas as between 1883 and 1886.

Jeremiah Green Lehew served in Co. I, 18 Tenn. Reg't of the Confederate Army during the Civil War.

Lehew, on 1880 Census); Charles F. died 14 Mar. 1919. He served in the Confederate Army in Co. I, 18 Tenn. Confed. Inftry. Was captured near Atlanta in 1864 and taken to Camp Chase, Ohio. His application for pension (from state of Tenn.) in 1903 gives his address as Cainsville, Wilson Co., Tenn. His wife had died before the time of this pension application, and he gave as size of family: self and 2 children: son age 20, daughter age 14; occupation, farming, at which he was not able to make a living.... Charles Francis Lehew was with his parents in Rutherford Co., Tenn. at census time in 1850 and 1860. He was probably the Francis "Lahugh" listed in the household of Frank and Frances Lahugh in Wilson Co. in 1870 (age 27). And in 1880, C. F. Lehew and wife M. E. appear on the Wilson Co., Tenn. Census, with one son W. G., age seven.

III. Sarah A. Lehew, b. abt. 1847 in Tenn.

IV. Abner Joseph Lehew (later called Joseph), b. abt. 1849 in Tenn. Died in Tennessee about 1917 or 1918. Listed with his parents on the 1850, 1860, and 1870 Census of Rutherford Co., Tenn. The 1880 Census shows Joseph and Victoria "Lahu" living near Milton in Rutherford Co., with five children. It is assumed that it was this Joseph "Layhew" whose marriage to Miss Sarah V. Bennett on 27 Oct. 1870 is recorded in Rutherford Co. This is probably the Victoria Bennett listed with the family of Franklin Lehew on the 1870 Census. Joseph's grandson, N. B. Lehew of Ft. Worth, Texas, tells us his grandmother and most of the family died of typhoid fever about 1889. Joseph probably married a second time--to Mrs. Mary E. Richardson in 1891.

Children of Joseph Lehew (A thru G):

X. Alonzo Lehew, b. abt. 1864; appears on 1870 Census with parents (Rutherford Co.); not with widowed mother on 1880 census; probably the same Alonzo Lehew who was living with a family named Reeves in Rutherford Co. in 1880

JAMES AND ELLEN LEHEW FAMILY--James Lehew was born about 1815 in Virginia; m. 12 Oct. 1840 in Rutherford Co., Tenn. to Ellen Carpenter. They appear in Rutherford Co., Tenn. on the 1850 and 1860 Census, and in Wilson Co., Tenn. on the 1870 and 1880 Census. The following list of their children, all born in Tennessee, is made up from these census listings. We have not been able to trace them any further than this.

Children:

I. John Lehew, b. abt. 1841
II. Betsey A. Lehew, b. abt. 1843
III. Sarah Lehew, b. abt. 1845
IV. Milly F. Lehew, b. abt. 1846
V. Martha Lehew, b. abt. 1849
VI. Julia Lehew, b. abt. 1851
VII. Charles Lehew, b. abt. 1853
VIII. Mary Lehew, b. abt. 1855
IX. Robert Lehew, b. abt. 1859
X. Maria Lehew, b. abt. 1862
XI. Causadia? Lehew (dau.) b. abt. 1866
XII. Daniel Lehew, b. abt. 1869

ABNER AND SUSAN LEHEW FAMILY--Abner Lehew seems to have been born in Ohio sometime between 1822 and 1825. Abner and Susan and family appear in Wilson Co., Tenn. on the 1850, 1860, and 1870 Census. We could not find them on the 1880 Census of Wilson or Rutherford Co., and have no knowledge of their descendants other than the following list of children which we have made up from the above census listings:

Children:
I. James Lehew, b. abt. 1844
II. Connell? Lehew, b. abt. 1845 or 1846
III. John G. Lehew, b. abt. 1849
IV. Dorothea Elizabeth Lehew, b. abt. 1856

Abner served in Co. F, 45 Tenn. Inftry. in the Confederate Army. He gave his occupation as stonemason at the time of his enlistment--as carpenter at the time of the 1870 Census.

FRANKLIN AND FRANCES LEHEW--Franklin Lehew seems to have been born in Ohio sometime between 1823 and 1828. On the 1850 Census of Wilson Co., Tenn., Franklin and Frances are listed with Abner and Susan Lehew, with a note in line with Franklin saying "married within the year". The 1860 Census shows them on their own in Wilson Co., and in 1870, also in Wilson Co., two others, obviously not their children, appear with them, as shown below. We could not find them in 1880.

1870 Census, Wilson Co., Tennessee (Cainsville)

Franklin Lahugh	age 47
Frances Lahugh	55
Victoria Bennett	18
Francis Lahugh*	27

*Possibly Charles Francis Lehew, son of Wm. Lehew and Delilah.

NORTH CAROLINA LEHEWS

The presence of Lehew families in North Carolina was brought to our attention when we read the index to the Confederate records which are on file in the National Archives. One Benjamin W. Lehew was enrolled in Co. G, Cape Fear Regt. of Artillery, North Carolina Volunteers, in May of 1862. He was 28 at the time. On muster rolls the name is spelled both Lehue and Lehew.

In an effort to learn what we could about these Lehews and any possible connection there might be with Peter Lehew of Front Royal, we read the 1850 Census of Brunswick Co., N. Car. (the county was shown on Benjamin's Confederate record). We found several Lehew names on this 1850 Census, as follows:

SMITHVILLE DISTRICT - BRUNSWICK CO., N. CAR. - 1850

William F. Jones	27	Farmer	b. North Carolina
Mary Jones	25		"	"
Benjamin Jones	3		"	"
William Jones	1		"	"
Benjamin Leehu	18	Labourer	"	"
Sarah Leehu	23		"	"

LOCKWOODSFOLLY DISTRICT

John Lahew	41	Farmer	"	"
Catherine Lahew	36		"	"
Rebecca Holdin	23		"	"
Eliz. "	1		"	"

TOWN CREEK DISTRICT

Absalom Ward	35	Farmer	"	"
Rebecca Ward	33		"	"
Unity Ward	6		"	"
Samuel Lehue	20	Labourer	"	"
Isum Reynolds	10		"	"

Note that the oldest Lehew on these lists was John "Lahew", age 41, and that the census listing indicates that he (as well as the others) was born in North Carolina. The place in North Carolina is not stated, but the 1810 Census of Brunswick Co. seemed a logical place to start, and sure enough, there was a Lehew family in Brunswick Co. as early as 1810--as follows:

1810 CENSUS - BRUNSWICK CO., N. CAR.

John Lehu - males: 1 under 10; 1(26-45)
females: 2 under 10: 1(10-16); 1(26-45)

So John was born between 1765 and 1784--where, we do not know, since the above information is all the 1810 Census provides. Now--were there any Lehew families in Brunswick Co. in 1800? We read the 1800 Census to find out, and found none. And there were no Lehews to be found in the index to the 1790 Census of the entire state of N. Car. John Lehew evidently moved into Brunswick Co. between 1800 and 1810, and seems not to have been anywhere in North Carolina in 1790. The spellings used in records and by present-day residents of the areas where they were listed in 1850 certainly suggest possible Virginia

Lehew connections, but we need much more than this to prove anything. We did attempt some further research, which we shall describe in detail in case anyone would like to carry this further. We were not able to learn anything about Lehews in North Carolina before 1810, and while we do have a few ideas for possible further research, we cannot see any possibility of carrying them out ourselves.

What did we learn about Brunswick Co. Lehews AFTER 1810?

1. That the only Lehew family in Brunswick Co. at the time of the 1820 and 1830 Census was John Lehew--undoubtedly the same John as on the 1810 Census. Here are those listings:

   1820 Males: 1(10-16); 1(45 or over)
   Females: 1(16-26); 1(45 or over)

   1830 Males: 1(under 5); 1(20-30); 1(50-60)
   Females: 2(under 5); 1(10-15); 1(30-40)

2. That by using the age groupings on all 3 early census listings to figure John's birthdate, we can narrow it down to between 1770 and 1775.

3. That John seems to have had a wife of over 45 in 1820, and one between 30 and 40 in 1830. This ties in with a marriage bond which is on file in the North Carolina State Archives for a marriage between John "Lehue" and Sarah Ward--date of bond--1 March 1822--place, Brunswick Co. It looks as though John remarried in 1822. Note that at 1850 Census time, Samuel "Lehue" was in the household of one Absalom Ward.

4. As to John's children--assuming that all listed with him on the 1810, 1820, and 1830 Census were family members, these listings indicate:

   That John probably had by 1st marr.:
   i. dau. b. 1794-1800
   ii. dau. b. 1800-1810--not with fam. in 1820) married or
   iii. dau. b. 1800-1810 " " " " ") died?
   iv. son b. 1804-1810 - prob. John b. abt. 1809 (1850 Cen.)
   v. dau. b. 1815-1820 - either elsewhere at 1820 Census time, or born just after census time?
   and by 2nd marriage
   vi. son b. 1825-1830
   vii. dau. b. 1825-1830) one of these was probably Sarah, viii. dau. b. 1825-1830) listed as age 23 in 1850

5. Now--who were the Lehews on the 1850 Census? We suggest that: the older John (head of family in 1810, 1820, 1830) had either died or moved away by 1850--he would have been between 75 and 80 in 1850; that the John of the 1850 Census was his son, born about 1809, and showing up as the only son on the 1810 and 1820 Census; that Samuel and Benjamin could have been sons of the younger John, and that the son (vi) of the older John who was born between 1825 and 1830 might also have been named Benjamin, since one Benjamin Lehew had a land grant in Brunswick Co. from the State of North Carolina in April 1845--at which time the Benjamin on the 1850 Census would have been only 13--a bit young for a land grant! If there was a second Benjamin, he does not seem to have been in Brunswick Co. in 1850.

6. A subsequent trip to Southport, N. Car. (formerly called Smithville)--county seat of Brunswick Co.--made it possible to search among courthouse records for additional information. Taking the period up to 1890 (after which a younger generation begins to show up in the records), the only male Lehew names in the records are Benjamin W. Lehew and Samuel W. Lehew. We assume that these were brothers, that Samuel is the one who shows up in the Town Creek District on the 1850 Census, b. abt. 1830, and that Benjamin is the one who shows up in the Smithville District in 1850, b. abt. 1832. And that if we go back one generation we shall find that one of the Johns is the next ancestor in line.

From the above, it seems fair enough to assume that present day Lehew-Lehue families in Brunswick Co. are descendants of either Samuel W. or Benjamin W. Lehew. So we shall see how far we can go in tracing their descendants.

SAMUEL WILLIAM LEHEW and some descendants--Samuel was born about 1830 in Southport, and was almost certainly a son of one of the Johns of Brunswick Co. He is listed as age 20 on the 1850 Census; as 40 on the 1870 Census; as 45 on the record of his 2nd marriage in 1875; as 52 on the record of his 3d marriage in 1890; and on his daughter Eva Mae Betts Lehew's delayed registration of her birth, her father's birth year is given as 1834! We are inclined to give least credence to the age shown in 1890. Note that he was marrying a 20 year old girl. Samuel W. Lehew married three times, each time in Brunswick Co. (1) on 22 May 1855, he married Eliza Bond, widow of Samuel Bond. A piece of property which Eliza willed to her husband, Samuel W. Lehew, in 1874, helps to identify this Samuel W. Lehew as the father of Eva Mae Lehew, Samuel W. Lehew, Benjamin F. Lehew, and Harry G. Lehew. It is described in Eliza's will and in a 1927 real estate record which lists the heirs-at-law of Samuel W. Lehew, as property in Southport, being a part of Lot 41 according to the plan of the Town of Smithville. Samuel Lehew, boat builder, and Eliza Lehew appear on the 1870 Census in the Town of Smithville. No children appear with them.

Samuel W. Lehew was married (2) on 21 Oct. 1875 to Mary B. Hewett, age 25. Samuel W. was 45 according to this record, which is the earliest to give ages. And (3) on 9 April 1890, he married Mary Emma Greer, dau. of B. F. and J. S. Greer of Smithville Township. Mary Emma was born in 1870 in Southport and died in 1924. On the record of this marriage, Samuel's age appears as 52 (surely either a mistake in the record, or an attempt to narrow the age difference?).

Samuel W. Lehew's will--dated 29 Sept. 1906--names his wife Emma to receive personal property and a house on Dry Street between Moore and Nash--the other real property to go to his children. Their names do not appear in the will, but in 1927 (after his wife's death), a list of his next of kin appears in connection with the property in Southport. This list of children (designated as brothers and sister) is the one we have used below:

Children of Samuel W. Lehew (by 3rd wife--none by others?)

I. Samuel W. Lehew, b. abt. 1892-1894; m. 21 Apr. 1924 in Brunswick Co. to Janie Bolton. They had a son Samuel W. Lehew, Jr., b. in Southport on 4 Oct. 1927. Samuel, Sr. was a printer in 1927. He (Sam Sr.) died before 1966.

II. Benjamin F. Lehew, b. ____; m. Velma T. _____. Lived in Brunswick Co. in 1927; d. bef. 1966.

III. Harry G. Lehew, b. 5 Apr. 1895; m. Mary Virginia Bussels of Virginia; lived in Brunswick Co. in 1927; he was a U.S.E.D. Capt.--Hooper Dredge; Harry left Southport sometime after he got his license as Captain of a dredger--he worked out of Newport News, Va. and also out of Brooklyn, N. Y., and out of Massachusetts. They returned to Southport to retire. Harry d. 30 Jan. 1961 in Southport. His widow was still living there in 1966.

IV. Eva Mae Betts Lehew, b. 4 Jan. 1901; m. Norman Shepard; lived in New Hanover Co., N. Car. in 1925; had married and moved to Johnston Co., N. Car. by 1927. Living in Smithfield, N. Car. in 1967.

BENJAMIN W. LEHEW and some of his descendants--Benjamin was born about 1832 in North Carolina, and was almost certainly a son of one of the Johns of Brunswick Co. He is listed on the 1850 Census as age 18, on the 1870 Census as 38, and on his enlistment record in 1862 as 28! Married 5 Oct. 1854 in Brunswick Co. to Julia Hewett. This is undoubtedly the same Benjamin W. Lehew who served in the Confederate Army from Brunswick Co.

Tentative list of Benjamin's children (I through VI appear with Benj. and Julia on the 1870 Census of Brunswick Co.--and there may have been later ones as well)

I. Mary E. Lehew, b. abt. 1856

II. Sarah A. Lehew, b. abt. 1858 cont. next page

Benj. Lehew children contd.

III. Rebecca A. Lehew, b. abt. 1860
IV. Emily C. Lehew, b. abt. 1862; m. Samuel A. Lewis in 1882; one James Lehew (unidentified) acted as witness.
V. Nancy L. Lehew, b. abt. 1865.
VI. Benjamin Morris Lehew, b. abt. 1869
VII. Lawson Devon Lehew, b. abt. 1879-81, was possibly also a son of Benjamin and Julia; Lawson Devon "Lehue" m. on 23 March 1916 in Supply, Brunswick Co., to Elneda J. Weeks, dau. of Julius and Mary Weeks. Lawson "Lehue" died in Southport, N. Car. on 7 Dec. 1956. His residence had been Shallotte, N. Car. rural route. The births of the following children of Lawson and Elneda are registered in Brunswick Co.

Children of Lawson Lehew:
(A) Lehew boy (perhaps Oddy Howell Lehue?), b. 5 Aug. 1918 in Shallotte, no 1st name on record. Oddy was born about 1918, however, and is a grandson of Benj. W. Lehew.
(B) Leamon McCleanic Lehew, b. 16 July 1922
(C) Kittie Lehue, b. 5 Apr. 1925
(D) Meeva E. Lehue, b. 30 Jan. 1929
(E) Jonis Lehew, b. 19 Dec. 1932

These are spelled as they appear in birth records.

JOHN LEHEW (b. 1807-09)--We have not been able to trace any descendants of John and Catherine Lehew. John "Lahew" and wife Catherine show up on the 1850 Census of Brunswick Co., North Carolina, and John G. "Lehew" and wife Catherine show up on the 1870 Census, both times in Lockwoodsfolly District. No children listed with them on either census, and we have found nothing on them in county records.

Anyone willing to spend the time and effort (and maybe a bit of cash!) to go further into this research on North Carolina Lehews might wish to consider the following:

1. New Hanover Co. is very close to Brunswick Co. (Cape Fear seems to be in New Hanover Co., yet is very close to Southport)--and there was a Charles Lehew in New Hanover Co. in 1850. We were not in the area long enough to attempt a Courthouse search in New Hanover Co., and have not had access to any but the 1850 and the 1800 Census. There were no Lehews on the 1800 Census of New Hanover Co.

2. Perhaps other nearby counties in North Carolina--and even over the line in South Carolina--might produce some results. We have no clues leading to any particular counties, however, and this does make it difficult to know where to begin.

3. We found the name spelled both Lehew and Lehue in phone books, etc. in the area in 1966--but we believe this should not discourage anyone from expecting to find a common ancestor for those of both spellings. We found both spellings right in the same family, both in the case of Samuel and of Benjamin, and suggest that it has not been so long since different branches chose different standardized forms.

4. IF we wish to speculate as to possible connections with Peter Lehew of Front Royal, then we must take a second look at the list of Peter's sons--see main section of book--and begin by eliminating from the list all those sons of Peter whose families seem to be completely accounted for. We are searching for a John Lehew born between 1770 and 1775, and we are assuming for the moment that he might have been a grandson of Peter. Of the seven sons of the Peter who died between 1780 and 1782 (our Number 1), we can eliminate all but two. William, Francis, David, and Spencer definitely had sons named John, but we have located each of these Johns in 1810 (not in N. Car.). According to our analysis, Peter Sr.'s son John died childless. We are left with Jeremiah and Peter,Jr., about whose families we know nothing. Unfortunately, we have no ideas as to how to find anything on either of them.

END OF SECTION ON NORTH CAROLINA LEHEWS

END OF APPENDIX I

The following notes are for further clarification of points raised in the main section of the book--the numbers here corresponding to numbers at the bottom of the pages in question--"See Note 1, Appendix II"--for instance.

Note 1

These census lists (also the muster lists referred to below) are part of a collection of documents now referred to as "The Bird-Samuels Papers", and are published in Brumbaugh's Revolutionary War Records of Virginia. The originals were presented to the Virginia Historical Society by the last member of the Samuels family to own them--Dr. Bernard Samuels. These papers relate to military affairs in Dunmore Co., and contain records of the activities of the County Committee of Safety at the beginning of the Revolution. The papers were found in 1933 at "Birdwood," Woodstock, Virginia, among the effects of Judge Mark Bird (1810-1883). They had belonged to one of the members of the Dunmore Committee of Safety--Colonel Abraham Bird. Dr. Samuels was a descendant of Colonel Abraham Bird's brother. (Dr. Samuels was also a descendant of Peter Lehew of Front Royal)

Muster lists--A company of Shenandoah men were mustered in 1774 for General Andrew Lewis' Army, and one of the companies under Gov. Dunmore was commanded by Captain Joseph Bowman of Shenandoah County. A petition was presented by Joseph Bowman in 1776 to the Revolutionary Convention in session at Williamsburg for expenses incurred in furnishing necessaries to a company of militia which he had commanded under Lord Dunmore "in the late expedition against the Indians."

History of Dunmore Co.--Dunmore County, Virginia, was formed from part of Frederick Co. in 1772 and named for Lord Dunmore, then Governor of Virginia. The name was changed to "Shanando" in 1777 because Lord Dunmore remained loyal to England. Originally this county took in present-day Shenandoah and parts of present-day Page and Warren Counties. Front Royal was never quite within the bounds of Shenandoah Co., but from 1772 to 1836 (Warren Co. was formed in 1836--and Front Royal is in Warren Co.), it was very near the northeast boundary.

The above information is from Gaius Marcus Brumbaugh's Revolutionary War Records, Virginia (Washington, D.C., 1936); and from John W. Wayland's A History of Shenandoah County, Virginia (Shenandoah Publishing House, Strasburg, Va. 1927).

Note 2

By combining the Revolutionary records still extant on David & Jeremiah Lehew and Vincent Owens, all of whom served in the same company, we can add a few more bits of information. Vincent Owens (perhaps a son of Vincent & Winifred Lehew Owens?), when he applied for pension, stated that he enlisted in the 2d Regt. of the State Line of Virginia in 1778 along with David "Layhew", Thomas Morgan, Jeremiah "Layhew", Simon Harrell (all Frederick Co., Va. names). Vincent Owens says he lived at Front Royal at the time of enlistment. Vincent Owens also stated that when he first made application for pension in 1819 (this first claim was rejected, but he was successful under the Act of 1832), he had David "Layhew's" testimony regarding his service, but had lost track of him later. We have thus established David's presence near Vincent Owens in 1819. Evidently David was not a property owner during his residence in Fayette and Westmoreland Counties in Penna., but Vincent Owens was; an 1818 record shows Vincent Owens owning property in Bridgeport, in Fayette Co., and residing there.

Note 2 contd.

Note 3

Here are some of the records and statements of interrelationships which, along with county records and census reports, helped us to determine the names of the children of Peter (28):

1. Family records kept by Charles H. Lehew, a greatgrandson of Peter, place John (grandfather of Charles) in Peter's family. Charles was born in 1860 in the Proctor area near Peter's burial place, and lived in the vicinity for many years. He was keenly interested in family history.

2. Other "oldtimers" in the Proctor area have placed John and David Lehew as brothers--sons of the Peter buried on Proctor Ridge--and have indicated that William was also a close connection. David's death record in Tyler Co., W.Va. shows his parents as P. and L. Lehew.

3. In a letter written in the early 1930's, Miss Sue Lehew, of Mason City, W.Va., a granddaughter of William Lehew, indicated that her father had an Uncle John Lehew, whose daughter married a Hoyt. We know that Eliza Lehew, daughter of Peter's son John, married Abraham Hoyt. So John, David, and William were brothers--all sons of Peter. During visits with Miss Sue Lehew over the last five years, she has mentioned not only her father's Uncle John Lehew, but also her father's Aunt Catherine, who was a Lehew. She also gave us names of two Parkersburg, W. Va. descendants of Catherine, and we learned more from them. This brings Catherine into the picture.

4. Mrs. Inez Lehew Brainerd, and Mrs. Zelma Lehew Van Guilder, greatgranddaughters of the Peter, Jr. whom we have included as a child of Peter (28), have given us much information on their branch of the Lehew family. They have stated that their Peter had a sister Lynn who married Greenberry Poulson. This in itself places them in the area where the other children of Peter were around 1850. The marriage of Melinda (Belinda in some records) Lehew and Greenberry Poulson is on record in Marshall Co., W. Va. They also appear on the Note 3, contd.

1850 Census in Marshall Co., as does Peter Lehew, Jr.--identified as the ancestor of Mrs. Brainerd and Mrs. Van Guilder by the names of the children listed with them, which agree with the list supplied by Mrs. Brainerd and Mrs. Van Guilder. Also of significance here is that on the 1850 Census, Peter Lehew, Jr.--so designated--is listed immediately next to Peter Lehew, Sr.--so designated. These Lehew sisters go on to say that their grandfather (Wilford Lehew) told of visits from his cousin Abraham Lehew in the early 1870's, when Wilford lived in Missouri. "Cousin Abraham", they said, left Missouri and went to Sacramento, California. The compilers know this Abraham Lehew as grandfather (to James H. LeHue) and great-grandfather (to Edith Foster). He was a son of John Lehew and grandson of Peter (28). We have a picture of him taken in Sacramento--also an 1870 Census listing of him in Boonville, Mo. (Cooper County). Peter Lehew, greatgrandfather of Inez Brainerd and Zelma Van Guilder, was also listed in Boonville Township with his family, and Wilford Lehew, son of this Peter, and grandfather of Mrs. Brainerd and Mrs. Van Guilder, was also in Cooper Co. in 1870 with his family.

We feel all this makes a good case for Peter, Jr. having been a son of Peter, Sr. (28), and brings in his sister Lynn (Melinda-Belinda) as well.

Note 4

JOHN LESLIE LEHEW, son of Robert Milton Lehew and wife Anna Phebe (Hagenbuch), was born 25 Feb. 1868 in Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. This is Dr. John Leslie Lehew I (designated as first, because he has a son, grandson, and greatgrandson named for him). Married on 30 August 1900 in Pawnee, Oklahoma to Hattie Belle Hutchinson, daughter of Herman Austin Hutchinson and wife Nora Belle (Wheeler). The Hutchinsons were from New York State, and Hattie Belle (b.1880) had been a teacher.

Listed on 1880 Census with his parents in Mt. Pleasant, Henry Co., Iowa.

John Leslie Lehew taught school in 1885 and 1886, and in 1891 completed the academic course at Baker University at Baldwin City, Kansas. He then entered Farmer's State Bank at Grenda, Kansas as bookkeeper, resigning in 1894 to take up the study and later the practice of medicine. Dr. John Leslie Lehew I graduated in medicine in 1897 and went to Pawnee, Oklahoma in 1899. He was the local surgeon for the Santa Fe Railroad for 35 years, and the company extended him courtesy of transportation many years after that. In 1953, doctors from five counties met to honor this pioneer doctor for his more than 50 years of medical service to his community.

Dr. John L. was prominent in the affairs of the First National Bank of Pawnee for many years, serving as Vice-President and Director for some of those years.

Dr. Lehew did a great deal of the early research on the Lehew family, looking up Lehew families and Lehew records wherever he traveled, and in between trips carrying on a vast correspondence on the subject. Many of the old letters which have served to point the way for us later researchers were written to him and shared with us.

Note 4, contd.

Note that while Dr. John Leslie Lehew I used the small "h", his sons prefer the capital "H" way of writing the name.

Dr. John Leslie Lehew I died at age 99 in February of 1967. His widow died in May 1967 at age 87.

Children:

i. John Leslie LeHew II, b. 23 Oct. 1901; m. Virgil Irene James; they have a son John Leslie LeHew; both father and son are physicians in Guthrie, Okla.

ii. Elton Wilmot LeHew, b. 10 July 1904; m. Elizabeth Amis; this is Dr. Elton W. LeHew, of Guthrie, Okla.; he served in a Medical Regt. in W.W.II.

iii. Clifford Hagenbuch LeHew, b. 11 Sept. 1909; m. Cora Gilliland; served in W.W.II in a Medical Regt.; this is Dr. C. H. LeHew, a dentist.
